The Court considered the following motions on October 24, 2007: Plaintiffs' cross-motion for partial summary judgment, opposition to Defendants' motion for summary judgment, and response to Defendants' motion to extend time; Defendants' motion for summary judgment and motion to extend time for filing answer; and unopposed motion to extend scheduling order. This Court hereby finds and declares that an initial bail hearing conducted by Court Commissioners pursuant to Rule 4-216 is not a critical stage of a criminal proceeding requiring representation by the public defender; and it is further
