Testimony

About 15 or 20 persons were in the room either waiting to apply or applying for registration to vote. While she waited and while she was filling out her form she observed the man who gave out the forms and three other ladies help those persons applying answer the questions on their forms. The man who gave her the form told her when she got to a question she did not understand to call him. There were many parts of the application she didn't understand and the man who gave her the form explained questions to her and told her how she should answer them. After she had finished and the man who had given her the form had examined it, he told her where to sign and she signed her form. She did not sign her name where it appears next to the crossed out signature on page three of her form in the Supplemental Application. She was instructed to take her form to the tax assessor in the Courthouse and have him sign as her supporting witness. She took her form out of the office where she registered to the tax assessor, who she knows, and he signed her form in his office when no registrar was present. While she was registering she saw other persons being told to take their applications outside and get someone to sign them as their supporting witness. After she returned her form to the registrars she was given a certificate of registration. (See Pl. Ex. 5)

Education:	8th grade
Occupation:	Housewife
Date of Birth:	1938

Testimony:

She was given an application form by a registrar and told that if she did not understand the questions, he would explain them to her. The registrar showed her where to sign her name on the form. All three of the registrars, two men and one woman, sat at the table with her when she filled out her form. One other person, a white person was also applying. The witness asked what some of the questions meant. One of these questions was what Q.20 meant ("Name some of the duties and obligations of citizenship.") The registrar told her to put down "Constitution of the United States" as the answer to that question. When she finished she returned her form to the registrars who looked over her application. They told her she must have misread Q.19 (relating to giving comfort to the enemies of the United States Government or the government of the State of Alabama) and Q.20a (relating to whether the applicant regards the duties and obligations which he listed as having priority over the duties and obligation he owes to any other secular organization when they are in conflict). The registrar told her to read them over again. She reread these questions and changed her answers from incorrect to correct answers. After she returned her form to them she received a certificate of registration and was told she had to pay her poll tax before she could vote and was told where to pay it. (See Pl. Ex. 5)

He had difficulty understanding some of the questions on the first two pages of the form. He asked the man who gave him the form about the questions and the man told him what to do. He asked the man about Q.17(20) relating to the duties and obligations of citizenship and the man told him to put down - "defend the Constitution of the United States." He gave the form to the man who gave him a registration certificate. This man told him where to go and pay his poll tax. (Witness testified at the trial of this case.)

17. Long, Betty

Date of Application: 2-5-62
Board Action: Registered
Education: 10th grade
Occupation: Housewife
Date of Birth: 1930

Testimony:

She filled out her form in the Courthouse and there were other white people in the room but no Negroes were present. She filled out her form and then signed it before two registrars. She remembered asking the registrar about at least one question which she didn't understand and he told her what it meant. She had trouble with Q.5(20) relating to the duties and obligations of citizenship and after writing, "To stand for truth and right in all matters," she asked the registrar what would be the best way to word the answer. The registrar told her, "To defend the Constitution of the United States and the State of Alabama" and she then added that to her answer. In order to answer Q.10(5) relating to when she became a bona fide resident of the state she asked her husband for the date she became a bona fide resident. She asked the registrar for the answer to Q.10(5b) relating to when she became a bona fide resident of her precinct and what her precinct number is. She gave her husband help in filling out his form but she cannot remember what she specifically helped him with. (Her husband, Lathan Long, has a 5th grade education.) She listed as her reference in answer to Q.6(21) her father-in-law, T. E. Long, who also vouched for her. She did not write "James Christopher, Butler, Ala." who is listed as her second reference. She does not know who wrote this or when it was written. After turning in her application she received a certificate of registration. (Pl. Ex. 5)

Testimony:

He registered at the Courthouse where he found 10 or 15 persons, all white persons, either filling out application forms or waiting. A lady gave him an application form and told him if he needed any help to ask her. He didn't understand about half of the questions on the form and on several of them the woman explained to him what the question meant. He believes he received help on those parts of the form where he scratched out the answers and changed them. While he was filling out his application form he saw and heard other persons asking and receiving help while they were filling out their forms. He listed as his reference in answer to Q.5(21), "Mr. Sam Robinson" and he did not write nor know who wrote the name of the second reference, "Fred Bruister." He asked the registrar about the supporting witness and she asked him if he knew Fred Bruister or anyone in the Courthouse who could witness his form. He went to find Bruister but couldn't. However, when he returned he found him in the registration room and it appeared as though he was there to sign applications. He did not see Bruister sign his form. The woman gave him a registration certificate after he had finished. (Pl. Ex. 5)

She applied in the Courthouse and two or three other white persons were applying at the same time as she did. A registrar gave her an application form and indicated where she should sign the form. The registrar stood near her and watched her fill out her form. She had trouble with a question and he helped her with the question. He also told her the ward or precinct number she put on her form. Her husband, who also was applying, told her when she became a bona fide resident of Alabama in answer to Q.2(5). He also told her the duties and obligations of citizenship she listed in answer to Q.17(20). She applied in the Courthouse with her husband and does not remember seeing anyone else applying at the same time. She and her husband sat at the table where the registrars were. Parts of the application form were explained to them by the registrars. She originally answered Q.12(19) "yes" concerning the giving of aid or comfort to the enemies of the United States Government or the government of the State of Alabama. A registrar who was seated at the table saw her write this answer and asked her if she had really read the question. She reread the question and changed her answer. She and her husband talked over what were the duties and obligations of citizenship, Q.14(20), and listed the same answer on their forms. [See husband's application Pl. Ex. A-1754] Her husband wrote the answers to Q.15(21) relating to her references and Q.19(5) relating to the dates she became a bona fide resident in the state, county and precinct on her application form. She applied to register to vote five times before she was finally accepted in August, 1962. She first applied in March 1960 at the Courthouse in Butler, Alabama. She filled out her form and returned it to the registrar, but she never heard from that application.

She returned and filled out a second application on November 10, 1961. She filled out her form and gave it back to the registrar. The registrar looked over her application but said nothing to her. She left and never heard from that application either.

In July, 1962 she returned a third time and filled out another application form. She went through the same procedure in filling out a form and returning it to a registrar.

She hadn't heard from her third application so she returned a fourth time in August of 1962 and filled out and submitted another application for registration. She never heard from that application.

She returned a fifth time on September 17, 1962 and filled out another application form. When she turned in her form the registrar looked over her form and told her she had passed. However, the registrar said Mr. Doggett was not there and they would have to wait until he returned and signed her certificate of registration. The registrar said they would send it to her.

She waited another two weeks but she never heard from the Board so she went back on the next registration day. Her certificate was filled out and she received it at that time.

During all of the times she filled out her five applications she did not receive any help or assistance in filling out her forms. (Witness testified at the trial of this case.)

She first attempted to register to vote in Choctaw County in the late 1930's. She went to the Judge's office at the Courthouse in Butler, Alabama and asked if she could register to vote. She was told it was not time for Negroes to register, that it would never be the time for Negroes.

She first applied for registration to vote in Choctaw County in 1952 or 1953. She filled out an application form but she never heard from that application.

She next applied for registration to vote in Choctaw County in February, 1960. She filled out an application form. They told her where to sign her name. She never heard from that application.

The third time she applied was in July, 1962 when she again filled out an application and left it with the registrar. She didn't receive any help in filling out her form. She never heard from that application.

The fourth time she attempted to register was in August, 1962 when she filled out an application form and left it with the registrars. Again, she never heard from this application.

During all her attempts to register she was never told what was wrong with her applications. She still is not registered. She was registered in Mobile in 1956. She tried to transfer this registration to Choctaw but was told she had to apply again.

It was brought out on cross-examination that she had lived with Philon when he hadn't secured a divorce from his wife. (She used the last name of Philon on the application filed in 1960.)

Since her application filed on February 1, 1960 was marked "Incomplete" and her application filed on July 16, 1962 was marked "Unfinished" it is apparent she was not denied registration on the basis of these facts. Her third application dated August 6, 1962 was not passed on by the registrars since a supporting witness failed to sign her form.

Testimony:

He has only a third grade education but he learned to read and write at home after he had become a man. He reads the papers and leads a Sunday School Class. The witness applied for registration to vote eighteen different times with the Board. All of his applications were rejected. He first tried at Yantley when the registrars were registering in the precinct and all other times he tried at the Courthouse in Butler, Alabama.

All of his experiences were about the same. He would go into the office and the manager would tell him he didn't pass on his last application so he would get another application and fill it out. He did not ask what he did wrong on his applications.

The registrars would not let them talk to one another while they were filling out their forms. All of his applications have been rejected and he is not registered to vote.

On cross-examination the witness stated that he had written sixth grade down on several of his forms. He stated this was a mistake that he had only gone to the third grade in school. [14 of his 18 forms list 3rd grade and 4 list 6th grade as the extent of his education.] He also testified that he told Mr. Lee he would pay him $5.00 if he would help him fill out his form. He asked Registrar Doggett to help him once. He did not receive help from any registrar.

Testimony:

He has attempted to register to vote a number of times at the Courthouse in Butler, Alabama but he has never been registered. He first tried in 1954 or 1955 when twice he filled out application forms in the same year. The first time he believes he took the Negro County Farm Agent, Mr. Banks, with him as his voucher. He cannot remember who vouched for him the second time. He never heard from either of these applications.

He tried again in about 1958 and he had a white man, Mr. Woody Cook, vouch for him as he thought it might help him get registered. Cook later told him he vouched for him but the witness never heard from this application.

He tried to register twice in the Fall of 1961. He filled out application forms but again he never heard from the Board.

He applied for his sixth time in July, 1962. He had a Negro, Mr. Anthony Butler, vouch for him. After he finished filling out his form, he asked the registrars why he hadn't passed on his previous applications. The lady registrar told him it was because his forms had not been complete. (All three of his forms under the current Board are marked "Unfinished.") He never heard from the last application and still is not registered to vote.

Testimony:

She first applied for registration to vote in Choctaw County, Alabama in February, 1960. She received no instructions when she filled out her form. After filling out her form she was told one of her references must sign her form for her. She had listed two white people as references and she did not get them to come and vouch for her.

She never heard from her first application and she returned in November, 1961. She filled out another application form and received no instructions on filling out her form except that she should sign where the registrar had checked. When she finished she gave her application to the registrar who looked at the front page of her form and said that was all. The registrar told her she would hear if she passed.

Rosie McSwain accompanied her to the registrars' office and signed as the witness's supporting witness. She never heard from that application. She didn't sign the oath on her form on this attempt and stated she must have overlooked it.

She returned again on June 4, 1962 with her husband Vernon Underwood. They both filled out forms and returned three days later with Rosie McSwain who signed as the supporting witness for her and her husband. She later heard that she was registered as a result of this last application. (Witness testified at the trial of this case.)

He has attempted to register to vote once in Choctaw County on June 4, 1962, but was rejected and is not now registered. He filled out a form at the same time as did his wife Laura Underwood. He received no help in filling out his form except for check marks the registrar put on his form where he was supposed to sign his name. He never heard from this application which he filed.

He was in the Air Force for four years. While he was in the Service he married his wife whose home is in Choctaw County. She remained in Choctaw County and he established his home here when they were married. (Witness testified at the trial of this case.)

Testimony:

She has tried to register four times in Choctaw County and has been rejected on each attempt.

She first applied in about 1958 when she filled out an application form for registration to vote. She never heard from that application.

She tried a second time in March, 1960. The only instructions she recalls having been given this time was that she should fill out the first three pages. After she filled out her form she was told she would hear from the Board if she passed. She never heard from the Board concerning this application.

The next time she tried to apply was in November, 1961 when she went to the Courthouse after school. It was late and she was unable to apply that date. She was not given an application form on this occasion and did not recall having seen Pl. Ex. A-4262 which was shown to her. (This application form was all blank except for that portion filled out by the registrar on page three of the form.)

She returned to the Courthouse to apply again for registration to vote in July, 1962. The only instructions she was given on this occasion in filling out her form was where she was to sign her name on the form. She filled out her form, gave it to the registrars and was told she would hear if she passed. She never heard and she still is not a registered voter.

On both applications she filed with the current board of registrars she answered the question whether she would give aid and comfort to the enemies of the United States Government or the government of the State of Alabama affirmatively. She testified that these answers were mistakes on her part, that she would not give aid to the enemies and that she took the Oath on both of her applications to this effect. (Witness testified at the trial of this case.)

When he received his form with the others, one of the registrars told them they were not allowed to talk to any other person. The registrars told him he should put the names of two qualified voters on his form. He asked Mr. Anthony Butler to vouch for him and he did. TABLE C

ANALYSIS OF ACCEPTED APPLICATIONS
November 9, 1959 to February 5, 1963

This table sets forth an analysis of those accepted applications, which contain errors or omissions, filed with the current Board of Registrars.^{1/} The applications are listed chronologically according to the date of application.

The analysis of these 190 applications filed by white persons show that the applications were accepted regardless of the errors or omissions on them.

All accepted applications filed by Negroes, which total 42 since November 9, 1959 are analyzed on pages 20 and 21 of this table. This analysis shows that Negroes must file virtually perfect application forms to be accepted for registration, although less than ten of these accepted applications contain an error or omission for which other Negro applicants have been rejected. (See Table D)

^{1/} The accepted application forms were all filled out properly except for the errors or omissions listed herein. When a question on the application form is cited followed by a number in parenthesis the latter refers to the number of the question on the blank application forms found before Table A and following page 5 in the Brief. (All application forms are identical except the questions in the Questionnaire are arranged in twenty different sequences.)

Among abbreviations in the analysis "App. for Reg." refers to the three blank spaces in the Application for Registration at the top of page 1 of the form and "Supp" refers to the Supplemental Application for Registration, and Oath at the bottom of page 3 on the form. Some applicants list only one address in answer to Q.1, which calls for the address and place of birth of the applicant. When it cannot be determined from the form as a whole whether the address represents both the address and place of birth or which of the two it does represent, the form is analyzed - "Address or place of birth omitted."

ANALYSIS OF SELECTED REJECTED APPLICATIONS
FILED BY NEGROES - NOVEMBER, 1959 TO FEBRUARY, 1963

This table sets forth an analysis of 45 rejected applications filed by Negroes with the current Board of Registrars.^{1/} The applications are listed chronologically by the date of application.

These applications show that Negroes are rejected for highly technical and inconsequential errors and omissions on their application forms.^{2/} A supporting witness completed the Examination for the Supporting Witness section on all of the forms listed in this table. All applications listed herein show that the applicants meet the substantive qualifications for registration to vote - citizenship; age; sufficient residence in state, county and precinct; literacy; nonconvictions; that they embrace the duties and obligations of citizenship; and that they are of good character.

1/ All of the application forms listed herein are filled out properly except for the errors or omissions listed. When a question on the application form is cited, followed by a number in parenthesis the latter refers to the number of the question on the blank application forms found before Table A and following page 5 in the Brief. (All application forms are identical except the questions in the Questionnaire are arranged in twenty different sequences). Among the abbreviations in the analysis, "App. for Reg." refers to the three blank spaces in the Application for Registration at the top of page 1 of the form and "Supp" refers to the Supplemental Application for Registration, and Oath at the bottom of page 3 on the form. Some applicants list only one address in answer to Q. 1, which calls for the address and place of birth of the applicant. When it cannot be determined from the form as a whole whether the address represents both the address and place of birth or which of the two it does represent, the form's analyzed - "address or place of birth omitted." The terms "Unfinished," "Incomplete," "Disqualified" and "Rejected" were written by the registrar in reviewing the applications. All have the same meaning - rejection because the forms are not filled out properly. (See p. 10 of Brief.)

2/ All applications of Negroes rejected by the current board have been rejected on the grounds that this application forms were not filled out properly or because the forms failed to show the applicants to be qualified. (See p. 9 of Brief).

Attachment C lists the names, addresses and dates of registration of 45 Negroes who were listed as registered to vote until they failed to re-identify themselves in the recent voter re-identification. Attachments B and D contain the same information for the 317 currently registered persons whose race is not indicated in these books and for an additional 21 such persons who failed to re-identify. See Table H for race identification from other sources of voters included as unidentified in this exhibit.

RACE IDENTIFICATION OF NEGRO APPLICANTS
FROM NOVEMBER 9, 1959 TO FEBRUARY 5, 1963

This table lists alphabetically the Negroes who have applied with the current Board of Registrars, the Plaintiff Exhibit A number referring to copies of their application forms, and a source from which they can be identified as Negroes. All other applicants under the current Board have been white persons,^{1/} except for four rejected applicants whose race has not been identified. (See footnote 9 on page 11 of the Brief.)

The race of accepted applicants can be ascertained from the registration books, which set forth the race of each registrant (Pl. Ex. B), and from the list of registered persons maintained by the Probate Judge, which also sets forth the race of the registrants (Pl. Ex. 1).

The race of those applicants who have not been accepted for registration by the current Board is determined in most cases by the stipulations by the parties to race of certain applicants. (Pl. Ex.'s 4 & 7). Other means of race identification are also available. Many of the applications filed by Negroes have "c" or "Col" written on them. Also the race of an applicant's spouse may be listed in the registration books. Registrar Keahey stated she knows of no Negro who has acted as the supporting witness for a white applicant since November 1959, and the race of all Negroes who have been supporting witnesses is ascertained from the registration records in evidence.

^{1/} There are only two rejected applications filed by white persons, and both forms are not filled out except for parts of page 3. These forms were filed by Newton Coody (Pl. Ex. A-4032) and by Billie Stanley (Pl. Ex. A-4238)

1/ There is a conflict in the records concerning the race of Ethel L. Ezell. The 1962-63 Registration Book lists her as white, see P1. Ex. B-3; the records maintained by the Judge of Probate indicate she is a Negro, see P1. Ex. 1-A2. The supporting witness on her application of July 3, 1962 is A. S. Butler, a Negro, see P1. Ex. 1-A4. Mrs. Keahey testified that she has never seen a Negro vouch for a white person. Therefore Ethel L. Ezell is listed here as a Negro.

This Table contains the following:

1. Persons Listed in Registration Records in Choctaw County From 1933 through 1943 and From 1952 to November, 1959

Persons Listed in Registration Records in Choctaw County
From 1933 through 1943 and From 1952 to November, 1959

Registration records^{1/} compiled by boards of registrars show that from 1933 through 1943 less than 1% of all persons registered were Negroes; and that from 1952 to November, 1959 about 10% of all persons registered were Negroes.

^{1/} The books are self-identifying as Registration Books, however, it cannot be determined if all the persons registered during this period are listed in these books. The books do, however, reflect the registration process from 1933 through 1943 and of all of the persons listed in the books, 99% are white.

^{2/} The number of persons listed as registered voters by race for the years 1933 through 1943 was obtained from the Registration Books in Plaintiff's Exhibit B. (See Table E for description of Exhibit B.)

1959, to November 4	18
Total	137

^{3/} The total number of registered voters by race for the years 1952 to November, 1959 was obtained from the accepted application forms filed with the board of registrars during this period which are found in Plaintiff's Exhibit A. The accepted applications filed by Negroes from 1952 to November, 1959 are marked "Colored," "Col" or "C." That these designations on the applications were used to designate Negro applicants is substantiated by the current list of registered voters maintained by the Judge of Probate. All of those persons who registered from 1952 to 1959 whose applications contained the above designations and whose names appear on the current registered voters list, appear on that list as Negroes. None of the rejected applications filed prior to November, 1959 are available.

The Application Form was not Used as an Examination or a Test for White Persons Between 1952 and 1959

It is apparent from the accepted applications filed with the Boards of Registrars between January 1952 and November 1959 that the application form was not used as an examination for applicants. Applications were accepted and the applicants registered even though their forms contained numerous errors and omissions. For examples, see the following application forms in Plaintiff's Exhibit A:

044	045	087	096	219	220
277	312	348	350	351	360

It is also apparent from reviewing the application forms filed by accepted applicants between January, 1952 and December, 1954 that someone other than the applicant filled out either all or a substantial portion of more than one-half of the application forms filed during this period. For example, see the following application forms in Plaintiff's Exhibit A. These forms were all submitted by applicants who have a sixth grade education or less.
