Case No. 3:17-cv-00485-WHO

SECOND AMENDED COMPLAINT FOR DECLARATORY AND INJUNCTIVE RELIEF

INTRODUCTION

2 1. In blatant disregard of the law, the President of the United States seeks to coerce local 3 authorities to bend to his will and abandon “Sanctuary City” laws and policies. To that end, on 4 January 25, 2017, the President issued an Executive Order entitled “Enhancing Public Safety in the 5 Interior of the United States.” Exec. Order No. 13,768, 82 Fed. Reg. 8799 (Jan. 25, 2017) (“Executive 6 Order”). The Executive Order announces that it is the Executive Branch’s policy to withhold federal
7 funds from “sanctuary jurisdictions,” directs the Attorney General and Secretary of Homeland Security
8 to ensure that sanctuary jurisdictions do not receive federal grants, and directs the Attorney General to 9 take enforcement action against any local entity that “hinders the enforcement of Federal law.” The 10 Executive Order undermines established principles of federalism and separation of powers, violates 11 the United States Constitution, and impermissibly threatens cities with catastrophic financial 12 consequences.

13 2. The President and San Francisco agree that the City and County of San Francisco
14 (“San Francisco”) is a Sanctuary City, but disagree about what that means. San Francisco laws limit
15 when city employees and agencies may assist with the enforcement of federal immigration law. These 16 laws generally prohibit city employees from using city funds or resources to assist in the enforcement
17 of federal immigration law, unless required by federal or state law. They specifically prohibit local law
18 enforcement officers from cooperating with Immigration and Customs Enforcement (“ICE”) detainer
19 requests, which are voluntary, and limit when local law enforcement officers may give ICE advance 20 notice of a person’s release from local jail.

21 3. Like many other cities, San Francisco is a city of immigrants—many of whom are 22 undocumented—who come here to live, work, and raise families. San Francisco’s Sanctuary City laws
23 make San Francisco safer, healthier, and economically stronger. San Francisco is safer when all
24 people, including undocumented immigrants, feel safe reporting crimes. San Francisco is healthier
25 when all residents, including undocumented immigrants, access public health programs. And 26 San Francisco is economically and socially stronger when all children, including undocumented
27 immigrants, attend school. Using city and county resources for federal immigration enforcement 28 breeds distrust of local government and officials who have no power to change federal laws, and can

1 also wrench apart family and community structures that support residents and thus conserve resources.
2 For these reasons, among others, San Francisco has directed its employees and officers not to assist the 3 Federal government in enforcing federal immigration law, with limited exceptions.

4 4. San Francisco faces the imminent loss of more than $2 billion in federal funds and 5 impending enforcement action if it does not capitulate to the President's demand that it help enforce
6 federal immigration law. At least one jurisdiction has already succumbed to this presidential fiat.

7 5. The threat San Francisco faces now is particularly troubling given that San Francisco
8 already complies with all federal immigration laws. The Executive Order relies on Title 8, Section
9 1373 of the United States Code ("Section 1373"), which provides that local governments may not 10 prohibit or restrict any government entity or official from "sending to, or receiving from, [federal 11 immigration officials] information regarding the citizenship or immigration status . . . of any 12 individual."

13 6. San Francisco's laws comply with Section 1373. San Francisco previously prohibited 14 employees and officials from sharing information regarding immigration status but amended this 15 language to ensure compliance with Section 1373. Under current law, San Francisco does not prohibit 16 or restrict its employees from sharing information about the citizenship or immigration status of any 17 individual with federal immigration officials.

18 7. The Constitution establishes a balance of power between the state and Federal 19 governments, as well as among the coordinate branches of Federal government, to prevent the 20 excessive accumulation of power in any single entity and reduce the risk of tyranny and abuse from 21 any government office. In so doing, the Tenth Amendment provides that "[t]he powers not delegated
22 to the United States by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the States, are reserved to the States
23 respectively, or to the people." This state sovereignty extends to political subdivisions of the State, 24 including cities and counties such as San Francisco.

25 8. The Executive Order invades San Francisco's sovereignty and seeks to commandeer
26 state and local officials to enforce federal law. Under the Constitution and established principles of 27 federalism, state and local governments have the autonomy to devote resources to local priorities and 28 to control the exercise of their own police powers, rather than being forced to carry out the agenda of

1 the Federal government. The Executive Order purports otherwise to wrest this autonomy from state
2 and local governments.

3 9. In addition to violating the Tenth Amendment, the Executive Order violates the 4 Constitution's separation of powers and the Spending Power that Article I, Section 8 of the 5 Constitution grants exclusively to Congress. Congress, not the Executive Branch, has the authority to 6 determine how federal funds will be spent.

7 10. San Francisco recognizes that there will be additional developments related to the 8 Executive Order in the weeks and months to come. But the consequences threatened by the Executive 9 Order are too severe for San Francisco to wait. The Executive Order threatens funds that support vital
10 services, the loss of community trust, and the loss of San Francisco's sovereign authority to set and 11 follow its own laws on matters appropriately and historically within the control of local government.
12 San Francisco has no choice but to seek the intervention of this Court to ensure that its rights and 13 residents are protected, and that the Administration complies with Federal law and the Constitution.

14
15 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

16 11. The Court has jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. Sections 1331 and 1346. This Court has 17 further remedial authority under the Declaratory Judgment Act, 28 U.S.C. Sections 2201 and 2202 et 18 seq.

19 12. Venue properly lies within the Northern District of California because Plaintiff, 20 San Francisco, resides in this judicial district and a substantial part of the events or omissions giving 21 rise to this action occurred in this District. 28 U.S.C. § 1391(e).

22 PARTIES

23 13. Plaintiff San Francisco is a municipal corporation organized and existing under and by 24 virtue of the laws of the State of California, and is a charter city and county.

25 14. Defendant Donald J. Trump is the President of the United States. He is sued in his 26 official capacity.

27 15. Defendant United States of America is sued under 28 U.S.C. Section 1346.

1 immigrants, feels safe reporting crimes, cooperating with police investigations, and seeking medical 2 care.

3 22. San Francisco Administrative Code Chapter 12H—the full text of which is attached as 4 Exhibit 1—prohibits San Francisco departments, agencies, commissions, officers, and employees from 5 using San Francisco funds or resources to assist in the enforcement of Federal immigration law or to 6 gather or disseminate information regarding the release status, or other confidential identifying 7 information, of an individual unless such assistance is required by Federal or state law.

8 23. Chapter 12H previously prohibited disseminating information regarding the 9 immigration status of any individual, but the Board of Supervisors amended Chapter 12H in July 2016
10 to, inter alia, delete that prohibition in order to ensure compliance with Section 1373.

11 24. San Francisco Administrative Code Chapter 12I—the full text of which is attached as 12 Exhibit 2—prohibits San Francisco law enforcement officials from detaining an individual who is 13 otherwise eligible for release from custody on the basis of a civil immigration detainer request issued
14 by the Federal government.²

15 25. A detainer request is distinct from a criminal warrant, which San Francisco honors
16 consistent with its Sanctuary City laws. A detainer request is not issued by a judge based on a finding 17 of probable cause. It is simply a request by ICE that a state or local law enforcement agency hold 18 individuals after their release date to provide ICE agents extra time to decide whether to take those 19 individuals into federal custody and then deport them.

20 26. Complying with detainer requests requires municipalities to commit scarce law 21 enforcement personnel and resources to track and respond to requests, detain individuals in holding 22 cells, and supervise and feed individuals during the prolonged detention. And the Federal government
23 has made clear that the local agency bears the financial burden of the detention, providing that “[n]o

24
25 ² Section 287.7 of Title 8 of the Code of Federal Regulations allows ICE to issue detainer
26 requests to local jurisdictions. Section 287.7 provides that such a detainer “serves to advise another
27 law enforcement agency that the Department seeks custody of an alien presently in the custody of that 28 agency, for the purpose of arresting and removing the alien.” Subsection (d) provides that “[u]pon a determination by the Department to issue a detainer for an alien not otherwise detained by a criminal justice agency, such agency shall maintain custody of the alien for a period not to exceed 48 hours, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays in order to permit assumption of custody by the Department.”

1 detainer issued as a result of a determination made under this chapter . . . shall incur any fiscal 2 obligation on the part of the Department.” 8 C.F.R. § 287.7(e).

3 27. Further, complying with civil immigration detainer requests, in the absence of a
4 probable cause determination, violates the Fourth Amendment to the United States Constitution and 5 could subject San Francisco to civil liability. See Morales v. Chadbourne, 793 F.3d 208, 217 (1st Cir.
6 2015); Miranda-Olivares v. Clackamas Cnty., 2014 WL 1414305 (D. Or. Apr. 11, 2014); see also 7 Melendres v. Arpaio, 695 F.3d 990, 1000-01 (9th Cir. 2012) (applying the Fourth Amendment to 8 immigration arrests).

9 28. Chapter 12I also prohibits San Francisco law enforcement officials from responding to 10 a federal immigration officer’s request for advance notification of the date and time an individual in 11 San Francisco’s custody is being released, unless the individual in question meets certain criteria. See
12 S.F. Admin. Code § 12I.3(c), (d).

13 29. Finally, as relevant here, Chapter 12I provides that “[l]aw enforcement officials shall 14 not arrest or detain an individual, or provide any individual’s personal information to a federal 15 immigration officer, on the basis of an administrative warrant, prior deportation order, or other civil 16 immigration document based solely on alleged violations of the civil provisions of immigration laws.”
17 See Section 12I.3(e). “Personal information” is defined as “any confidential, identifying information 18 about an individual, including, but not limited to, home or work contact information, and family or 19 emergency contact information.” See Section 12I.2.

20 30. Chapter 12I makes clear that its purpose and effect are limited to matters “relating to 21 federal civil immigration detainees, notification of release of individuals, transmission of personal
22 information, or civil immigration documents, based solely on alleged violations of the civil provisions
23 of immigration laws.” Chapter 12I expressly states that “[i]n all other respects, local law enforcement
24 agencies may continue to collaborate with federal authorities to protect public safety.” See Section 25 12I.4.

26 31. San Francisco’s Sanctuary City laws arise from San Francisco’s commitment and 27 responsibility to ensure public safety and welfare. The Board of Supervisors, as San Francisco’s 28 legislative body, found that public safety is “founded on trust and cooperation of community residents

1 and local law enforcement.” Section 12I.1. Citing a study by the University of Illinois, which found
2 that at least 40% of Latinos surveyed were less likely to provide information to police because they
3 feared exposing themselves, family, or friends to a risk of deportation, the Legislature stated that “civil
4 immigration detainers and notifications regarding release undermine community trust of law
5 enforcement by instilling fear in immigrant communities of coming forward to report crimes and 6 cooperate with local law enforcement agencies.” Id.; see also id. (“The City has enacted numerous 7 laws and policies to strengthen communities and to build trust between communities and local law
8 enforcement. Local cooperation and assistance with civil immigration enforcement undermines
9 community policing strategies.”). Indeed, a recent study shows that crime is statistically significantly
10 lower in sanctuary counties compared to non-sanctuary counties. See Tom K. Wong, The Effects of 11 Sanctuary Policies on Crime and the Economy, CTR. FOR AM. PROGRESS (Jan. 26, 2017),
12 https://www.americanprogress.org/issues/immigration/reports/2017/01/26/297366/the-effects-
13 of-sanctuary-policies-on-crime-and-the-economy/.

14 32. The legislative findings set forth in Chapter 12I evidence the legitimate local purpose of 15 San Francisco’s Sanctuary City laws. For example, the Legislature declared:

16 Fostering a relationship of trust, respect, and open communication between City
17 employees and City residents is essential to the City’s core mission of ensuring 18 public health, safety, and welfare, and serving the needs of everyone in the 19 community, including immigrants. The purpose of this Chapter 12I, as well as 20 of Administrative Code Chapter 12H, is to foster respect and trust between law 21 enforcement and residents, to protect limited local resources, to encourage 22 cooperation between residents and City officials, including especially law 23 enforcement and public health officers and employees, and to ensure 24 community security, and due process for all. (See Section 12I.2.)

25 33. The Board of Supervisors also had a public health purpose for its decision to restrict 26 disclosure of confidential information: “To carry out public health programs, the City must be able to 27 reliably collect confidential information from all residents Information gathering and cooperation 28 may be jeopardized if release of personal information results in a person being taken into immigration custody.” Section 12I.1.

34. Finally, the Board of Supervisors determined that enforcing immigration detainer requests would require San Francisco to redirect scarce local law enforcement personnel and resources—noting that the costs of “responding to a civil immigration detainer can include, but [are]

1 not limited to, extended detention time, the administrative costs of tracking and responding to
2 detainers, and the legal liability for erroneously holding an individual who is not subject to a civil
3 immigration detainer.” Id. In short, the Board of Supervisors concluded that “[c]ompliance with civil 4 immigration detainers and involvement in civil immigration enforcement diverts limited local 5 resources from programs that are beneficial to the City.” Id.

6 35. California law incorporates local Sanctuary City laws such as Chapters 12H and 12I.
7 The TRUST Act states that local law enforcement officials may comply with ICE detainer requests
8 only if (1) the continued detention would not violate any federal, state, or local law, or any local 9 policy, and (2) the defendant’s criminal history meets specified conditions. Cal. Gov’t Code §§ 7282,
10 7282.5. Thus, because in San Francisco ICE detentions are prohibited under local law, they are also 11 prohibited under state law.

12 II. SECTION 1373

13 A. San Francisco Complies With Section 1373 By Not Prohibiting Its Employees 14 From Sharing “Citizenship Or Immigration Status” Information With The 15 Federal Government

16 36. Section 1373 provides that a “local government entity or official may not prohibit, or in 17 any way restrict, any government entity or official from sending to, or receiving from, [federal 18 immigration officials] information regarding the citizenship or immigration status . . . of any 19 individual.” 8 U.S.C. § 1373(a). This restriction exclusively regulates government entities.

20 37. Section 1373 requires San Francisco to allow its employees to use city resources, 21 including San Francisco tax dollars, to respond to requests for information about citizenship and 22 immigration status.

23 38. San Francisco complies with Section 1373.

24 39. Nothing in San Francisco Administrative Code Chapters 12H or 12I limits
25 communications regarding citizenship or immigration status in any way.

26 40. And, indeed, under ICE’s recently restored Secure Communities program (also known 27 as “S-Comm”), whenever an individual is taken into custody, the person is digitally fingerprinted and 28 those fingerprints are sent to the California Department of Justice and ultimately the FBI. The FBI

1 forwards the fingerprints to DHS, which allows ICE to determine the immigration status of everyone
2 in San Francisco custody.

3 41. Under Chapter 12I and the TRUST Act, San Francisco does not enforce detainer
4 requests (see ¶26, supra), and does not respond to notification requests from the Federal government
5 unless certain conditions are met (see ¶30, supra). But compliance with such requests is not required
6 by Section 1373, which speaks only to communications regarding citizenship and immigration status.

7 42. San Francisco has affirmatively instructed personnel regarding the substance of Section
8 1373 in a recent memorandum to all San Francisco employees from the San Francisco Human 9 Resources Director.

10 B. The United States Improperly Interprets Section 1373 To Require Compliance
11 With Detainer Requests

12 43. On May 31, 2016, in response to a request from the Office of the Attorney General, the 13 Office of the Inspector General (“OIG”) of the Department of Justice issued a memorandum (“OIG 14 Memo”) regarding potential violations of Section 1373 by recipients of funding from the 15 Edward Byrne Memorial Justice Assistance Grant Program (“JAG”). Memorandum from 16 Michael E. Horowitz, Inspector Gen., to Karol V. Mason, Assistant Att’y Gen. for the Office of Justice
17 Programs, Department of Justice Referral of Allegations of Potential Violations of 8 U.S.C. § 1373 by 18 Grant Recipients (May 31, 2016), <https://oig.justice.gov/reports/2016/1607.pdf>.³

19 44. In analyzing the local laws and policies of ten selected state and local jurisdictions, OIG
20 demonstrated how the Federal government interprets Section 1373.

21 45. Although Section 1373 does not expressly address immigration detainers, OIG
22 expressed concern that local laws concerning the handling of detainer requests “may have a broader 23 practical impact on the level of cooperation afforded to ICE by these jurisdictions and may, therefore,
24 be inconsistent with at least the intent of Section 1373.” OIG Memo at 7. It went on to state that local 25 laws and policies that “purport to be focused on civil immigration detainer requests [and say nothing

26
27 ³ The authorizing legislation for the JAG program requires that all grant applicants certify
28 compliance with the provisions of the authorizing legislation and all other “applicable federal laws.”
42 U.S.C. § 3750 et seq. The U.S. Department of Justice, Office of Justice Programs has recently announced that Section 1373 is an “applicable” law under the JAG authorizing legislation.

1 about sharing immigration status with ICE] . . . may nevertheless be affecting ICE’s interactions with 2 the local officials regarding ICE immigration status requests.” Id.

3 46. OIG also stated that such immigration detainer request policies “may be causing local 4 officials to believe and apply the policies in a manner that prohibits or restricts cooperation with ICE
5 in all respects [which], of course, would be inconsistent with and prohibited by Section 1373.” Id.
6 at 8.

7 47. In the OIG Memo, the Federal government also endorses the view that local 8 jurisdictions hinder the enforcement of Federal immigration law if they do not honor detainer requests
9 or if they place any other limitations on cooperation with ICE. See, e.g., id. at 4 (stating that even 10 though Section 1373 does not specifically address restrictions by state or local entities on cooperation
11 with ICE regarding detainees, “[a] primary and frequently cited indicator of limitations placed on 12 cooperation by state and local jurisdictions with ICE is how the particular state or local jurisdiction
13 handles immigration detainer requests issued by ICE”).

14 48. Yet, San Francisco cannot lawfully comply with ICE detainer requests. Complying with 15 civil immigration detainer requests, in the absence of a determination of probable cause, would violate
16 the Fourth Amendment to the United States Constitution and could subject San Francisco to civil 17 liability for this harm. See Arizona v. United States, 132 S. Ct. 2492, 2509 (2012) (noting that 18 “[d]etaining individuals solely to verify their immigration status would raise constitutional concerns”);
19 Morales v. Chadbourne, 793 F.3d 208, 217 (1st Cir. 2015); Miranda-Olivares v. Clackamas Cnty., 20 2014 WL 1414305 (D. Or. Apr. 11, 2014); see also Melendres v. Arpaio, 695 F.3d 990, 1000-01 (9th 21 Cir. 2012) (applying the Fourth Amendment to immigration arrests).

22 49. In the OIG Memo, OIG recommended that the U.S. Department of Justice, Office of 23 Justice Programs (“OJP”) provide JAG recipients clear guidance on their obligation to comply with 24 Section 1373 and require them to certify that they comply with that section. See OIG Memo at 9.

25 50. In response to these recommendations, in July and October 2016 OJP issued guidance 26 regarding compliance with Section 1373. See Office of Justice Programs, Guidance Regarding 27 Compliance with 8 U.S.C. § 1373, U.S. DEP’T JUST. (July 7, 2016) (“OJP July Guidance”); Office of

1 Justice Programs, Additional Guidance Regarding Compliance with 8 U.S.C. § 1373, U.S. DEP'T JUST.
2 (October 6, 2016) ("OJP October Guidance").

3 51. In the OJP July Guidance, OJP reads Section 1373 to impose an affirmative obligation
4 on state and local governments. The Guidance states that to comply with Section 1373, "[y]our 5 personnel must be informed that notwithstanding any state or local policies to the contrary, federal law
6 does not allow any government entity or official to prohibit the sending or receiving of information
7 about an individual's citizenship or immigration status with any federal, state or local government
8 entity and officials." OJP July Guidance at 1 (emphasis added). Accordingly, OJP reads into the law
9 an affirmative obligation to instruct personnel regarding the substance of Section 1373.

10 52. In the October 2016 Guidance, OIG stated that all JAG applicants must comply with—11 and certify their compliance with—Section 1373. OJP October Guidance at 1.

12 53. As a grantee of JAG grants, San Francisco is required to certify its compliance with 13 Section 1373.

14 III. THE EXECUTIVE ORDER

15 A. The Executive Order Cuts Off Federal Funding From Sanctuary Jurisdictions 16 And Directs Enforcement Action Against Them

17 54. On January 25, 2017, President Donald J. Trump issued the Executive Order attached
18 as Exhibit 3.

19 55. The Executive Order declares, "Sanctuary jurisdictions across the United States
20 willfully violate Federal law in an attempt to shield aliens from removal from the United States. These 21 jurisdictions have caused immeasurable harm to the American people and to the very fabric of our 22 Republic." Executive Order at 8799.

23 56. To address the purported harm caused by Sanctuary Cities, the Executive Order
24 establishes the policy that "jurisdictions that fail to comply with applicable Federal law do not receive 25 Federal funds, except as mandated by law." Id.

26 57. Specifically, Section 9(a) of the Executive Order states: "It is the policy of the 27 executive branch to ensure, to the fullest extent of the law, that a State, or a political subdivision of a 28 State, shall comply with 8 U.S.C. 1373." Id. at 8801.

1 58. Section 9(a) of the Executive Order establishes a funding restriction (the “Funding
2 Restriction”):

3 In furtherance of this policy, the Attorney General and the Secretary, in their discretion
4 and to the extent consistent with law, shall ensure that jurisdictions that willfully refuse
5 to comply with 8 U.S.C. 1373 (sanctuary jurisdictions) are not eligible to receive 6 Federal grants, except as deemed necessary for law enforcement purposes by the 7 Attorney General or the Secretary. The Secretary has the authority to designate, in his 8 discretion and to the extent consistent with law, a jurisdiction as a sanctuary 9 jurisdiction.

8 Id.

9 59. Section 9(a) of the Executive Order also mandates enforcement action (the 10 “Enforcement Directive”):

11 The Attorney General shall take appropriate enforcement action against any entity that 12 violates 8 U.S.C. 1373, or which has in effect a statute, policy, or practice that prevents 13 or hinders the enforcement of Federal law.

13 Id.

14 60. Section 9(a) of the Executive Order defines “sanctuary jurisdictions” as those 15 jurisdictions that “willfully refuse to comply with 8 U.S.C. 1373.” But Section 9(b) indicates that 16 Defendants in fact define that category quite broadly as including any jurisdiction that declines to 17 comply with ICE detainer requests:

18 To better inform the public regarding the public safety threats associated with 19 sanctuary jurisdictions, the Secretary shall utilize the Declined Detainer
20 Outcome Report or its equivalent and, on a weekly basis, make public a 21 comprehensive list of criminal actions committed by aliens and any jurisdiction 22 that ignored or otherwise failed to honor any detainers with respect to such 23 aliens.

22 61. The Executive Order thus attempts to mandate compliance with detainer requests as 23 part of Section 1373 compliance, with the consequence that a jurisdiction such as San Francisco that 24 does not comply with ICE detainer requests will lose federal funds under the Executive Order.

25 62. A jurisdiction that fails to comply with detainer requests also faces enforcement action
26 under Section 9(a)’s Enforcement Provision. As discussed further below, Defendants view the local 27 decision not to comply with ICE detainer requests as a “statute, policy, or practice that prevents or 28 hinders the enforcement of Federal law.”

1 B. Defendants Have Labeled San Francisco A Sanctuary Jurisdiction Within The
2 Meaning Of The Executive Order

3 63. As discussed above, San Francisco does comply with Section 1373, properly construed.
4 Nonetheless, Defendants deem San Francisco a sanctuary jurisdiction pursuant to their overly broad 5 definition of that term.

6 64. If there were any question about whether Defendants deem San Francisco as a
7 “sanctuary jurisdiction,” that question is answered by Defendants’ own statements, which clearly
8 characterize San Francisco as a Sanctuary City.

9 65. For example, in a written campaign speech, then-candidate Donald J. Trump gave in 10 Phoenix, Arizona on August 31, 2016, he expressly referred to San Francisco as a Sanctuary City. See 11 Donald J. Trump: Address on Immigration, Donald J. Trump for President (Aug. 31, 2016),
12 <https://www.donaldjtrump.com/press-releases/donald-j.-trump-address-on-immigration> (“Another
13 victim is Kate Steinle, gunned down in the Sanctuary City of San Francisco by an illegal immigrant 14 deported five previous times.”).

15 66. Further, Defendants have repeatedly identified Sanctuary Cities, and specifically
16 San Francisco, as those that decline detainer requests and otherwise do not affirmatively support 17 federal immigration enforcement.

- 18 • In statements to the Daily Caller on July 7, 2015, Congressman Darrell Issa and 19 now-Attorney General Sessions criticized San Francisco and other sanctuary
20 jurisdictions for failing to honor detainers. Sessions stated, “This disregarding of 21 detainers and releasing persons that ICE has put a hold on—it goes against all
22 traditions of law enforcement. Laws and courtesies within departments— if you 23 have somebody charged with a crime in one city, you hold them until you complete
24 your business with them So what was happening was, ICE authorities were 25 filing detainers and sanctuary cities were saying, ‘We’re not gonna honor them.
26 They finished paying for the crime they committed in our city— we’ve released
27 them.’” Kerry Picket, Sen. Sessions: City Officials Harboring Illegal Immigrant

2 Sanctuary Cities.

1 <https://www.whitehouse.gov/law-enforcement-community> (last visited on Feb. 27, 2017) (emphasis 2 added).

3 70. Defendants’ statements demonstrate their belief that Sanctuary Cities, like
4 San Francisco, violate Section 1373 and their intent that Sanctuary Cities will lose federal funding—
5 apparently all or almost all federal funding—and be subject to enforcement action under the Executive 6 Order.

7 71. There is a “credible threat” that Defendants will seek to enforce the unconstitutional
8 Executive Order against San Francisco.

9 IV. SECTION 1373 AND THE EXECUTIVE ORDER HARM SAN FRANCISCO

10 A. Constitutional Injury

11 1. The Executive Order Violates The Tenth Amendment, Separation Of 12 Powers, And The Spending Clause

13 a. The Executive Order Funding Restriction Is Unconstitutional

14 i. Separation of Powers

15 72. As a threshold matter, the Funding Restriction purports to exercise Spending Power that 16 Article I, Section 8 of the Constitution grants exclusively to Congress.

17 73. The Executive Order violates the separation of powers by creating a penalty for Section
18 1373 that Congress did not authorize, without regard to statutory rules on grant programs put in place
19 by Congress. The Executive Order effectively legislates a sanction for violations of Section 1373 by 20 using the statute as a basis to broadly deny federal grants to municipalities that have made a policy 21 decision to focus law enforcement resources on local problems and limit their entanglement with 22 federal immigration enforcement. The President’s unilateral imposition of this new sanction and 23 condition on spending is not supported by any act of Congress, including the Immigration and 24 Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1101 et seq., or by the Constitution.

25 74. The Funding Restriction additionally violates the separation of powers by imposing a 26 new restriction on jurisdictions’ eligibility to receive federal funds: “jurisdictions that willfully refuse
27 to comply with 8 U.S.C. 1373 (sanctuary jurisdictions) are not eligible to receive Federal grants, 28 //

1 except as deemed necessary for law enforcement purposes by the Attorney General or the Secretary.”
2 Executive Order at 8801.

3 75. The President may not unilaterally impose new restrictions on jurisdictions’ eligibility
4 for federal funding. Any restriction on eligibility for federal funds must be imposed—clearly,
5 unambiguously, and in advance—by Congress. Pennhurst State Sch. & Hosp. v. Halderman, 451 U.S.
6 1, 17 (1981). When Congress has not imposed such a restriction by statute, the President may not do
7 so by fiat. The President does not have “unilateral power to change the text of duly enacted statutes.”
8 Clinton v. City of New York, 524 U.S. 417, 447 (1998).

9 76. Congress has spoken to reject the imposition of such funding restrictions, including
10 when it declined to enact Senate Bill 1842, “Protecting American Lives Act,” introduced in July 2015
11 by then-Senator Attorney General Jeff Sessions. The bill would in part have expanded Section 1373 to 12 deprive jurisdictions having “in effect a statute, policy, or practice that prohibits law enforcement
13 officers of the State, or of a political subdivision of the State, from assisting or cooperating with 14 Federal immigration law enforcement in the course of carrying out the officers’ routine law
15 enforcement duties” of “any . . . law enforcement or Department of Homeland Security grant.” S.
16 1842, 114th Cong. § 3 (2015). Senate Bill 1842 did not make it out of committee, nor did the identical
17 House of Representatives Bill 3437. Where the President “takes measures incompatible with 18 the expressed or implied will of Congress, his power is at its lowest ebb.” Youngstown Sheet & Tube
19 Co. v. Sawyer, 343 U.S. 579, 637 (1952) (Jackson, J., concurring).

20 77. By imposing conditions or limitations on federal spending without express statutory 21 authority, the Executive Order also unlawfully exceeds the President’s powers under other provisions
22 of the Constitution that establish the separation of powers among the branches of our government,
23 including: (i) the President’s obligation to “take Care that the Laws be faithfully executed,” U.S.
24 Const. art. II, § 3, cl. 5 (Take Care Clause), and (ii) the limitation that Congressional enactments must 25 “be presented to the President of the United States,” who then may sign that enactment or veto it, but 26 has no power to merely revise it, either upon presentment or after enactment, U.S. Const. art. I, § 7, 27 cls. 2-3 (Presentment Clause).

1 ii. Spending Clause and Tenth Amendment

2 78. Further, the Funding Restriction purports to exercise Spending Power in ways that even 3 Congress could not.

4 79. The Funding Restriction violates the Spending Clause by imposing new funding
5 conditions on existing appropriations of federal funds. “[I]f Congress intends to impose a condition on 6 the grant of federal moneys, it must do so unambiguously,” in advance. Pennhurst, 451 U.S. at 17.
7 “The legitimacy of Congress’ power to legislate under the spending power . . . rests on whether the 8 State voluntarily and knowingly accepts” Congress’s conditions. Id. “There can, of course, be no
9 knowing acceptance if a State is unaware of the conditions or is unable to ascertain what is expected of 10 it.” Id.

11 80. The Funding Restriction also violates the Spending Clause by imposing funding 12 conditions that are not germane to the purpose of the funds. “[T]he imposition of conditions under the 13 spending power” must be “germane” or “related” to the purpose of federal funding. South Dakota v.
14 Dole, 483 U.S. 203, 208-09 & n.3 (1987); see also Massachusetts v. United States, 435 U.S. 444, 461
15 (1978). Here, the Funding Restriction conditions eligibility for federal funding on compliance with 16 Section 1373, without regard for whether Section 1373 is germane to any federal funds at issue. In 17 fact, the Funding Restriction specifically exempts those federal funds—funds “deemed necessary for 18 law enforcement purposes”—that might arguably be germane to Section 1373.

19 81. The Funding Restriction also imposes conditions so severe that they “cross[] the line 20 distinguishing encouragement from coercion.” Nat’l Fed’n of Indep. Bus. v. Sebelius, 132 S. Ct. 2566, 21 2603 (2012) (opinion of Roberts, C.J.); New York v. United States, 505 U.S. 144, 175 (1992). The 22 Funding Restriction “is much more than ‘relatively mild encouragement’—it is a gun to the head.”
23 Sebelius, 132 S. Ct. at 2604 (opinion of Roberts, C.J.). The Funding Restriction threatens a substantial
24 percentage of San Francisco’s overall budget—approximately 13% of its total annual operating 25 budget, even without considering federal multi-year grants. Threatened funds include the entire 26 funding stream for programs, such as Medicaid, that are critical to the lives of San Francisco’s
27 residents. Threats of this magnitude, and to such critical programs, constitute “economic dragooning 28 that leaves the States with no real option but to acquiesce” to federal dictates. Id. at 2605.

1 82. Finally, because Defendants interpret Section 1373 to require jurisdictions to comply
2 with immigration detainers, the Funding Restriction imposes a new funding condition that requires
3 jurisdictions to act unconstitutionally. Under the Fourth Amendment, detention of an individual must
4 be supported by a determination of probable cause. See Morales v. Chadbourne, 793 F.3d 208, 215–17
5 (1st Cir. 2015); Miranda-Olivares v. Clackamas Cnty., 2014 WL 1414305 (D. Or. Apr. 11, 2014).
6 Requiring state and local governments (including San Francisco) to establish blanket policies of 7 compliance with immigration detainers could thus cause them to violate the Fourth Amendment. But 8 Congress’s Spending Power “may not be used to induce the States to engage in activities that would 9 themselves be unconstitutional.” Dole, 483 U.S. at 210.

10 83. This concern is heightened by the fact that state and local governments, including 11 San Francisco, generally lack authority to make warrantless arrests under the Federal government’s 12 civil immigration laws. See Arizona v. United States, 132 S. Ct. 2492, 2506 (2012). It is further 13 heightened by the prospect that “ICE’s issuance of detainers that seek to detain individuals without a 14 warrant goes beyond its statutory authority to make warrantless arrests.” Moreno v. Napolitano, No.
15 11-C-5452, 2016 WL 5720465, at *8 (N.D. Ill. Sept. 30, 2016).

16 84. For all these reasons, the Funding Restriction violates the Constitution’s separation of 17 powers (and, in particular, the Constitution’s grant of legislative power to Congress in Article I, 18 Section 1); the Spending Clause of Article I, Section 8; and the Tenth Amendment.

19 b. The Executive Order Enforcement Directive Is Unconstitutional

20 85. The Executive Order’s Enforcement Directive violates the Tenth Amendment. The 21 Enforcement Directive commandeers state and local governments by, inter alia, compelling them to 22 enforce federal law under threat of legal action.

23 86. The Enforcement Directive mandates that “[t]he Attorney General shall take 24 appropriate enforcement action against any entity that violates 8 U.S.C. 1373.” Executive Order at 25 8801. As discussed above, Defendants interpret Section 1373 to require jurisdictions to comply with 26 immigration detainers.

27 87. The Enforcement Directive also mandates “enforcement action against any entity
28 that . . . has in effect a statute, policy, or practice that prevents or hinders the enforcement of Federal

1 law.” Executive Order at 8801. As discussed above, Defendants interpret a state or local government’s
2 decision not to comply with ICE detainer requests as a “statute, policy, or practice that prevents or
3 hinders the enforcement of Federal law.”

4 88. The Enforcement Directive thus mandates that the Attorney General take enforcement
5 action against state and local governments that do not detain individuals at the behest of the Federal 6 government.

7 89. Compelling state and local governments to detain individuals at the behest of the 8 Federal government violates the Tenth Amendment. “[T]he Federal Government may not compel the 9 States to implement, by legislation or executive action, federal regulatory programs.” Printz v. United 10 States, 521 U.S. 898, 925 (1997). To “command state or local officials to assist in the implementation 11 of federal law” is to engage in impermissible commandeering. Id. at 927.

12 B. Community Injury

13 90. The Executive Order fosters an atmosphere of fear and distrust between undocumented 14 immigrants and local government officials in San Francisco. Its sweeping terms, combined with recent 15 ICE activity in San Francisco, and compounded by the Trump administration’s statements about 16 immigration enforcement, have generated a maelstrom of fear and confusion that San Francisco 17 agencies have had to move quickly to contain.

18 91. The Executive Order is designed to—and does—create public confusion about whether 19 San Francisco is and will remain a Sanctuary City, and what that means.

20 92. San Francisco has been forced to spend resources to counteract the effect of the 21 Executive Order. Since the Executive Order issued, San Francisco officials and employees have 22 responded to questions from San Francisco departments, non-profit partners, and members of the 23 public about topics such as whether the Executive Order modifies ICE’s authority to enter public
24 facilities, jails, and residences; whether individuals’ personal identifying information on applications
25 for benefit programs remains protected; and whether the Executive Order changes the way
26 San Francisco law enforcement officers interact with ICE. San Francisco departments have held 27 numerous meetings discussing the impact of the Executive Order and have developed new educational 28 materials about San Francisco Chapters 12H and 12I.

1 93. Given the Executive Order's broad language, even San Francisco's extensive and 2 ongoing efforts to offer clear answers leave the public far from reassured.

3 94. By heightening undocumented immigrants' concerns that any interaction with 4 San Francisco officials will lead to their information being turned over to ICE, the Executive Order
5 discourages undocumented immigrants from reporting crimes, seeking public health services, and 6 otherwise engaging with San Francisco programs and services. This threat harms public safety, public
7 health, and San Francisco's ability to act in what San Francisco has determined to be the best interest
8 of its residents, consistent with federal and state law.

9 95. The Executive Order undermines San Francisco's ability to provide critical services not 10 just to undocumented immigrants, but to all residents. When witnesses and crime victims will not talk
11 to the police, law enforcement suffers and the entire community is less safe. When children are not 12 vaccinated or the sick are not treated for communicable diseases, illness spreads throughout the 13 community.

14 96. As a result, the Executive Order causes the very harms San Francisco's Sanctuary City
15 laws were designed to prevent. The Executive Order destroys rather than "foster[s] respect and trust 16 between law enforcement and residents," wastes rather than "protect[s] limited local resources," and 17 discourages rather than "encourage[s] cooperation between residents and City officials, including 18 especially law enforcement and public health officers and employees." S.F. Admin. Code § 12I.1.

19 C. Budgetary Injury

20 1. San Francisco Relies On Federal Funding For Essential Public Services.

21 97. San Francisco is home to about 865,000 residents and has a total daytime population of 22 about 1,250,000. People who live in, work in or visit San Francisco rely on—in addition to other
23 public services—law enforcement provided by the San Francisco Police Department; public
24 infrastructure projects such as roads, bridges and public transit; and the availability of high quality
25 emergency care from San Francisco General Hospital. Residents also rely on public health programs
26 such as Medi-Cal and public assistance programs like CalWORKS. While San Francisco has 27 benefitted from a recent economic boom, over 12% of San Franciscans live in poverty, and depend on 28 public assistance to make ends meet and put food on the table.

1 98. San Francisco contributes disproportionately to national economic growth and job
2 creation. Between 2010 and 2015, San Francisco ranked second among all U.S. counties in percentage
3 change in employment, generating over 125,000 new jobs, a growth rate of 28%. A significant portion
4 of this growth has been in the technology sector, a source of high wage jobs with important multiplier
5 effects and potential for future growth.

6 99. The State of California, including San Francisco, pays more to the Federal government
7 in taxes than it receives in federal spending. In 2014, California residents and businesses paid a total of 8 $369.2 billion in federal business and personal income, estate, gift, and excise taxes to the Internal 9 Revenue Services and were the beneficiaries of $355.8 billion in federal expenditures. California 10 ranked 38th among states in the ratio of federal spending to collections.

11 100. In turn, San Francisco relies on federal funding to provide essential services and build 12 and maintain public infrastructure projects.

13 101. San Francisco budgets by a fiscal year that runs from July 1 to June 30. The current 14 fiscal year began July 1, 2016, and will end June 30, 2017 (“FY16-17”). The next fiscal year will run 15 from July 1, 2017 to June 30, 2018 (“FY17-18”).

16 102. San Francisco’s annual operating budget for FY16-17 includes over $1.2 billion in 17 federal funds. This is approximately 13% of the total annual operating budget.

18 103. On top of the federal funds allocated in the annual operating budget, San Francisco
19 expects to receive an additional $800 million in federal multi-year grants, largely for public 20 infrastructure projects.

21 104. The programs, projects, and services described below are just a few examples of how 22 San Francisco uses federal funds.

23 a. Human Services Agency

24 105. San Francisco’s Human Services Agency (“HSA”) provides critical services to 25 San Francisco’s most vulnerable residents. It works with over 200,000 residents each year to provide 26 needed nutrition assistance, income support, and child welfare services, among other support services.
27 Approximately one in four San Franciscans is a client of HSA. HSA also manages numerous programs

1 that serve young children and their families, older adults, and individuals with disabilities. HSA relies
2 on federal funding to provide these services.

3 106. For example, the In-Home Supportive Services (“IHSS”) program assists about 23,000
4 low-income elderly, disabled, or blind San Franciscans to live safely in their own homes and 5 communities. For some recipients, the IHSS program reduces acute health care and institutional long-
6 term care costs that would otherwise be incurred by the state and Federal governments through Medi-
7 Cal. About 19,000 individuals work as independent providers for IHSS recipients. For FY16-17, the 8 County’s IHSS program is budgeted to receive approximately $64 million in federal funds, accounting
9 for nearly 40% of the program’s budget. Virtually all of these funds are provided as reimbursements.
10 This amount does not include the approximately $200 million of federal funds that the State of 11 California pays directly to independent IHSS providers.

12 107. HSA also provides financial assistance and services to San Francisco’s neediest
13 residents, including children and families living in poverty. For example, through California Work
14 Opportunity and Responsibility to Kids (CalWORKS), HSA provides financial assistance, family
15 stabilization, case management, vocational counseling, job readiness assistance, behavioral health
16 treatment, transportation, and other services designed to help parents of low-income families meet 17 welfare-to-work requirements, secure and retain employment, and become self-sufficient.
18 San Francisco’s CalWORKS program is budgeted to receive approximately $58 million in federal 19 funding in FY16-17, accounting for over 50% of the County’s CalWORKS and Welfare-to-Work
20 FY16-17 budget. Virtually all of these funds are provided as reimbursements.

21 108. HSA offers numerous other social services, including child welfare programs and 22 services, early childhood care and education services, adult protective services and a County Veteran’s
23 Service Office that helps veterans and their families receive benefits to which they are entitled.

24 109. In FY16-17, HSA expects to receive a total of approximately $286 million in federal 25 funding. This represents approximately 33% of its FY16-17 budget.

26 110. HSA directly employs nearly 2,000 employees. It also funds hundreds of additional 27 jobs through contracts to service providers. Loss of federal funds would threaten many of these jobs, 28 as well as the underlying services, that depend on HSA funds.

1 b. Department of Public Health

2 111. The Zuckerberg San Francisco General Hospital (“ZSFGH”) is a licensed general acute
3 care hospital owned and operated by San Francisco. ZSFGH has 284 beds and provides a full 4 complement of inpatient, outpatient, emergency, skilled nursing, diagnostic, mental health, and 5 rehabilitation services for adults and children. ZSFGH is the largest safety net provider in 6 San Francisco and is the designated trauma center for the 1.5 million residents of San Francisco and 7 northern San Mateo County. In FY16-17, ZSFGH expects to receive approximately $450 million in 8 federal funding for Medi-Cal and Medicare patient services. This accounts for over half of the ZSFGH
9 FY16-17 budget of nearly $840 million. Virtually all of these funds are provided as reimbursements.

10 112. Laguna Honda Hospital provides a full range of skilled nursing services to adult 11 residents of San Francisco who are disabled or chronically ill, including specialized care for those with 12 wounds, head trauma, stroke, spinal cord and orthopedic injuries, HIV/AIDS, and dementia. In FY16-
13 17, Laguna Honda Hospital expects to receive approximately $160 million in federal funding for 14 Medi-Cal and Medicare patient services, accounting for nearly 60% of its budget. Virtually all of these 15 funds are provided as reimbursements.

16 113. The San Francisco Department of Public Health (“DPH”) also provides direct services
17 through its primary care clinics, HIV/AIDS health services, mental health and substance abuse
18 treatment, housing and homelessness assistance, maternal and child healthcare, and jail health 19 services.

20 114. Additionally, the DPH Population Health Division addresses public health concerns, 21 including consumer safety, health promotion, and disease prevention. DPH also monitors threats to 22 public health.

23 115. Overall, in FY16-17, DPH expects to receive approximately $800 million in federal 24 funding. This represents almost 40% of the Department’s FY16-17 budget.

25 116. DPH has approximately 6,800 full-time equivalent employees, and it funds hundreds of 26 additional jobs through contracts to service providers. Loss of federal funds would threaten many of 27 the thousands of jobs that depend on DPH funds.

28 //

1 D. Federal Funding Streams

2 122. San Francisco receives federal funds in the form of grants, as well as though payments
3 for entitlement programs. These entitlement programs include Medicaid and Medicare, Temporary 4 Assistance for Needy Families, Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program, Foster Care, and various 5 child welfare programs. Undocumented immigrants are not eligible to receive benefits from most 6 entitlement programs. Approximately 80% of the federal funds budgeted for FY16-17 are for 7 entitlement programs.

8 123. San Francisco receives federal funds directly from the Federal government, as well as 9 indirectly through the State of California and other pass-through entities. For FY16-17,
10 San Francisco's budget includes over $1.1 billion in pass-through funds, the vast majority of which is 11 passed through the State of California. President Trump has identified California as a possible
12 sanctuary jurisdiction. Because California does not prohibit voluntary communications about 13 immigration status, it should be deemed to comply with Section 1373. If Defendants nonetheless cut 14 off funds to California, this could result in the loss of pass-through funds to San Francisco.

15 124. San Francisco receives most federal funds—for both grants and entitlement programs—
16 as reimbursements. San Francisco is currently providing services and benefits that the Federal 17 government has agreed to reimburse. San Francisco is also building major transit expansions and other 18 public infrastructure projects, as well as running programs across a variety of San Francisco agencies,
19 based on the Federal governments' commitment to pay for these projects and programs. The Executive 20 Order calls into question whether the Federal government will in fact reimburse San Francisco for 21 these funds.

22 125. Congress has established numerous conditions governing eligibility for federal funds.
23 For instance, to receive Medicaid funds, a state must create a state plan that includes assurances to the 24 Federal government that the state will provide specified types of care and that the state regulates health
25 insurance providers to ensure access to medical assistance, among many other requirements. 42 U.S.C.
26 § 1396(a).

27 126. In another example, the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development
28 Community Development Block Grants fund many projects to combat unlawful evictions, maintain

1 stable housing occupancy and supply, and incentivize affordable unit construction. These grants
2 require the grantee to prepare a statement of community development objectives and projected use of 3 funds, provide a citizen participation plan, and certify other enumerated criteria. 42 U.S.C. § 5304.

4 127. No federal funds received by San Francisco have statutory conditions specifically
5 requiring compliance with Section 1373.

6 E. Coercive Effect Of The Executive Order

7 128. The Executive Order threatens not to pay San Francisco over $2 billion in federal funds
8 that is money already spent by San Francisco—money San Francisco is spending today and money
9 San Francisco has reasonably relied on receiving. As set forth in this Complaint, the Executive Order
10 is unconstitutional in numerous respects. Nonetheless, San Francisco currently faces the prospect of 11 sweeping cuts in necessary federal funding.

12 129. It would be catastrophic for San Francisco to lose all federal funds. It would not be 13 possible for San Francisco to backfill the loss of $1.2 billion with local revenue sources.

14 130. San Francisco's reserves are insufficient to cover the loss of all federal funds.
15 San Francisco currently has contingency reserves of approximately $350 million, in a Rainy Day Fund
16 and a Stabilization Fund, which were created and funded over the last decade for the purpose of 17 managing local tax revenue volatility created by economic conditions. These reserve levels, totaling 18 less than 8% of general fund revenues, remain below levels recommended by the Government Finance
19 Officers Association for local governments and the 10% target established by San Francisco law.
20 There are restrictions on the use of these reserves, and even if entirely depleted, their levels would be 21 inadequate to cover a shortfall in federal funds for even a single year. To fully absorb the loss of all
22 federal funds, San Francisco would also have to suspend capital projects—causing significant job
23 loss—and make drastic service cuts in order to maintain a balanced budget, as it is legally required to 24 do.

25 131. Even a loss of 10% of annual federal funds would be calamitous for San Francisco. A
26 cut of $120 million would lead to severe public health and public safety impacts. San Francisco
27 currently has approximately 1,971 police officers, a level mandated by the Charter, but a $120 million
28 cut would likely require San Francisco to reduce that number significantly, with similar reductions in

1 the number of firefighters. Capital programs would be postponed, resulting in lost jobs, and social
2 service programs would be reduced or eliminated. General Fund Departments have identified specific 3 programs and services that they will need to cut if they must reduce their General Fund Support for 4 FY17-18 to help the Mayor's Office balance the budget. These include, for example, services for 5 women that are domestic violence survivors, programming for low-income children and families, and 6 housing programs to support low-income residents.

7 132. The Executive Order's threat to cut federal funds is manifestly coercive. This is why at 8 least one jurisdiction has already changed its policy about immigration detainers in response to the 9 Executive Order. The day after the Executive Order was issued, Miami-Dade County Mayor Carlos
10 Giménez instructed the county's interim corrections director to "fully cooperate" with the Federal 11 government and comply with all immigration detainer requests, eliminating a previous requirement
12 that the Federal government reimburse detainer costs. "It's really not worth the risk of losing millions
13 of dollars to the residents of Miami-Dade County in discretionary money from the feds," said Mayor
14 Giménez. Ray Sanchez, Florida's Largest County to Comply with Trump's Sanctuary Crackdown,
15 CNN Politics (Jan. 27, 2017, 6:34 PM ET), http://www.cnn.com/2017/01/27/politics/miami-dade-
16 mayor-sanctuary-crackdown/. There is little doubt that is exactly what the President intends this 17 coercive effect with his promise to defund Sanctuary Cities.

18 F. Budget Impact of the Executive Order

19 133. For FY16-17, San Francisco's annual operating budget is approximately $9.6 billion.
20 Of this, approximately $1.2 billion is money provided by the Federal government for entitlement
21 programs, grants, and contracts, and other items. For the vast majority of the federal funds received by 22 San Francisco, there is no nexus between the purpose of the funds and immigration enforcement. Only
23 a small percentage of all federal funds received by San Francisco relate to either immigration or law 24 enforcement.

25 134. The concern about losing federal funds is so acute that the Board of Supervisors has 26 established the Budget and Finance Federal Select Committee, a new committee that will consider 27 issues related to the possible loss of federal funds as a result of the Executive Order and other federal 28 action.

1 135. San Francisco has already begun the seven-month process of adopting the annual
2 budget for the fiscal year beginning on July 1, 2017. On December 13, 2016, the Mayor and the 3 Controller (San Francisco's chief financial officer) issued budget instructions to all San Francisco
4 departments with detailed guidance on the preparation of departments' budget requests. Most 5 San Francisco departments held public hearings on their budget proposals in January and February and 6 submitted their budget requests for the coming fiscal year to the Controller by February 21.
7 San Francisco law requires the Controller to submit a consolidated budget proposal to the Mayor by 8 March 1, the Mayor to submit a balanced budget to the Board of Supervisors by June 1, and the Board
9 of Supervisors to approve a balanced budget by August 1.

10 136. To meet the June 1 deadline, the Mayor must make fundamental budget decisions by 11 May 15, and input these decisions into San Francisco's budget software by May 24. During the last 12 week of May, the Controller's Office reconciles and confirms all financial calculations in the Mayor's
13 proposed budget, while the Mayor's Budget Office finalizes the narrative publication that accompanies 14 the proposed budget.

15 137. The budget for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 2017 will be approximately $10 billion, 16 approximately $5 billion of which is in San Francisco's General Fund. The remainder of the budget is 17 comprised of self-supporting activities at San Francisco's enterprise departments, which focus on city-
18 related business operations and include the Port, the Municipal Transportation Agency, the Airport,
19 the Public Utilities Commission, and others. The use of funds in these operations is legally restricted
20 and cannot be redirected to backfill a shortfall in the General Fund. Money in San Francisco's General
21 Fund is used to support public services such as public health, human services, police and fire services, 22 and public works. Approximately $2 billion of General Fund money is legally dedicated for specific 23 purposes, leaving approximately $3 billion in discretionary funds.

24 138. One of the fundamental budget decisions the Mayor must make by May 15, 2017, is 25 whether to create a budget reserve to account for the possible loss of federal and state funds in the 26 coming fiscal year. This presents a Hobson's choice. San Francisco, facing possible reductions, could 27 place funds into reserve at the beginning of the fiscal year, harming the public by reducing the amount
28 of money in San Francisco's General Fund. Or San Francisco could budget based on the continued

1 receipt of federal and state funds, knowing that cuts could come suddenly, outside of the budget
2 process.

3 139. If unanticipated cuts come mid-year, the General Fund will take an even bigger hit at 4 that time, as there will be less time to absorb the loss of funds. Depending on the nature of the cuts, 5 they could lead to immediate service cuts, layoffs, or cancellation of contracts and associated 6 penalties.

7 140. If current levels of uncertainty remain by May 15, 2017, the Mayor will be forced to 8 propose a federal and state budget reserve. The final amount of the reserve will depend on the Mayor's 9 assessment of the amount of funding at risk and the likelihood that federal or state funds will be cut.
10 Money used to fund the reserve is money that will not be available for General Fund programs and 11 services.

12 141. A May 15, 2017, decision to set the reserve at a specified amount will have a real world
13 impact when the new fiscal year begins on July 1, 2017. Beginning on this date, funds allocated for the 14 reserve will sit in the reserve instead of being available for General Fund services and programs. Once
15 funds are placed in a federal and state budget reserve, they will remain there for the entire fiscal year 16 unless they are released in response to reliably detailed information about the timing and size of 17 federal or state funding cuts.

18 142. The Mayor must make a trade-off between putting money into a reserve and using it for 19 other San Francisco priorities, some of which are currently unfunded. For instance, the Department of 20 Homelessness and Supportive Housing needs an additional $19.5 million in the next two fiscal years
21 to make an impact in reducing homelessness in San Francisco. This money would fund a family
22 shelter expansion, youth housing subsidies, a resource center, and shelter maintenance and security. A 23 reserve would set money aside instead of using it for purposes like this.

24 143. Since the Executive Order issued, San Francisco has received inquiries from credit
25 rating agencies about the impact of the Executive Order on San Francisco's finances. If credit rating
26 agencies downgrade their assessment of San Francisco, it will increase San Francisco's borrowing
27 costs. The Executive Order imposes a "substantial contingent liability" to the extent that it

1 “immediately and directly affects the borrowing power, financial strength, and fiscal planning” of 2 San Francisco. See Clinton v. City of N.Y., 524 U.S. 417, 430-31 (1998).

CHAPTER 12I:
CIVIL IMMIGRATION DETAINERS

- Sec. 12I.1. Findings.
- Sec. 12I.2. Definitions.
- Sec. 12I.3. Restrictions on Law Enforcement Officials.
- Sec. 12I.4. Purpose of this Chapter.
- Sec. 12I.5. Semiannual Report.

SEC. 12I.1. FINDINGS.

The City and County of San Francisco (the "City") is home to persons of diverse racial, ethnic, and national backgrounds, including a large immigrant population. The City respects, upholds, and values equal protection and equal treatment for all of our residents, regardless of immigration status. Fostering a relationship of trust, respect, and open communication between City employees and City residents is essential to the City's core mission of ensuring public health, safety, and welfare, and serving the needs of everyone in the community, including immigrants. The purpose of this Chapter 12I, as well as of Administrative Code Chapter 12H, is to foster respect and trust between law enforcement and residents, to protect limited local resources, to encourage cooperation between residents and City officials, including especially law enforcement and public health officers and employees, and to ensure community security, and due process for all.

The United States Immigration and Customs Enforcement ("ICE") is responsible for enforcing the civil immigration laws. ICE's programs, including Secure Communities and its replacement, the Priority Enforcement Program ("PEP"), seek to enlist local law enforcement's voluntary cooperation and assistance in its enforcement efforts. In its description of PEP, ICE explains that all requests under PEP are for voluntary action and that any request is not an authorization to detain persons at the expense of the federal government. The federal government should not shift the financial burden of federal civil immigration enforcement, including personnel time and costs relating to notification and detention, onto local law enforcement by requesting that local law enforcement agencies continue detaining persons based on non-mandatory civil immigration detainers or cooperating and assisting with requests to notify ICE that a person will be released from local custody. It is not a wise and effective use of valuable City resources at a time when vital services are being cut.

ICE's Secure Communities program (also known as "S-Comm") shifted the burden of federal civil immigration enforcement onto local law enforcement. S-Comm came into operation after the state sent fingerprints that state and local law enforcement agencies had transmitted to the California Department of Justice ("Cal DOJ") to positively identify the arrestees and to check their criminal history. The FBI would forward the fingerprints to the Department of Homeland Security ("DHS") to be checked against immigration and other databases. To give itself time to take a detainee into immigration custody, ICE would send an Immigration Detainer - Notice of Action (DHS Form I-247) to the local law enforcement official requesting that the local law enforcement official hold the individual for up to 48 hours after that individual would otherwise be released ("civil immigration detainers"). Civil Immigration detainers may be issued without evidentiary support or probable cause by border patrol agents, aircraft pilots, special agents, deportation officers, immigration inspectors, and immigration adjudication officers.

Given that civil immigration detainers are issued by immigration officers without judicial oversight, and the regulation authorizing civil immigration detainers provides no minimum standard of proof for their issuance, there are serious questions as to their constitutionality. Unlike criminal warrants, which must be supported by probable cause and issued by a neutral magistrate, there are no such requirements for the issuance of a civil immigration detainer. Several federal courts have ruled that because civil immigration detainers and other ICE "Notice of Action" documents are issued without probable cause of criminal conduct, they do not meet the Fourth Amendment requirements for state or local law enforcement officials to arrest and hold an individual in custody. (Miranda-Olivares v. Clackamas Co., No. 3:12-cv-02317-ST *17 (D.Or. April 11, 2014) (finding that detention pursuant to an immigration detainer is a seizure that must comport with the Fourth Amendment). See also Morales v. Chadbourne, 996 F. Supp. 2d 19, 29 (D.R.I 2014); Villars v. Kubiowski, No. 12-cv-4586 *10-12 (N.D. Ill. filed May 5, 2014).)

On December 4, 2012, the Attorney General of California, Kamala Harris, clarified the responsibilities of local law enforcement agencies under S-Comm. The Attorney General clarified that S-Comm did not require state or local law enforcement officials to determine an individual's immigration status or to enforce federal immigration laws. The Attorney General also clarified that civil immigration detainers are voluntary requests to local law enforcement agencies that do not mandate compliance. California local law enforcement agencies may determine on their own whether to comply with non-mandatory civil immigration detainers. In a June 25, 2014, bulletin, the Attorney General warned that a federal court outside of California had held a county liable for damages where it voluntarily complied with an ICE request to detain an individual, and the individual was otherwise eligible for release and that local law enforcement agencies may also be held liable for such conduct. Over 350 jurisdictions, including Washington, D.C., Cook County, Illinois, and many of California's 58 counties, have already acknowledged the discretionary nature of civil immigration detainers and are declining to hold people in their jails for the additional 48 hours as requested by ICE. Local law enforcement agencies' responsibilities, duties, and powers are regulated by state law. However, complying with non-mandatory civil immigration detainers frequently raises due process concerns.

According to Section 287.7 of Title 8 of the Code of Federal Regulations, the City is not reimbursed by the federal government for the costs associated with civil immigration detainers alone. The full cost of responding to a civil immigration detainer can include, but is not limited to, extended detention time, the administrative costs of tracking and responding to detainers, and the legal liability for erroneously holding an individual who is not subject to a civil immigration detainer. Compliance with civil immigration detainers and involvement in civil immigration enforcement diverts limited local resources from programs that are beneficial to the City.

The City seeks to protect public safety, which is founded on trust and cooperation of community residents and local law enforcement. However, civil immigration detainers and notifications regarding release undermine community trust of law enforcement by instilling fear in immigrant communities of coming forward to report crimes and cooperate with local law enforcement agencies. A 2013 study by the University of Illinois, entitled "Insecure Communities: Latino Perceptions of Police Involvement in Immigration Enforcement," found that at least 40% of Latinos surveyed are less likely to provide information to police because they fear exposing themselves, family, or friends to a risk of deportation. Indeed, civil immigration detainers have resulted in the transfer of victims of crime, including domestic violence victims, to ICE.

The City has enacted numerous laws and policies to strengthen communities and to build trust between communities and local law enforcement. Local cooperation and assistance with civil immigration enforcement undermines community policing strategies.

In 2014, DHS ended the Secure Communities program and replaced it with PEP. PEP and S-Comm share many similarities. Just as with S-Comm, PEP uses state and federal databases to check an individual's fingerprints against immigration and other databases. PEP employs a number of tactics to facilitate transfers of individuals from local jails to immigration custody.

First, PEP uses a new form (known as DHS Form I-247N), which requests notification from local jails about an individual's release date prior to his or her release from local custody. As with civil immigration detainers, these notification requests are issued by immigration officers without judicial oversight, thus raising questions about local law enforcement's liability for constitutional violations if any person is overdetained when immigration agents are unable to be present at the time of the person's release from local custody.

Second, under PEP, ICE will continue to issue civil immigration detainer requests where local law enforcement officials are willing to respond to the requests, and in instances of "special circumstances," a term that has yet to be defined by DHS. Despite federal courts finding civil immigration detainers do not meet Fourth Amendment requirements, local jurisdictions are often unable to confirm whether or not a detention request is supported by probable cause or has been reviewed by a neutral magistrate.

The increase in information-sharing between local law enforcement and immigration officials raises serious concerns about privacy rights. Across the country, including in the California Central Valley, there has been an increase of ICE agents stationed in jails, who often have unrestricted access to jail databases, booking logs, and other documents that contain personal information of all jail inmates.

The City has an interest in ensuring that confidential information collected in the course of carrying out its municipal functions, including but not limited to public health programs and criminal investigations, is not used for unintended purposes that could hamper collection of information vital to those functions. To carry out public health programs, the City must be able to reliably collect confidential information from all residents. To solve crimes and protect the public, local law enforcement depends on the cooperation of all City residents. Information gathering and cooperation may be jeopardized if release of personal information results in a person being taken into immigration custody.

In late 2015, Pedro Figueroa, an immigrant father of an 8-year-old U.S. citizen, sought the San Francisco Police Department's help in locating his stolen vehicle. When Mr. Figueroa went to the police station to retrieve his car, which police had located, he was detained for some time by police officers before being released, and an ICE agent was waiting to take him into immigration custody immediately as he left the police station. It was later reported that both the Police Department and the San Francisco Sheriff's Department had contact with ICE officials while Mr. Figueroa was at the police station. He spent over two months in an immigration detention facility and remains in deportation proceedings. Mr. Figueroa's case has raised major concerns about local law enforcement's relationship with immigration authorities, and has weakened the immigrant community's confidence in policing practices. Community cooperation with local law enforcement is critical to investigating and prosecuting crimes. Without the cooperation of crime victims - like Mr. Figueroa - and witnesses, local law enforcement's ability to investigate and prosecute crime, particularly in communities with large immigrant populations, will be seriously compromised.

Presidential Documents

Executive Order 13768 of January 25, 2017

Enhancing Public Safety in the Interior of the United States

By the authority vested in me as President by the Constitution and the laws of the United States of America, including the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA) (8 U.S.C. 1101 et seq.), and in order to ensure the public safety of the American people in communities across the United States as well as to ensure that our Nation's immigration laws are faithfully executed, I hereby declare the policy of the executive branch to be, and order, as follows:

Section 1. Purpose. Interior enforcement of our Nation's immigration laws is critically important to the national security and public safety of the United States. Many aliens who illegally enter the United States and those who overstay or otherwise violate the terms of their visas present a significant threat to national security and public safety. This is particularly so for aliens who engage in criminal conduct in the United States.

Sanctuary jurisdictions across the United States willfully violate Federal law in an attempt to shield aliens from removal from the United States. These jurisdictions have caused immeasurable harm to the American people and to the very fabric of our Republic.

Tens of thousands of removable aliens have been released into communities across the country, solely because their home countries refuse to accept their repatriation. Many of these aliens are criminals who have served time in our Federal, State, and local jails. The presence of such individuals in the United States, and the practices of foreign nations that refuse the repatriation of their nationals, are contrary to the national interest.

Although Federal immigration law provides a framework for Federal-State partnerships in enforcing our immigration laws to ensure the removal of aliens who have no right to be in the United States, the Federal Government has failed to discharge this basic sovereign responsibility. We cannot faithfully execute the immigration laws of the United States if we exempt classes or categories of removable aliens from potential enforcement. The purpose of this order is to direct executive departments and agencies (agencies) to employ all lawful means to enforce the immigration laws of the United States.

Sec. 2. Policy. It is the policy of the executive branch to:

(a) Ensure the faithful execution of the immigration laws of the United States, including the INA, against all removable aliens, consistent with Article II, Section 3 of the United States Constitution and section 3331 of title 5, United States Code;

(b) Make use of all available systems and resources to ensure the efficient and faithful execution of the immigration laws of the United States;

(c) Ensure that jurisdictions that fail to comply with applicable Federal law do not receive Federal funds, except as mandated by law;

(d) Ensure that aliens ordered removed from the United States are promptly removed; and

(e) Support victims, and the families of victims, of crimes committed by removable aliens.

Sec. 3. Definitions. The terms of this order, where applicable, shall have the meaning provided by section 1101 of title 8, United States Code.

Sec. 4. Enforcement of the Immigration Laws in the Interior of the United States. In furtherance of the policy described in section 2 of this order, I hereby direct agencies to employ all lawful means to ensure the faithful execution of the immigration laws of the United States against all removable aliens.

Sec. 5. Enforcement Priorities. In executing faithfully the immigration laws of the United States, the Secretary of Homeland Security (Secretary) shall prioritize for removal those aliens described by the Congress in sections 212(a)(2), (a)(3), and (a)(6)(C), 235, and 237(a)(2) and (4) of the INA (8 U.S.C. 1182(a)(2), (a)(3), and (a)(6)(C), 1225, and 1227(a)(2) and (4)), as well as removable aliens who:

- (a) Have been convicted of any criminal offense;
- (b) Have been charged with any criminal offense, where such charge has not been resolved;
- (c) Have committed acts that constitute a chargeable criminal offense;
- (d) Have engaged in fraud or willful misrepresentation in connection with any official matter or application before a governmental agency;
- (e) Have abused any program related to receipt of public benefits;
- (f) Are subject to a final order of removal, but who have not complied with their legal obligation to depart the United States; or
- (g) In the judgment of an immigration officer, otherwise pose a risk to public safety or national security.

Sec. 6. Civil Fines and Penalties. As soon as practicable, and by no later than one year after the date of this order, the Secretary shall issue guidance and promulgate regulations, where required by law, to ensure the assessment and collection of all fines and penalties that the Secretary is authorized under the law to assess and collect from aliens unlawfully present in the United States and from those who facilitate their presence in the United States.

Sec. 7. Additional Enforcement and Removal Officers. The Secretary, through the Director of U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement, shall, to the extent permitted by law and subject to the availability of appropriations, take all appropriate action to hire 10,000 additional immigration officers, who shall complete relevant training and be authorized to perform the law enforcement functions described in section 287 of the INA (8 U.S.C. 1357).

Sec. 8. Federal-State Agreements. It is the policy of the executive branch to empower State and local law enforcement agencies across the country to perform the functions of an immigration officer in the interior of the United States to the maximum extent permitted by law.

(a) In furtherance of this policy, the Secretary shall immediately take appropriate action to engage with the Governors of the States, as well as local officials, for the purpose of preparing to enter into agreements under section 287(g) of the INA (8 U.S.C. 1357(g)).

(b) To the extent permitted by law and with the consent of State or local officials, as appropriate, the Secretary shall take appropriate action, through agreements under section 287(g) of the INA, or otherwise, to authorize State and local law enforcement officials, as the Secretary determines are qualified and appropriate, to perform the functions of immigration officers in relation to the investigation, apprehension, or detention of aliens in the United States under the direction and the supervision of the Secretary. Such authorization shall be in addition to, rather than in place of, Federal performance of these duties.

(c) To the extent permitted by law, the Secretary may structure each agreement under section 287(g) of the INA in a manner that provides the most effective model for enforcing Federal immigration laws for that jurisdiction.

Sec. 9. Sanctuary Jurisdictions. It is the policy of the executive branch to ensure, to the fullest extent of the law, that a State, or a political subdivision of a State, shall comply with 8 U.S.C. 1373.

(a) In furtherance of this policy, the Attorney General and the Secretary, in their discretion and to the extent consistent with law, shall ensure that jurisdictions that willfully refuse to comply with 8 U.S.C. 1373 (sanctuary jurisdictions) are not eligible to receive Federal grants, except as deemed necessary for law enforcement purposes by the Attorney General or the Secretary. The Secretary has the authority to designate, in his discretion and to the extent consistent with law, a jurisdiction as a sanctuary jurisdiction. The Attorney General shall take appropriate enforcement action against any entity that violates 8 U.S.C. 1373, or which has in effect a statute, policy, or practice that prevents or hinders the enforcement of Federal law.

(b) To better inform the public regarding the public safety threats associated with sanctuary jurisdictions, the Secretary shall utilize the Declined Detainer Outcome Report or its equivalent and, on a weekly basis, make public a comprehensive list of criminal actions committed by aliens and any jurisdiction that ignored or otherwise failed to honor any detainers with respect to such aliens.

(c) The Director of the Office of Management and Budget is directed to obtain and provide relevant and responsive information on all Federal grant money that currently is received by any sanctuary jurisdiction.

Sec. 10. Review of Previous Immigration Actions and Policies. (a) The Secretary shall immediately take all appropriate action to terminate the Priority Enforcement Program (PEP) described in the memorandum issued by the Secretary on November 20, 2014, and to reinstitute the immigration program known as “Secure Communities” referenced in that memorandum.

(b) The Secretary shall review agency regulations, policies, and procedures for consistency with this order and, if required, publish for notice and comment proposed regulations rescinding or revising any regulations inconsistent with this order and shall consider whether to withdraw or modify any inconsistent policies and procedures, as appropriate and consistent with the law.

(c) To protect our communities and better facilitate the identification, detention, and removal of criminal aliens within constitutional and statutory parameters, the Secretary shall consolidate and revise any applicable forms to more effectively communicate with recipient law enforcement agencies.

Sec. 11. Department of Justice Prosecutions of Immigration Violators. The Attorney General and the Secretary shall work together to develop and implement a program that ensures that adequate resources are devoted to the prosecution of criminal immigration offenses in the United States, and to develop cooperative strategies to reduce violent crime and the reach of transnational criminal organizations into the United States.

Sec. 12. Recalcitrant Countries. The Secretary of Homeland Security and the Secretary of State shall cooperate to effectively implement the sanctions provided by section 243(d) of the INA (8 U.S.C. 1253(d)), as appropriate. The Secretary of State shall, to the maximum extent permitted by law, ensure that diplomatic efforts and negotiations with foreign states include as a condition precedent the acceptance by those foreign states of their nationals who are subject to removal from the United States.

Sec. 13. Office for Victims of Crimes Committed by Removable Aliens. The Secretary shall direct the Director of U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement to take all appropriate and lawful action to establish within U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement an office to provide proactive, timely, adequate, and professional services to victims of crimes committed by removable aliens and the family members of such victims. This office shall provide quarterly reports studying the effects of the victimization by criminal aliens present in the United States.

Sec. 14. Privacy Act. Agencies shall, to the extent consistent with applicable law, ensure that their privacy policies exclude persons who are not United States citizens or lawful permanent residents from the protections of the Privacy Act regarding personally identifiable information.

Sec. 15. Reporting. Except as otherwise provided in this order, the Secretary and the Attorney General shall each submit to the President a report on the progress of the directives contained in this order within 90 days of the date of this order and again within 180 days of the date of this order.

Sec. 16. Transparency. To promote the transparency and situational awareness of criminal aliens in the United States, the Secretary and the Attorney General are hereby directed to collect relevant data and provide quarterly reports on the following:

(a) the immigration status of all aliens incarcerated under the supervision of the Federal Bureau of Prisons;

(b) the immigration status of all aliens incarcerated as Federal pretrial detainees under the supervision of the United States Marshals Service; and

(c) the immigration status of all convicted aliens incarcerated in State prisons and local detention centers throughout the United States.

Sec. 17. Personnel Actions. The Office of Personnel Management shall take appropriate and lawful action to facilitate hiring personnel to implement this order.

Sec. 18. General Provisions. (a) Nothing in this order shall be construed to impair or otherwise affect:

(i) the authority granted by law to an executive department or agency, or the head thereof; or

(ii) the functions of the Director of the Office of Management and Budget relating to budgetary, administrative, or legislative proposals.

(b) This order shall be implemented consistent with applicable law and subject to the availability of appropriations.

(c) This order is not intended to, and does not, create any right or benefit, substantive or procedural, enforceable at law or in equity by any party against the United States, its departments, agencies, or entities, its officers, employees, or agents, or any other person.
