3 individual employees for cause. However, if there are terminations for cause, the court expects the 4 Commonwealth to refill the position with another employee in a timely manner.

5 If the Commonwealth would like to re-structure the services provided to MRP participants, 6 it shall provide such a proposal to Dr. McGee and the United States with ample notice and time to 7 allow for their review and input.

8 The Court reiterates the need for the Commonwealth to address the outstanding vocational 9 needs of dozens of participants. This includes the need to hire additional Job Coaches and Job 10 Promoters. The Court has raised this issue on numerous occasions and expects prompt actions on 11 this matter.

12 The Commonwealth shall make payment in full to Dr. McGee for all approved outstanding 13 invoices by September 15, 2009. If payment is not made by this date, the Court anticipates issuing 14 a show cause order as to why the Commonwealth has failed to comply.

15 The Court urges the Commonwealth to maintain programmatic and leadership continuity 16 within the MRP in order to better ensure needed programs, services, and protections to the 17 participants.

18 The Court anticipates monthly status hearings and visits of homes and centers. The next one
