05/05/2017	305	Judge Allison D. Burroughs: ELECTRONIC ORDER entered. SFFA's motions to quash certain subpoenas [ECF Nos. 255, 260] are DENIED. SFFA failed to meet its burden under Fed. R. Civ. P. 45(d)(3). Because of the broad understanding of what constitutes relevant discovery, it is very unusual for a court to prohibit the taking of a deposition altogether. Green v. Cosby , 152 F. Supp. 3d 31, 35 (D. Mass. 2015), modified on reconsideration on other grounds, 160 F. Supp. 3d 431 (D. Mass. 2016) (quoting E.E.O.C. v. Freudenberg NOK Gen. P'ship, No. 07 Civ. 406, 2009 WL 909571, at *3 (D.N.H. Apr. 3, 2009)). Moreover, at this stage, the Court will not unduly fetter the parties ability to develop a complete factual record. 05/09/2017	307	Judge Allison D. Burroughs: ELECTRONIC ORDER entered Boston Latin's motion to quash SFFA's subpoena to BLS [ECF No. 272] is GRANTED IN PART and DENIED IN PART . BLS will not be required to produce documents or information that were prepared by or shared with Harvard. However, BLS is hereby ordered to produce the following: (1) documents from the Relevant Period prepared by BLS concerning the racial composition of applicants, admitted persons, or enrollees to Harvard, excluding documents that merely aggregate statistical information; (2) all internal communications from the Relevant Period by or among BLS employees or agents regarding Harvard's use of race in the admissions process; (3) any documents from the Relevant Period that describe any alleged discrimination by Harvard against persons of Asian descent in the college admissions process; and (4) all non–privileged communications during the Relevant Period concerning SFFA or this litigation. Furthermore, SFFA may depose a BLS representative. The motion to quash is otherwise granted. This is meant to minimize the burden on non–party BLS, while also ensuring the availability of information and the integrity of the discovery process. 07/11/2017	339	Judge Allison D. Burroughs: ELECTRONIC ORDER entered. On July 7, 2017, SFFA requested that the Court order certain witness depositions to be taken on a weekend or, alternatively, that those depositions be quashed. [ECF No. 338]. Although the Court strongly urges the parties to work to accommodate witness schedules, the Court will not require that depositions be taken on a weekend over the objection of either party. Further, an unwillingness to take depositions over a weekend does not justify quashing the depositions in their entirety.(Folan, Karen) (Entered: 07/11/2017)

08/07/2017	351	Judge Allison D. Burroughs: ELECTRONIC ORDER entered. The Court is very reluctant to allow SFFA the additional deposition that it now seeks. [ECF No. 344]. The discovery period has ended. Further, the potential deponent clearly qualifies as a party, and SFFA has used all of its allotted party depositions. The testimony sought seems largely duplicative of information already obtained and of marginal utility. The Court would be well within its bounds to decline the request for the above reasons as well as other reasons set forth by Harvard in its opposition [ECF No. 347]. That being said, the Court is equally reluctant to force this case to go forward without a fully developed factual record, particularly where there is only one additional deposition sought and where Harvard arguably should have disclosed the name of the deponent earlier. Out of an abundance of caution and trying to fairly balance the interests of the parties, the Court will allow the deposition to go forward under the following conditions: the deposition will be limited to two (2) hours and will take place at a location and time convenient for the deponent and Harvard, with SFFA to bear all the costs of the deposition, including reasonable attorneys fees and costs incurred by Harvard. See San Francisco Health Plan v. McKesson Corp. , 264 F.R.D. 20, 21 (D. Mass. 2010) (ordering party seeking additional depositions to pay associated costs because a balance must be struck between upholding the limitations of the rule and the reasons for those limitations on the one hand and counsel's judgment as to the needs of his or her case on the other). Alternatively, the parties can agree on a different format, including allowing the deponent to respond to written questions. (Montes, Mariliz) (Entered: 08/07/2017)

08/31/2017	360	Judge Allison D. Burroughs: ELECTRONIC ORDER entered. The Court is in receipt of letters from both parties. [ECF Nos. 355, 359]. Despite the fact that discovery had closed and SFFA had used all of its allotted party depositions, the Court allowed one additional deposition to go forward with the understanding that SFFA would bear all of the reasonable associated expenses, including Harvard's attorneys' fees. [ECF No. 351]. SFFA has not presented compelling grounds to reconsider that decision. The estimate provided by Harvard is not unreasonable on its face. SFFA may challenge the reasonableness of the fees and costs after they have accrued or forego the deposition, which again appears to seek information that is marginal, duplicative, and disproportionate.(Montes, Mariliz) (Entered: 08/31/2017)

06/11/2018	407	Judge Allison D. Burroughs: ELECTRONIC ORDER entered granting 406 Motion for Leave to File Excess Pages. Parties are nonetheless encouraged to adhere to the limits set forth in Local Rule 7.1(b)(4) to the extent possible and to limit repetition between the various briefs. Further, given the potential volume of the submissions and the impending trial date, the court further orders as follows: a summary judgment motion shall include a separately filed Statement of Undisputed Facts which details, in numbered paragraphs, the material facts that the moving party contends are undisputed and entitle the movant to judgment as a matter of law. Only those facts which bear on dispositive material issues shall be included in this statement. Oppositions shall include a separate filing of a statement of material facts, responding to each numbered paragraph in the movants Statement of Undisputed Facts, which the respondent contends present genuine issues for trial. The responding party shall also set forth, in separate numbered paragraphs, any additional facts which the respondent contends preclude the entry of summary judgment. Statements of material facts in support of or in opposition to a motion for summary judgment shall include specific references to the parts of the record that support each stated fact. Each stated fact shall cite the source relied upon, including the page of any document or line and page number of any deposition to which reference is made. If both parties are moving for summary judgment, the parties may also submit one joint Statement of Undisputed Facts or include a separate joint submission of facts that are truly undisputed to the extent that that may make sense. In light of the number of pages that are likely to be submitted and the scheduled trial date, the parties are encouraged to work together to find ways in which the information, particularly undisputed facts, can be presented to the court as efficiently as possible. Accordingly, the cross-motions for summary judgment [ECF Nos. 412 , 417] are denied without prejudice. Consistent with this order, the parties may renew their arguments at trial. SO ORDERED . (McDonagh, Christina) (Entered: 09/28/2018)
09/28/2018	567	Judge Allison D. Burroughs: ELECTRONIC ORDER entered. The Courts Summary Judgment Memorandum and Order ("Opinion") cites to several paragraphs in the parties submissions that were filed with redactions. The Court has concluded that two of these paragraphs must be filed without redactions. SFFA shall

		email the Court's docket clerk an updated version of its Statement of Material Fact [ECF No. 414 -2] with the redaction in 130 removed, and an updated version of its Counter Statement of Material Facts [ECF No. 452] with the redaction in its response to 73 removed. The Court finds "good cause" to maintain under seal the remaining redacted statements cited by the Opinion, which consist primarily of individuals' names and other personally identifiable information. Bradford & Bigelow, Inc. v. Richardson, 109 F. Supp. 3d 445, 447 (D. Mass. 2015). The parties disagree about whether there is sufficient cause to maintain partial or complete sealing of approximately 100 exhibits and numerous statements in the parties' submissions. See [ECF No. 422 at 21-24]. Given that the court has not relied on these materials in its Opinion and some of this information may become public during trial, the Court will defer deciding the issues raised by the parties' memoranda on sealing [ECF Nos. 422 , 427] until the conclusion of trial. (McDonagh, Christina) (Entered: 09/28/2018)
