I further allege that the violation was in retaliation for bringing other civil actions against ODOC officials for mail violations and that the retaliation violates the 1st Amendment of the U.S. Constitution, ~~as well as Oregon Constitution Article I, section 13 and section 16, prohibitions against Unnecessary Riger and Cruel and Unusual Punishment. Lastly, I allege the defendants actions violate my rights and constitute common law actions for Negligence and Negligence Per Se, Interference with Property, and Harassment.~~

V.

ADMINISTRATIVE REMEDIES

(1) I exhausted all available administrative remedies. I gave notice of tort to defendants within 180 days of the alleged violations.

VI.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

- (1) In January 2011 I wrote a letter to my cousin, Chris Weedmark # 13949338, housed at OSP.
- (2) On the envelope I drew a picture. The picture did not advocate violence, criminal activity or a disruption of the prison environment.
- (3) On February 2, 2011 I received the letter back stamped "Refused Return to Sender - Violates Inmate Mail Rule" and in black marker was written "No writing on front of envelope".
- (4) On February 2, 2011 I sent an appeal to defendant Doe objecting to the violation and requesting to be compensated for lost postage.
- (5) On February 24, 2011 I received a response to my appeal from Defendant Premo rejecting my appeal and stating, "The letter was returned to you due to art work being on the envelope." (See Attachment No. 1, incorporated herein by mention, Defendant Premo's response).
- (6) Defendant Premo further cited Oregon Administrative Rule (OAR) 291-131-0025 as his authority for the violations.
- (7) On March 8, 2011 I sent a second level grievance appeal to Jason Hanson, the grievance/mail review authority for OSP. On March 16, 2011 defendant Dodson responded stating the appeal was denied because no administrative review was available. (See Attachment No. 2, incorporated herein by mention, Defendant Dodson's response)
- (8) While Defendant Premo stated the violation was for art on the envelope Defendant Dodson claimed the violation was "based on the presence of an unauthorized attachment, substance, or enclosure on or with the mail," and not "related to the written or pictorial content". (See Attachment No. 2, citing OAR 291-131-0037)
- (9) I gave Notice of Tort to the defendants on April 8, 2011 in an effort to resolve the dispute without further litigation.
- (10) On April 26, 2011 the Oregon Department of Administrative Services responded they would contact me after conducting an investigation. (See Attachment No. 3, incorporated herein by mention, the Oregon Department of Administrative Services response).

(11) As of this date and the filing of the Complaint more than 180 days have expired and no final determination was given to plaintiff from the Oregon Department of Administrative Services.

(12) Plaintiff has pending legal actions against ODOC officials in state and federal court involving mail violation claims.

(13) I have suffered economic and noneconomic damages in the amount of $100,000

VII.

CAUSES OF ACTION(A) CAUSE OF ACTION NO. 1: FREE SPEECH/EXPRESSION (FEDERAL CONSTITUTION)

I ALLEGE THAT THE VIOLATION OF A LETTER FOR HAVING ART ON THE ENVELOPE BY DEFENDANTS "DOE", PREMIO AND DODSON VIOLATED MY RIGHT TO FREE SPEECH AND EXPRESSION PURSUANT TO THE FIRST AMENDMENT OF THE U.S. CONSTITUTION IN THE FOLLOWING PARTICULARS:

- (1) I reallege Section VI, paragraphs # 1 to # 13, incorporated herein by mention as if fully set out here.
- (2) I allege that envelope art is a unique and well established form of art. I allege a number of card and gift stores in Oregon (and throughout the U.S.) sell envelopes with art on them (e.g. Christmas, Easter, Valentines, Birthdays, etc).
- (3) I allege that the blanket ban by defendants on envelope art is not rationally related to legitimate penological objectives.
- (4) I allege the violation of my letter for having ~~card~~ art on the envelope was an unreasonable application of the ODOC mail prohibition rules, and as applied to my mail was not rationally related to any legitimate security concerns.
- (5) I allege that the blanket ban by defendants on envelope art is overbroad.
- (6) Defendant "Doe" is the mailroom censor who originally rejected and violated the mail in question in this action and continues to enforce the blanket ban on envelope art. Defendant Doe violated the mail because art was on the envelope and not because that art promoted violence, criminal activity or other disruption of the prison environment. Defendant Doe knew or should have known that violating mail for having art on the envelope was an unrealistic and unreasonable application of prison rules AND a reasonable official in Defendant Doe's position knew or should have known such action would violate my clearly established rights.
- (7) Defendant Premio in his position as superintendent reviewed defendant Doe's violation and rejection of the mail, utilized and interpreted the prison mail rule, and upheld Defendant Doe's rejection. Defendant Premio upheld the violation "due to artwork being on the envelope." Defendant Premio personally participated in the violation. Defendant Premio knew or should have known that violating mail for having art on the envelope was an unrealistic and unreasonable application of prison rules and a reasonable official in Defendant Premio's position knew or should have known such action would violate my clearly established rights.

(8) Defendant Dodson in her position as Executive Assistant to Defendant Premo reviewed Defendant Premo's rejection of the mail, utilized and interpreted the prison mail rule, and upheld the violation. However, despite having been violated for art on the envelope Defendant Dodson claimed the violation was not based on "written or pictorial" content.

(9) The change in reasoning for the violation demonstrates, in the least, that defendant Dodson knew or should have known that violating mail for art on the envelope was an unreasonable application of prison rules and an official in Defendant Dodson's position knew or should have known such action would violate my clearly established rights.

(10) Defendant Dodson's change in reasoning stating the violation was not for "written or pictorial" content was a belated attempt to justify the violation.

(11) Defendants "Doe", Premo and Dodson's actions were deliberate and done with ill will and malice.

(B) CAUSE OF ACTION NO. 2: DUE PROCESS (FEDERAL CONSTITUTION)

I ALLEGE THAT ~~THE~~ DEFENDANTS PREMIO AND DODSON DENIED ME DUE PROCESS PURSUANT TO THE FOURTEENTH AMENDMENT OF THE U.S. CONSTITUTION WHEN THEY RESELED MAIL FOR ART ON THE ENVELOPE AND DID NOT PERMIT MEANINGFUL REVIEW OF THE VIOLATION IN THE FOLLOWING PARTICULARS:

- (1) I reallege Section VI, paragraphs # 1 to # 13, incorporated herein by mention as if fully set out here.
- (2) I reallege Section VII(A), paragraphs # 1 to # 11, incorporated herein by mention as if fully set out here.
- (3) I was not permitted a reasonable and fair opportunity to object to the violation. In particular Defendant Dodson refused to review my objections stating, the material was not violated due to "written or pictorial" content despite both "Doe" and Premio having clearly stated it was.
- (4) Defendant Dodson did not reasonably or fairly consider my appeal and, in fact, refused to consider it.
- (5) I was not permitted a reasonable and fair opportunity to be heard on the violation.

(H) CAUSE OF ACTION No. 3: RETALIATION (FEDERAL CONSTITUTION)

I ALLEGE THAT THE VIOLATION OF A LETTER FOR HAVING ART ON THE ENVELOPE BY DEFENDANT "DOE", PREMIO, AND DODSON WAS DONE IN RETALIATION FOR FILING CIVIL ACTIONS AGAINST THE OREGON DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS AND ~~SAY~~ SAID ACTION VIOLATES THE PROHIBITION AGAINST CRUEL AND UNUSUAL PUNISHMENT OF THE EIGHTH AMENDMENT OF THE U.S. CONSTITUTION IN THE FOLLOWING PARTICULARS: FIRST AMENDMENT OF THE U.S. CONSTITUTION IN THE FOLLOWING PARTICULARS:

(1) I reallege Section VIII (A), paragraph #1 to #1B, incorporated here by mention as if fully set out here,

(2) The defendants violation was not reasonably related to any legitimate security concern and was designed to be an arbitrary obstruction of my mail and to prevent communication for having pending civil actions against the NMCD and was meant to interfere with my property and otherwise harass me in retaliation for those actions.

RELIEF REQUESTED

I respectfully request this court answer the following relief:
