TABLE A

This table sets out, in summary form, the registration experiences of 185 Negroes in Ouachita Parish. The only persons listed are those who, after their initial registration, were required to re-establish their right to vote two or more times. Not all persons who fall into this category are listed. The common experience of being challenged, retained, challenged and then rejected after the second challenge is exemplified by registration history of six of the persons listed in this table: Catherine Frances, Ella Gooden, Mary Huggins, I. B. January, Frank Johnson, and Emma Powell.

TABLE H

This table shows the annual and monthly statistics regarding the acceptance and rejection of applications filled out by white persons and Negroes during the period 1956-1963. The figures for rejected applications and the reasons for rejection are derived from defendant registrar's Answers to Interrogatories (Pl. Ex. 101) and from a count of the copies of rejected application cards in Pl. Ex. 240. Where both failure of the constitutional interpretation test (or Citizenship Test) and incorrect completion of the application card were given as reasons, the application was included in the column headed "test". For the period after July 1962 during which the Citizenship Test was used, an additional column in parentheses headed "both" includes those applications rejected for failing both the citizenship test and the application card. The figures for the number of applications rejected does not include instances where persons attempted to apply but were not allowed to because they did not satisfy the registrar with proof of their identity or residence. The figures for accepted applications are derived from a count of the application card copies in Pl. Ex. 200, 400 and 500.

TABLE I

This table contains the names of 118 Negroes whose registration status was challenged by the Registrar in August and September, 1956 (Pl. Ex. 305(a)(b), 306(a)(b)) and whose application cards were placed in the closed file (Pl. Ex. 305(c), 306(c)) as a result of that challenge. The cards of the persons listed in this table bear check marks indicating that age computation errors were a basis of challenge.
