10/13/2011	145	MINUTES IN CHAMBERS ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE by Judge Stephen V. Wilson. The motions and related briefing currently before the Court rely, in part, on the Ninth Circuit's decision in Bull v. City and County of San Francisco, 595 F.3d 964 (9th Cir. 2010) (en banc). On review, it appears that the Supreme Court's decision in Florence v. Board of Chosen Freeholders of the County of Burlington, et al., No. 10–945, which is currently pending before the Supreme Court, potentially could affect the viability of Bull and its application to this case. Accordingly, the Court believes that in the interests of judicial efficiency, this case should be stayed pending the Supreme Court's decision in Florence. If any party disagrees with the Court's assessment, that party is hereby ORDERED to file a supplemental brief with the Court, of no more than five (5) pages in length, within ten (10) days of the date of this order. 07/17/2014	256	IN CHAMBERS ORDER REQUIRING SUPPLEMENTAL BRIEFING ON CLASS CERTIFICATION MOTION by Judge Stephen V. Wilson: The Court ORDERS as follows: Plaintiffs alternative proposals to expand the classwide issues to include inmates experiences of verbal abuse or to define a subclass of inmates who were exposed to verbal abuse are DENIED for the reasons expressed in the Courts order of March 12, 2014. (See Dkt 232: Order at 11-13.) Membership in such a subclass (or in an expanded class encompassing these allegations) would not be reasonably ascertainable in view of the difficulty of defining what constitutes abusive language and the significant variation in deputies behavior. See Keegan v. American Honda Motor Co., 284 F.R.D. 504, 521 (C.D. Cal. 2012). However, the Court DEFERS ruling on whether subclasses should be certified for inmates who experienced unsanitary conditions, extreme weather conditions, or inadequate privacy protection. The parties shall file supplemental briefs. (SEE ORDER FOR DETAILS.) Plaintiffs shall file a supplemental brief of no more than 25 pages addressing the foregoing questions not later than August 4, 2014. Defendants shall file a responsive brief of no more than 25 pages not more than 14 days after plaintiffs brief. Plaintiffs may file a reply of no more than 15 pages within 7 days of the filing of defendants brief. The parties shall appear for a further hearing on this matter on Monday, September 8, 2014, at 1:30 p.m. The Court concludes that further briefing on the question of whether certification of a damages class on the issue of liability pursuant to Rules 23(b)(3) and 23(c)(4) would be superior to individual lawsuits should await answers to the foregoing questions. The Court DEFERS ruling on defendants evidentiary objections to plaintiffs renewed motion 249 . (kss) (Entered: 07/17/2014)
