re: Sobol v. Perez

Dear Al:

Bick tells me that the last volume of the transcript was received from the reporter on Monday, March 11. That makes our due date for the post-trial brief April 1.

I have not yet received all of the volumes through the mail. I am still shooting for completion of a draft by next Wednesday, but now have my doubts. I shall phone you Tuesday with the word. Or if, by Monday, it clearly appears that I shall not have a draft in hand, I'll phone you then so as to enable you to clear up your plans for the week at the earliest possible time.

I am sending copies of this letter to Owen Fiss and Allen Black so that the Government will know (and, I hope, concur in) our understanding of the due date for briefs.

Be well.

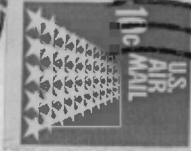

As ever,

Anthony G. Amsterdam
