Reverend Seth Kaper-Dale
Reformed Church of Highland Park

Dear Reverend Kaper-Dale:

Thank you for your recent communication regarding the circumstances of a certain Indonesian community in New England. We take your communication as an expression of general concern for this community and not as any formal or legal representation of the particular members of this community.

Should any member of this community who is subject to a final removal order desire to seek a stay of removal upon surrender to ICE, we would be favorably disposed to accord an initial 90-day stay of removal for any who surrender before August 15, 2010. The 90-day period is sufficient for ICE to fully adjudicate the stay request. This assumes that the person surrendering does not have any criminal history, is not otherwise deemed a security concern, is not a persecutor, and files and submits an I-246 Application for Stay Of Removal, supported by documentation, at or before the time of surrender to ICE.

Each person's immigration situation involves a mixed question of law and fact, and of course must be decided on a case by case basis. If after adjudication it is determined that a particular stay application warrants a further grant of stay period beyond the initial 90 days, notification of that decision will be provided to the applicant. Conversely, a denial notice will also be provided where that is the decision.

ICE reserves the right to condition any grant of stay of removal upon continuing assumptions, not limited to the understanding applicants and grantees remain law abiding and do not become a focus of criminal and or national security or human rights abuse inquiries.

Sincerely,

Enforcement and Removal Operations

ENFORCEMENT AND REMOVAL OPERATIONS
BOSTON FIELD OFFICE

Operation: NI Surrender
Date: August 9th – 13th, 2010

I. Situation

The objective of Operation “NI Surrender” is to apply an organized, methodical approach to the location and arrest of Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) fugitive aliens, previously removed aliens, removable aliens convicted of crimes, and otherwise dangerous aliens at large within the Boston Field Office Area of Operational Responsibility (AOR).

The Field Office Director (FOD), Deputy Field Office Director (DFOD) and Assistant Field Office Director (AFOD) have been briefed on this operational plan, and support its execution.

A) ICE Fugitive Aliens – (50-100)

Fifty (50) to one hundred (100) aliens have been identified through liaison with non-governmental organizations within the Indonesian community in New Hampshire. The Fugitive Aliens will voluntarily surrender to BOS Fugitive Operations during the times listed below. The ICE fugitives may comprise of aliens found within the three Tier System of Priorities for Fugitive Operations; which includes ICE Fugitive aliens, previously removed aliens and alien amenable to removal proceedings due to their criminal convictions or their immigration status. The number of Tier 1 Fugitive Aliens, Tier 2 Previously Removed Aliens and Tier 3 Removable Aliens Convicted of Crimes is unknown at this time.

B) Hours of Operation

Team members will conduct necessary pre-operational site preparation as resources permit. Operational hours will be from 1000 hrs to 1800 hrs each day. Although the operational hours will be from 1000 hrs to 1800 hrs daily, the team leader(s) will determine the actual duty hours. No operation will begin prior to 0600 hrs or after 2200 hrs, unless the FOD has reviewed the case, and given approval based on specific justification for each case (attachment three). All activities will be conducted pursuant to the National Fugitive Operations Program (NFOP) Policy and Procedures. Supervisory staff will change shift hours as needed in order to facilitate the operation. Operational hours will be between 1000 hrs to 1800 hrs.

C) Local Situation

The Boston Fugitive Operations Team(s) will conduct the operation with support from other resources from the Boston Field Office, Enforcement and Removal Operations (ERO), as well as the following Law Enforcement Agencies (LEAs): Strafford County Sheriffs Office and Dover Police Department. The FOD has committed all necessary resources within their jurisdiction. (See attached Excel spreadsheet for Team and LEA breakdown)

D) Operational De-Confliction

Homeland Security Investigations (HSI) has been advised of the operation and has stated that they do not anticipate any conflict in the area and have declined to participate. No additional request for assistance was made by ERO. The ICE fugitive aliens will be queried in TECS utilizing [REDACTED] to ensure de-confliction with HSI and other law enforcement entities.

E) Local Law Enforcement Agencies (LEAs)

The Fugitive Operations Team (FOT) Supervisory Detention and Deportation Officer (SDDO) shall advise local LEAs prior to the execution of any Headquarters (HQ) approved or FOD approved fugitive operation plan. The standard operating procedure for local law enforcement agencies will vary from location to location and should be established through proactive liaison. In the presence of exigent circumstances, the FOD will be made aware of the circumstances and concur with written justification not to notify the local LEAs.

F) Community Issues or Politically Sensitive Issues

Three days prior to the execution of the operation, the field office will provide the Office of Public Affairs (OPA) and Office of Congressional Relations (OCR) with the specifics of the operation, to include the operational dates and location of the initiative.

Department of Homeland Security
Immigration and Customs Enforcement

G) Juveniles

The ICE ERO Boston Fugitive Operations Team does not anticipate any juvenile issues or encounters during this operation. In the event that minors are identified, or encountered, family members, care providers and community, as well as state and county juvenile resources, will be examined and a plan of care for the juveniles will be addressed prior to the commencement of operations. At this time, there are no juveniles identified/targeted for this operation.

If unaccompanied alien juveniles are encountered, the local juvenile coordinator will be contacted for guidance. If they are unavailable, the Office of Refugee Resettlement (ORR) will be notified at 202-401-5709 after all processing tasks are performed.

In the event that juvenile(s) are present, and their presence was not anticipated during operational enforcement activities, the SDDO and Team Leaders may need to seek assistance from the state or local governmental agency responsible for juvenile issues, i.e. Child Protective Services (CPS). As such, the SDDO and team leaders are in possession of the agency's appropriate contact numbers, to be used as deemed necessary throughout the entirety of the operation. See attachment for list of contact agencies and phone numbers.

Whenever possible, juveniles will be placed in the care of immediate family members that have no ascertainable criminal history. If there are no other options, sole care givers who are subject to removal, that have no ascertainable criminal record may be placed on an Order of Supervision or Order of Release on Recognizance with SDDO/AFOD approval.

H) Prosecutions

In instances where an alien is amenable to prosecution, the case will be presented to the United States Attorney's Office/State Attorney's Office as appropriate. If the case is accepted for prosecution, an I-247, Immigration Detainer will be filed with the agency assuming custody of the alien. If the United States Attorney's Office/State Attorney's Office declines to prosecute, the declination will be recorded in the narrative portion of the I-213 and included in file.

I) Gangs

The ICE ERO Boston Fugitive Operations Team does not anticipate any issues or encounters involving gangs during this operation. In the event that ICE personnel encounter an alien affiliated with a street gang, officers will record the appropriate information on form I-213 and photograph any tattoos. A copy of the I-213 and photos will be forwarded to the officer responsible for entering the subject's information into the ICE gang database.

II. Mission.

Operation “NH Surrender” is an effort to apply an organized, methodical approach to the location and arrest of ICE fugitive aliens, previously removed aliens, removable aliens convicted of crimes, or aliens otherwise amenable to removal at large within the Boston Field Office(s) AOR. The sustained cooperation of other LEAs throughout the area is paramount in order to be successful in this initiative.

This initiative is the result of liaison between ICE ERO and non-governmental organizations supporting the Indonesian community in New Hampshire.

Execution

A) Directors Intent

This operation is being conducted pursuant to the National Fugitive Operations Program Policy and Procedures (Ch.19). The primary mission of the National Fugitive Operations Program is to reduce the backlog of ICE fugitives throughout the United States. The National Fugitive Operations Program additionally focuses resources to apprehend and remove previously removed aliens, removable aliens convicted of crimes, and otherwise dangerous aliens at large in the community.

B) Concept of Operations

The operation will consist of one (1) designated arrest team in the AOR. The team will consist of members of the Boston FOT; the team will also be assisted by Deportation Officers (DOs) and Immigration Enforcement Agents (IEAs) from the Criminal Alien Program (CAP), detained / non-detained sections of Boston ERO. One DO will be assigned as the Team Leader (TL) and one will be assigned as the File Control Officer (FCO). The teams will be assigned unmarked vehicles as well as secure transport vehicles for their use.

The Strafford County Sheriff’s Office has designated a staging area for the mobile processing van at the Strafford County Superior Court in Dover, NH. During the hours of operation, anyone subject to a final removal order will have an opportunity to surrender themselves and file an Application for a Stay of Removal. The FOD would be favorably disposed to accord an initial 90-day stay of removal provided the person surrendering does not have any criminal history, is not otherwise deemed a security concern, is not a persecutor, and files and

Immigration and Customs Enforcement
Enforcement and Removal Operations

submits an I-246 Application for Stay of Removal, supported by documentation, at or before the time of surrender.

Fugitives with criminal records who surrender will be taken into custody in order to pursue removal efforts absent exigent circumstances.

Criminal non-fugitives who surrender will be taken into custody in order to pursue removal efforts absent exigent circumstances.

As the focus of this operation is on fugitive aliens and non-fugitive criminal aliens, non-criminal non-fugitives aliens who wish to surrender will be evaluated on a case by case basis and a determination will be made whether to issue a Notice to Appear or serve a G-56 Call-In to report at a later date.

This operation will consist of five (5) days of enforcement activity being executed in the Boston AOR from August 9, 2010 to August 13, 2010.

Phase I: August 9, 2010: Operational briefing at 0900 hours at the Strafford County Superior Court, 259 County Farm Road, Dover, NH. All officers participating in the operation will attend the pre-operational briefing.

Phase II: August 9, 2010 to August 13, 2010, Officers from the Boston FOTs will be deployed to Dover, NH to initiate arrests.

Phase III: August 17, 2010: If deemed necessary, the Boston ICE OPA will issue a press release following the completion of the operation once approved by the FOD.

C) Tasks

1. Fugitive Operations Support Center (FOSC): A copy of the Operational Plan and target list has been sent to the FOSC and HQ NFOP via submission to the HQ Fug Ops Mailbox. Submissions must include the Operational Plan, Signed FOD Signature Page, Target List, and Personnel breakdown, along with any additional attachments as necessary.
2. The Law Enforcement Support Center (LESC): Is available 24 hours a day, seven days a week and can provide support to Fugitive Operations Teams conducting operations. It is recommended that you provide all officers/agents participating in the operation the contact number for the LESL.

Law Enforcement Sensitive-Official Use Only

Warning: This document is UNCLASSIFIED//FOR OFFICIAL USE ONLY (U//FOUO). It contains information that may be exempt from public reLEase under the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. 552). It is to be controlled, stored, handled, transmitted, distributed, and disposed of in accordance with DHS policy relating to FOUO information and is not to be reLEased to the public or other personnel who do not have a valid "need-to-know" without prior approval of an authorized DHS official. No portion of this report should be furnished to the media, either in written or verbal form.

Department of Homeland Security
Immigration and Customs Enforcement
Enforcement and Removal Operations

Detention Operations Coordination Center (DOCC): Detention space is suitable within the Boston AOR, and detention locations have been identified. Although DOCC assistance was not requested they have been provided a copy of this operational plan and have concurred with the operation.

D) Safety and Logistics

Mandatory Element: Safety is paramount. Officers will not engage in high/low-speed vehicle pursuits. All participating officers will be fully equipped with both deadly and non-deadly force weapons, service-issued firearms and personal body armor.

1. Beyond identifying themselves verbally as law enforcement officers/agents, ERO enforcement personnel must utilize law enforcement identifiers, such as neck badges, belt badges, and outer garments affixed with ICE identifiers. In order to ensure uniformity, if utilized during enforcement operations, outer garments must be prominently affixed with both the words "ICE" and "Police."
2. No training will be necessary prior to this operation.
3. Primary processing location: All detainees will be processed at the Strafford County Superior Court, 259 County Farm Road, Dover, NH utilizing the ICE Mobile Processing Unit..
 - a. Secondary detention and processing site(s) to be determined as needed.
 - b. The SDDO will coordinate requests for additional staff to support the enforcement operation. Requests will be made through the Operations AFOD with concurrence from the Boston FOD.
4. Logistics.
 - a. Lodging and per diem expenses will not be required for the operation. In the event that the need arises to utilize lodging and per diem, it will be funded at the local level.
 - b. No health & safety inspection required for any facility or equipment being utilized for this operation.
 - c. No contracts need to be reevaluated.

Law Enforcement Sensitive-Official Use Only

Warning: This document is UNCLASSIFIED//FOR OFFICIAL USE ONLY (U//FOUO). It contains information that may be exempt from public release under the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. 552). It is to be controlled, stored, handled, transmitted, distributed, and disposed of in accordance with DHS policy relating to FOUO information and is not to be released to the public or other personnel who do not have a valid "need-to-know" without prior approval of an authorized DHS official. No portion of this report should be furnished to the media, either in written or verbal form.

Department of Homeland Security
Immigration and Customs Enforcement
Enforcement and Removal Operations

5. Removal efforts: It is the intent of the FOD to expeditiously remove all ICE fugitive aliens and non-fugitive aliens from the United States. The below actions have been performed to facilitate this objective:

- a. Once arrested, all detainees will be processed utilizing the mobile processing unit at the Strafford County Superior Court, 259 County Farm Road, Dover, NH. All files will be reviewed by the Fug Ops Team Leader/SDDO for legal sufficiency prior to the alien being transferred to an appropriate detention facility.
- b. Each operational team has been instructed to secure any and all legally issued identity documents for all arrestees who will require a travel document for removal. All teams will make every legal effort to secure these documents prior to departing the arrest location. Obtaining these documents at the time of arrest will greatly decrease time spent in detention.
- c. When appropriate, a form of alternative detention can be utilized if authorized by supervisory personnel.

E) General Reporting Requirements

1. Daily Reports: Submitted to the AFOD and HQ NFOP via the HQ Fug Ops Mailbox utilizing the HQ approved Fugitive Operations Daily Report spreadsheet.

Via/Transmission: E-mail (HQDRO, FUGOPS)

Due: 2400 daily

Period Covered: That day's 24-hour period (0001-2400 hours)

2. Weekly Reports: Standard HQ FUGOPS reporting via the Fugitive Case Management System (FCMS).
3. Significant Event Notification (SEN): A SEN / Significant Incident Report (SIR) / Significant Proposed Enforcement Activity Report (SPEAR) will only need to be submitted if events or incidences occur that warrant their generation in accordance with established policy and procedures.
4. Report Format: At the conclusion of field operations the Team Leaders will ensure that the Command Center and Processing Teams properly update FCMS with all arrests by Close of Business (COB) each day.

Law Enforcement Sensitive-Official Use Only

Warning: This document is UNCLASSIFIED//FOR OFFICIAL USE ONLY (U//FOUO). It contains information that may be exempt from public reLEase under the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. 552). 5. A/S Notes: A/S notes will only need to be submitted if events or incidences occur that warrant their generation in accordance with established policy and procedures.

F) After Action Reporting Requirements

1. Initial after action conferences will be conducted as follows:
 - a. Key operational personnel involved in the final Phase(s) of the enforcement operation will be held on August 13, 2010 at the surrender site.
2. Format: The format for issues will be:
 - a. Topic
 - b. Discussion
 - c. Recommendation(s)
3. Formal after action report: A memorandum of results will be generated and forwarded to the FOD for review as necessary.
4. Boston ICE OPA will coordinate with the FOD and generate a press release upon completion of the operation as necessary.

G) Command and Control

1. Primary means of communication will be via radio, telephone and E-mail.

DECLARATION OF SUPERVISORY DETENTION AND DEPORTATION OFFICER
TIMOTHY STEVENS

Pursuant to the authority of 28 U.S.C. § 1746, I,
Timothy Stevens, declare as follows:

1. I am a Supervisory Detention and Deportation Officer in the Manchester, New Hampshire, Office of Enforcement and Removal Operations (ERO), United States Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE), Department of Homeland Security, and have been in that position since September of 2010. Prior to my current position, I was a Supervisory Detention and Deportation Officer from September 2008 to September 2010 in Boston, Massachusetts. Manchester is a sub-office of ERO's Boston, Massachusetts field office. I make this declaration based upon my review and my staff's review of administrative alien files and other ICE records sources officially available to me.

2. Included in my official duties as a Supervisory Detention and Deportation Officer is the administrative supervision of aliens under docket control of the Manchester, New Hampshire, ERO office who are subject to administratively final orders of removal, but who, as a matter of administrative discretion, have been conditionally placed upon an administrative Order of Supervision and remain in a non-detained status pending removal from the United States.

3. In June 2010, in response to the existence of a number of Indonesian aliens who were subject to final administrative orders of removal and were at large in New Hampshire, a former ERO Field Office Director communicated with a spokesperson for this Indonesian community.

4. That communication proposed that if members of this Indonesian population with no criminal history, who were not human rights persecutors and who presented no national security concerns would surrender themselves to ICE officers before August 15, 2010, ICE would be favorably disposed to according such aliens an initial 90-day administrative stay of removal in connection with a more formal administrative consideration and adjudication of each alien's submission of a Form I-246 Application for Stay of Removal.

5. Arrangements were completed, and at the end of August and into the first week of September 2010, ICE ERO officers set up an ICE mobile processing center in a Dover, New Hampshire, parking lot for a week, to receive Indonesian respondents who wanted to avail themselves of the opportunity to surrender to ICE supervision. I believe the plan initially was referred to within ICE as "Operation New Hampshire," though it possibly was also referred to later as "Operation Indonesian Surrender."

6. My understanding, at that time, was that the parties regarded the operation as a mutually beneficial proposition, inasmuch as it provided a process for the affected aliens to request and receive official dispositions of their respective requests for stays of execution of their removal orders, and allowed ICE to maintain administrative supervision of the aliens' locations and to require periodic reporting back to ICE. Indonesian surrenderees whose stay requests were granted became eligible to apply for work authorization during the periods of the stays that were granted, pursuant to 8 C.F.R. § 274a.12(c)(18), and if such employment authorization were granted, an employment authorization document would be issued, pursuant to 8 C.F.R. § 274a.13(b). In addition, aliens who were granted stays, placed under an administrative Order of Supervision, and complied with the conditions, were relieved of the prospect of unexpected arrest by ICE during their periods of authorized stay.

7. I personally participated with the team of officers at the August-September 2010, Dover, New Hampshire, surrender operation. The originally-intended surrender deadline for the operation was August 15, 2010, but the operation did not actually commence until the week beginning August 30, 2010. There were some additional respondents who came to ICE after that date, but who were nonetheless processed by ICE along with the rest of the surrender group, as late as October 27, 2010.

8. Although the processing of those Indonesian respondents to the June 2010 ICE communication was an organized event, the ultimate adjudication of the submitted stay applications was no different than for other applicants who might file a Form I-246 Application for Stay of Removal with ICE. That is to say, such applications are adjudicated on a case-by-case basis in the exercise of administrative discretion, and if a stay is granted it is for a specific period of time, as communicated in the written notice of granted stay that ICE provides to the stay applicant. What was different was the ICE forbearance of any enforcement action, for 90 days, of any alien that appeared and surrendered to ICE supervision. In other words, any of the Indonesian aliens with final orders of removal who were within the June 2010 guidelines that were communicated to the community spokesperson and who surrendered to ICE during the specified period were not taken into custody for removal from the United States on the spot, but instead were assured of 90 days forbearance in order to submit a formal Application for Stay of Removal within that period.

9. My staff and I have reviewed the ICE administrative files relating to the Indonesian aliens who surrendered to ICE supervision under the operation. Based upon that review, I can report that 91 Indonesians surrendered to ICE supervision during the event.

10. Of those 91 total cases, 58 cases were granted stays of removal, and 32 cases were denied stays of removal.

11. Of the 32 cases where removal stays were denied, 12 of those departed the United States under orders of removal, in a non-detained status.

12. In 19 of the 32 cases where stays were denied, the aliens failed to report periodically to ICE as directed by the release conditions of their respective Orders of Supervision. They currently remain fugitives-at-large pursuant to their removal orders.

13. Of the 58 cases in which stays were initially granted, the stay periods' duration were for various finite periods, reflecting the case-by-case circumstances. Five of those 58 aliens who initially were granted stays later were removed from the United States when ERO denied subsequent stay requests. No stay grant, then or subsequently, was for any open-ended or indefinite period of time.

14. Of the 53 remaining aliens whose stays were initially granted, nine failed to comply with reporting conditions, and so became fugitives from supervision and from their final orders of removal.

15. Of the total population of the 91 aliens who surrendered to ICE supervision, my review of the relating files indicates that only two aliens ever filed motions seeking to reopen their removal orders following the conclusion of the operation. These motions were filed on September 21, 2017, by named plaintiffs Heru Kurniawan and Patty Deetje.

16. I have been provided the names of 13 aliens, whom I understand to now be named plaintiffs in this lawsuit, and as to whom I understand it has been alleged that each surrendered to ICE supervision during or in connection with the August-September 2010 operation. The 13 aliens whose names I have been provided are:

Devitri, Lia

Grasje, Eva

Kaloh, Syane

Londa, John

Lumangkun, Meldy

Lumingkewas, Martin

Lumingkewas, Meivie

Rombot, Terry

Setiawan, Agus

Sombah, Freddy

Sombah, Poppy

Kurniawan, Heru

Deetje, Patty

17. Upon review of the files relating to these 13 aliens, I can report that the following persons in fact did not surrender to ICE supervision during or in connection with the operation:

Lia Devitri

Agus Setiawan

Martin Lumingkewas

Meivie Lumingkewas

18. Lia Devitri did not surrender to ICE supervision during or in connection with the operation in 2010. She instead was apprehended by an ICE Fugitive Operations Team at her Winchendon, Massachusetts residence on May 11, 2010, outside the specified dates of the operation.

19. Agus Setiawan did not surrender to ICE supervision during or in connection with the operation in 2010. He instead was apprehended by an ICE Fugitive Operations Team at his Winchendon, Massachusetts residence on May 11, 2010, outside the specified dates of the operation.

20. Martin Lumingkewas did not surrender to ICE supervision during or in connection with the operation in 2010. He was not the subject of a final administrative order of removal at that time, which precluded him from participating in the program.

21. Meivie Lumingkewas did not surrender to ICE supervision during or in connection with the operation in 2010. She was not the subject of a final administrative order of removal at that time, which precluded her from participating in the surrender program.

22. Additionally, I have been provided the names of 11 more aliens, whom I understand to have been added as plaintiffs in this lawsuit, and as to whom I understand it has been alleged that each surrendered to ICE supervision during or in connection with the August-September 2010 operation. These additional 11 aliens whose names I have been provided are:

Antouw, Roy

Walandow, Debby

Budhidardjo, Arnold

Budhihardjo, Virake

Eman, Michael

Rimper, Hesti

Mambo, Greace a/k/a Rawung, Greace

Mambo, Sonny

Panjaitan, Eddy

Sinaga, Linaria

Pentury, Christian

23. Upon review of the files relating to these 11 aliens, I can report that the following persons in fact did not surrender to ICE supervision during or in connection with the operation:

Hesti Rimper

Michael Eman

Eddy Panjaitan

Linaria Sinaga

24. Hesti Rimper did not surrender to ICE supervision during or in connection with the operation in 2010. She instead was apprehended by an ICE Fugitive Operations Team at her Dover, New Hampshire residence on May 20, 2010, outside the specified dates of the operation.

25. Michael Eman did not surrender to ICE supervision during or in connection with the operation in 2010. He instead was apprehended by an ICE Fugitive Operations Team at his Dover, New Hampshire residence on May 20, 2010, outside the specified dates of the operation.

26. Eddy Panjaitan did not surrender to ICE supervision during or in connection with the operation in 2010. He was not the subject of a final administrative order of removal at that time, which precluded him from participating in the program.

27. Linaria Sinaga did not surrender to ICE supervision during or in connection with the operation in 2010. She was not the subject of a final administrative order of removal at that time, which precluded her from participating in the program.

28. In my tenure as a Supervisory Detention and Deportation Officer stationed at the Manchester, New Hampshire, ICE office, I have never encountered any ICE stay of removal granted to any alien that did not have a stated date on which the stay terminated.

29. In my review of the stays granted for those aliens who surrendered to ICE supervision during the operation in 2010, I have discovered no ICE stay of removal granted to any alien that did not have a stated termination date of the stay.

30. Based upon my supervisory experience in the Manchester, New Hampshire, ICE office regarding the operation in 2010 and the processing of respondents, their orders of supervision, and the related adjudications of stay requests, it is my understanding and belief that no representations or assurances of entitlements to future grants of ICE stays of removal were ever made to any of the 91 Indonesian aliens who initially surrendered to ICE supervision, beyond the assurance of an initial 90-day de facto stay of removal to allow for the filing with ICE of a Form I-246 Application for Stay of Removal.

31. Except for Terry Rombot, none of the 24 named plaintiffs identified in Paragraphs 16 and 20 above is currently detained by ICE.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Passengers for most domestic flights are required to carry on baggage certain smoking materials carried on your person.

Certain items are required to be carried with you onboard the aircraft. For example, spare lithium batteries for portable electronic devices, cigarette lighters and e-cigarettes must be removed from checked or gate-checked baggage and carried onboard the aircraft. However, e-cigarettes may not be used on-board the aircraft.

Traveling with medical oxygen, liquid oxygen, mobility aids and other sensitive devices may require airline pre-approval or be restricted from carriage entirely. Passengers requiring these items should contact the airline operator for information on use of such devices.

Electronic tickets are NOT TRANSFERABLE. Tickets with nonrestrictive fares are valid for one year from original date of issue. If you have questions regarding our refund policy, please visit www.aa.com/refunds.

To change your reservation, please call 1-800-433-7300 and refer to your record locator.

Check-in lines will vary by departure location. In order to determine the time you need to check-in at the airport, please visit www.aa.com/airportexpectations.

If you are traveling internationally, please ensure that you have the proper documentation. All necessary travel documents for the countries being visited must be presented at airport check-in. Check with the consulate of these countries to determine the documents required. Additional information can be found at International Travel.

We place limitations on checked baggage and boxes on some flights to Mexico, the Caribbean and Latin America. To confirm what you can take on your journey please see Baggage Limitations.

Air transportation on American Airlines and the American Eagle carriers® is subject to American's conditions of carriage.

NOTICE OF INCORPORATED TERMS OF CONTRACT

Air Transportation, whether it is domestic or international (including domestic portions of international journeys), is subject to the individual terms of the transporting air carriers, which are herein incorporated by reference and made part of the contract of carriage. Other carriers on which you may be ticketed may have different conditions of carriage. International air transportation, including the carrier's liability, may also be governed by applicable tariffs on file with the U.S. and other governments and by the Warsaw Convention, as amended, or by the Montreal Convention. Incorporated terms may include, but are not restricted to: 1. Rules and limits on liability for personal injury or death, 2. Rules and limits on liability for baggage, including fragile or perishable goods, and availability of excess valuation charges, 3. Claim restrictions, including time periods in which passengers must file a claim or bring an action against the air carrier, 4. Rights on the air carrier to change terms of the contract, 5. Rules on reconfirmation of reservations, check-in times and refusal to carry, 6. Rights of the air carrier and limits on liability for delay or failure to perform service, including schedule changes, substitution of alternate air carriers or aircraft and rerouting.

You can obtain additional information on items 1 through 6 above at any U.S. location where the transporting air carrier's tickets are sold. You have the right to inspect the full text of each transporting air carrier's terms at its airport and city ticket offices. You also have the right, upon request, to receive (free of charge) the full text of the applicable terms incorporated by reference from each of the transporting air carriers. Information on ordering the full text of each air carrier's terms is available at any U.S. location where the air carrier's tickets are sold or you can click on the Conditions of Carriage button below.

Carry-on baggage. For most items, carry-on baggage is limited to 100 cubic inches (1,583 cubic centimeters) and certain smoking materials carried on your person.

Certain items are required to be carried with you onboard the aircraft. For example, spare lithium batteries for portable electronic devices, cigarette lighters and e-cigarettes must be removed from checked or gate-checked baggage and carried onboard the aircraft. However, e-cigarettes may not be used on-board the aircraft.

Traveling with medical oxygen, liquid oxygen, mobility aids and other assistive devices may require airline prior approval or be restricted from carriage entirely. Passengers requiring these items should contact the airline operator for information on use of such devices.

Electronic tickets are NOT TRANSFERABLE. Tickets with nonrestrictive fares are valid for one year from original date of issue. If you have questions regarding our refund policy, please visit www.aa.com/refunds.

To change your reservation, please call 1-800-433-7300 and refer to your record locator.

Check-in lines will vary by departure location. In order to determine the time you need to check-in at the airport, please visit www.aa.com/airportexpectations.

If you are traveling internationally, please ensure that you have the proper documentation. All necessary travel documents for the countries being visited must be presented at airport check-in. Check with the consulate of these countries to determine the documents required. Additional information can be found at International Travel.

We place limitations on checked baggage and boxes on some flights to Mexico, the Caribbean and Latin America. To confirm what you can take on your journey please see Baggage Limitations.

Air transportation on American Airlines and the American Eagle carriers® is subject to American's conditions of carriage.

NOTICE OF INCORPORATED TERMS OF CONTRACT

Air Transportation, whether it is domestic or international (including domestic portions of international journeys), is subject to the individual terms of the transporting air carriers, which are herein incorporated by reference and made part of the contract of carriage. Other carriers on which you may be ticketed may have different conditions of carriage. International air transportation, including the carrier's liability, may also be governed by applicable tariffs on file with the U.S. and other governments and by the Warsaw Convention, as amended, or by the Montreal Convention. Incorporated terms may include, but are not restricted to: 1. Rules and limits on liability for personal injury or death, 2. Rules and limits on liability for baggage, including fragile or perishable goods, and availability of excess valuation charges, 3. Claim restrictions, including time periods in which passengers must file a claim or bring an action against the air carrier, 4. Rights on the air carrier to change terms of the contract, 5. Rules on reconfirmation of reservations, check-in times and refusal to carry, 6. Rights of the air carrier and limits on liability for delay or failure to perform service, including schedule changes, substitution of alternate air carriers or aircraft and rerouting.

You can obtain additional information on items 1 through 6 above at any U.S. location where the transporting air carrier's tickets are sold. You have the right to inspect the full text of each transporting air carrier's terms at its airport and city ticket offices. You also have the right, upon request, to receive (free of charge) the full text of the applicable terms incorporated by reference from each of the transporting air carriers. Information on ordering the full text of each air carrier's terms is available at any U.S. location where the air carrier's tickets are sold or you can click on the Conditions of Carriage button below.

TIMOTHY STEVENS

Pursuant to the authority of 28 U.S.C. § 1746, I, Timothy Stevens, a Supervisory Detention and Deportation Officer at the Manchester, New Hampshire, United States Immigration and Customs Enforcement office, Department of Homeland Security ("ICE"), declare as follows:

1. I am a Supervisory Detention & Deportation Officer with U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement, United States Department of Homeland Security (ICE-DHS). I have served in this position since August, 2008 and my office is located in Manchester, NH. My responsibilities include the knowledge and maintenance of alien registration files currently maintained by ICE-DHS. Specifically, I have knowledge of this case based on my review of the alien registration file and the applicable DHS records contained therein.
2. On 08/01/2017, the below-listed individual was instructed to return to the Manchester, NH, ICE office within thirty (30) days with airline tickets and an itinerary showing intended departure from the United States within sixty (60) days from the date the instruction was issued. Additionally, these instructions were translated and communicated to the individual in the Indonesian language by Reverend Sandra Pontoh. Lastly, the instructions were confirmed to be understood by the individual without any questions regarding their interpretation.
3. On 09/11/2017, the below-listed individual reported to the Manchester, NH ICE office with airline tickets and itinerary showing intended departure from the United States on 10/10/2017 at 1320 hours. The date of purchase listed on the tickets is 09/08/2017.

on 9/2/2010, you were ordered:
(Date of final order)

- Excluded or deported pursuant to proceedings commenced prior to April 1, 1997.
- Removed pursuant to proceedings commenced on or after April 1, 1997.

Because the Immigration and Customs Enforcement Office of Detention and Removal has not effected your deportation or removal during the period prescribed by law, it is ordered that you be placed under supervision and permitted to be at large under the following conditions:

- That you appear in person at the time and place specified, upon each and every request of the Immigration and Customs Enforcement Office of Detention and Removal, for identification and for deportation or removal.
- That upon request of the Immigration and Customs Enforcement Office of Detention and Removal, you appear for medical or psychiatric examination at the expense of the United States Government.
- That you provide information under oath about your nationality, circumstances, habits, associations, and activities and such other information as the Immigration and Customs Enforcement Office of Detention and Removal considers appropriate.
- That you do not travel outside the New England States / New York @ 9/3/2011 for more than 48 hours without first having notified the Immigration and Customs Enforcement Office of Detention and Removal office of the dates and places of such proposed travel.
(Specify geographic limits, if any)
- That you furnish written notice to Immigration and Customs Enforcement Office of Detention and Removal of any change of residence or employment within 48 hours of such change.
- That you report in person on November 10th at 9:00 am to this Service office at 811 Canal Street, Manchester New Hampshire unless you are granted written permission to report on another date.
- That you assist the Immigration and Customs Enforcement Office of Detention and Removal in obtaining any necessary travel documents.
- Other: Bring an interpreter in your native language

Dear MR. ANTOUW,

This is in response to the Application for Stay of Deportation or Removal which was filed with the Enforcement and Removal Operations Division of Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE).

I have reviewed your case and I-246 application and determined that there are extraordinary circumstances which warrant approval of your request.

Accordingly, as a matter of discretion your Application for Stay of Removal is hereby granted for a temporary period until November 21, 2013. The granting of this request does not confer any immigration status or benefit to you.

Sincerely,

Roy Antouw, [REDACTED]

Dear Mr. Antouw,

This is in response to your Application for a Stay of Deportation or Removal, which was filed with U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) on November 26, 2013.

After careful consideration of all the factors addressed in your request for a Stay of Deportation or Removal, it has been determined that the granting of such discretionary relief is warranted in this case. Therefore, your application for a Stay of Deportation or Removal is hereby approved for a period of one year, until February 16, 2015. At the end of that period, the status of your case will be reviewed for a determination of whether the removal order will be executed at that time.

Sincerely,

RE: Application for a Stay of Deportation or Removal
Roy Antouw; [REDACTED]

Dear Mr. Antouw:

This letter is in response to your I-246, Application for a Stay of Deportation or Removal, which was filed with U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) on January 22, 2015.

Prosecutorial discretion is the authority of an agency charged with enforcing a law to decide to what degree to enforce the law against a particular individual. ICE, like any other law enforcement agency, has prosecutorial discretion and may exercise it in the ordinary course of enforcement. These discretionary decisions take on different forms and include stays of deportation or removal. Such decisions are made on a case-by-case basis, after considering the totality of the circumstances, both positive and negative, and must conform with ICE's enforcement priorities, namely national security, public safety, and border security.

After careful consideration of all the factors addressed in your request for a Stay of Deportation or Removal, it has been determined that the granting of such discretionary relief is warranted in this case. Therefore, your application for a Stay of Deportation or Removal is hereby approved for a period of one year, until March 2, 2016. At the end of that period, the status of your case will be reviewed for a determination of whether the removal order will be executed at that time.

These discretionary decisions take on different forms and include stays of deportation or removal. Such decisions are made on a case-by-case basis, after considering the totality of the circumstances, both positive and negative, and must conform with ICE's enforcement priorities, namely national security, public safety, and border security.

I have carefully reviewed your file, as well as the factors addressed in the Application for a Stay of Deportation or Removal, and I have determined that the granting of such discretionary relief is not sufficiently warranted. The Application for a Stay of Deportation or Removal is hereby denied. There is no appeal from this decision.

Re: Application for a Stay of Deportation or Removal
Arnold Budihardjo, [REDACTED]

Dear Mr. Budihardjo:

This letter is in response to the filing of Form I-246, Application for a Stay of Deportation or Removal, with U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) on February 16, 2016.

Prosecutorial discretion is the authority of an agency charged with enforcing a law to decide to what degree to enforce the law against a particular individual. ICE, like any other law enforcement agency, has prosecutorial discretion and may exercise it in the ordinary course of enforcement. These discretionary decisions take on different forms and include stays of deportation or removal. Such decisions are made on a case-by-case basis, after considering the totality of the circumstances, both positive and negative, and must conform with ICE's enforcement priorities, namely national security, public safety, and border security.

After careful consideration of all the factors addressed in your Application for a Stay of Deportation or Removal, it has been determined that the granting of such discretionary relief is warranted in this case. Therefore, your Application for a Stay of Deportation or Removal is hereby approved for a period of one year, until March 17, 2017. At the end of that period, the status of your case will be reviewed for a determination of whether the removal order will be executed at that time.

Sincerely,

On 03/30/2008, you were ordered:
(Date of final order)

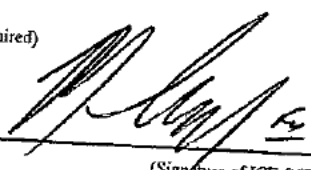

- Excluded or deported pursuant to proceedings commenced prior to April 1, 1997.
- Removed pursuant to proceedings commenced on or after April 1, 1997.

Because the Immigration and Customs Enforcement Office of Detention and Removal has not effected your deportation or removal during the period prescribed by law, it is ordered that you be placed under supervision and permitted to be at large under the following conditions:

- X] That you appear in person at the time and place specified, upon each and every request of the Immigration and Customs Enforcement Office of Detention and Removal, for identification and for deportation or removal.
-] That upon request of the Immigration and Customs Enforcement Office of Detention and Removal, you appear for medical or psychiatric examination at the expense of the United States Government.
-] That you provide information under oath about your nationality, circumstances, habits, associations, and activities and such other information as the Immigration and Customs Enforcement Office of Detention and Removal considers appropriate.
-] That you do not travel outside the New England States for more than 48 hours without first having notified the Immigration and Customs Enforcement Office of Detention and Removal of the dates and places of such proposed travel.
(Specify geographic limits, if any)
-] That you furnish written notice to Immigration and Customs Enforcement Office of Detention and Removal of any change of residence or employment within 48 hours of such change.
-] That you report in person on November 10th at 9:00 am to this Service office at 811 Canal Street, Manchester New Hampshire unless you are granted written permission to report on another date.
-] That you assist the Immigration and Customs Enforcement Office of Detention and Removal in obtaining any necessary travel documents.

Dear Sir / Madame,

The purpose of this letter is to inform you that this agency is not in possession of a valid travel document in your case as is required by the conditions of the Order of Supervision issued to you on 09-03-2010

Accordingly, on or before SEPTEMBER 1, 2012 you are required to provide Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) with a valid passport to facilitate travel in the event you are required to depart the United States. Failure to do so is a violation of your conditions of release and could result in your detention by this agency and immediate removal from the United States.

If you have any questions regarding this notice, you may contact the ICE Office in Manchester, NH @ 603-629- 2800. Please have your alien registration number ready to assist the officer with the review of specific information relative to your immigration case.

Michael Eman, A [REDACTED]

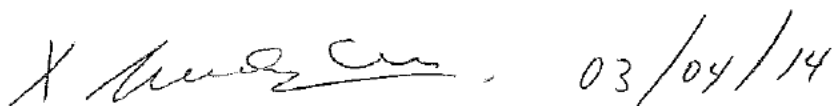

Dear Mr. Eman,

This is in response to your Application for a Stay of Deportation or Removal, which was filed with U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) on November 26, 2013.

After careful consideration of all the factors addressed in your request for a Stay of Deportation or Removal, it has been determined that the granting of such discretionary relief is warranted in this case. Therefore, your application for a Stay of Deportation or Removal is hereby approved for a period of one year, until February 16, 2015. At the end of that period, the status of your case will be reviewed for a determination of whether the removal order will be executed at that time.

Dear Mr. Eman:

This letter is in response to the filing of Form I-246, Application for a Stay of Deportation or Removal, with U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) on February 16, 2016.

Prosecutorial discretion is the authority of an agency charged with enforcing a law to decide to what degree to enforce the law against a particular individual. ICE, like any other law enforcement agency, has prosecutorial discretion and may exercise it in the ordinary course of enforcement. These discretionary decisions take on different forms and include stays of deportation or removal. Such decisions are made on a case-by-case basis, after considering the totality of the circumstances, both positive and negative, and must conform with ICE's enforcement priorities, namely national security, public safety, and border security.

After careful consideration of all the factors addressed in your Application for a Stay of Deportation or Removal, it has been determined that the granting of such discretionary relief is warranted in this case. Therefore, your Application for a Stay of Deportation or Removal is hereby approved for a period of one year, until March 17, 2017. At the end of that period, the status of your case will be reviewed for a determination of whether the removal order will be executed at that time.

Ms. Grasje:

This letter is in response to the filing of Form I-246, Application for a Stay of Deportation or Removal, with U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) on December 29, 2015.

Prosecutorial discretion is the authority of an agency charged with enforcing a law to decide to what degree to enforce the law against a particular individual. ICE, like any other law enforcement agency, has prosecutorial discretion and may exercise it in the ordinary course of enforcement. These discretionary decisions take on different forms and include stays of deportation or removal. Such decisions are made on a case-by-case basis, after considering the totality of the circumstances, both positive and negative, and must conform with ICE's enforcement priorities, namely national security, public safety, and border security.

In your Application you request discretionary relief on your belief that you may be eligible for Deferred Action for Parental Accountability (DAPA). On February 16, 2015, a federal district court in Texas granted a preliminary injunction temporarily blocking the implementation of DAPA. Accordingly, ICE is precluded from examining your eligibility under DAPA.

However, after careful consideration of the other factors addressed in your Application for a Stay of Deportation or Removal, it has been determined that the granting of such discretionary relief is sufficiently warranted. Therefore, your Application for a Stay of Deportation or Removal is hereby approved for a period of one year, until January 1, 2017. At the end of that period, the status of your case will be reviewed for a determination of whether the removal order will be executed at that time.

Dear Mr. KURNIAWAN

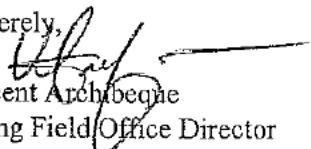

This is in response to the Application for Stay of Deportation or Removal filed by you dated November 26, 2010.

You are a native and citizen of INDONESIA who entered the United States on June 21, 1997. In February of 2003, you were issued a Notice to Appear charging you with being removable from the United States pursuant to Section 237 (a)(1)(B) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (ACT). On March 28, 2006 the Immigration Judge (IJ) in Boston, MA ordered you removed from the United States to Indonesia, a decision which you appealed to the Board of Immigration Appeals (BIA). On September 5, 2007, the BIA dismissed your appeal and affirmed the IJ's order of removal. You filed a Petition for Review with the First Circuit Court of Appeals which was denied on August 28, 2008.

You are now requesting ICE to exercise favorable discretionary relief from removal based on participation in Operation Indonesian Surrender; a joint effort between the Boston Field Office of ICE-ERO, community leaders within the Indonesian community, Strafford County Sheriffs Office and ICE Headquarters.

In weighing the factors in your case, I have concluded that the favorable exercise of discretion is not merited. Currently, there is no administrative relief available to you and this office will not consider any claimed eligibility for future relief from removal that must be addressed by the EOIR/BIA. In addition, your application fails to present any new facts or substantial equities that have not already been considered in your case that would warrant the granting of your application. Lastly, I am satisfied that you have been accorded due process of law and afforded every opportunity to apply for relief from removal throughout the proceeding. Therefore, after careful consideration, your request for a stay of deportation or removal is hereby denied as a matter of discretion. Due to your voluntary participation with Operation Indonesian Surrender, ICE will grant you a period of 90 days from the date of this order in which to settle your affairs and complete your departure from the United States.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. KURNIAWAN:

This is in response to your Application for a Stay of Deportation or Removal, which was filed with U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) on November 26, 2013.

After careful consideration of all the factors addressed in your request for a Stay of Deportation or Removal, it has been determined that the granting of such discretionary relief is warranted in this case. Therefore, your application for a Stay of Deportation or Removal is hereby approved until February 17, 2015. At the end of that period, the status of your case will be reviewed for a determination of whether the removal order will be executed at that time.

Dear Mr. Kurniawan:

This letter is in response to your I-246, Application for a Stay of Deportation or Removal, which was filed with U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) on January 23, 2015.

Prosecutorial discretion is the authority of an agency charged with enforcing a law to decide to what degree to enforce the law against a particular individual. ICE, like any other law enforcement agency, has prosecutorial discretion and may exercise it in the ordinary course of enforcement. These discretionary decisions take on different forms and include stays of deportation or removal. Dear Mr. Lumangkun,

This is in response to the Application for Stay of Deportation or Removal which was filed with the Enforcement and Removal Operations Division of Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE).

I have reviewed your case and I-246 application. I have determined that there are extraordinary circumstances which warrant approval of your request.

Accordingly, as a matter of discretion your Application for Stay of Removal is hereby granted for a temporary period until September 7, 2013. The granting of this request does not confer any immigration status or benefit to you.

Sincerely,

for Dorothy Herrera-Niles

A [REDACTED]

Dear Mr. LUMANGKUN,

This is in response to your Application for a Stay of Deportation or Removal, which was filed with U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) on July 16, 2014.

After careful consideration of all the factors addressed in your request for a Stay of Deportation or Removal, it has been determined that the granting of such discretionary relief is warranted in this case. Therefore, your application for a Stay of Deportation or Removal is hereby approved until December 7, 2015. At the end of that period, the status of your case will be reviewed for a determination of whether the removal order will be executed at that time.

Sincerely,

Sean Gallagher

Re: Application for a Stay of Deportation or Removal

Mr. Lumangkun:

This letter is in response to the filing of Form I-246, Application for a Stay of Deportation or Removal, with U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) on December 29, 2015.

Prosecutorial discretion is the authority of an agency charged with enforcing a law to decide to what degree to enforce the law against a particular individual. ICE, like any other law enforcement agency, has prosecutorial discretion and may exercise it in the ordinary course of enforcement. These discretionary decisions take on different forms and include stays of deportation or removal. Such decisions are made on a case-by-case basis, after considering the totality of the circumstances, both positive and negative, and must conform with ICE's enforcement priorities, namely national security, public safety, and border security.

In your Application you request discretionary relief on your belief that you may be eligible for Deferred Action for Parental Accountability (DAPA). On February 16, 2015, a federal district court in Texas granted a preliminary injunction temporarily blocking the implementation of DAPA. Accordingly, ICE is precluded from examining your eligibility under DAPA.

However, after careful consideration of the other factors addressed in your Application for a Stay of Deportation or Removal, it has been determined that the granting of such discretionary relief is sufficiently warranted. Therefore, your Application for a Stay of Deportation or Removal is hereby approved for a period of one year, until January 12, 2017. At the end of that period, the status of your case will be reviewed for a determination of whether the removal order will be executed at that time.

Sincerely,

Re: Application for a Stay of Deportation or Removal
Martin Luminkewas, A [REDACTED]

Dear Mr. Luminkewas:

This letter is in response to the filing of Form I-246, Application for a Stay of Deportation or Removal, with U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) on May 17, 2017.

Prosecutorial discretion is the authority of an agency charged with enforcing a law to decide to what degree to enforce the law against a particular individual. ICE, like any other law enforcement agency, has prosecutorial discretion and may exercise it in the ordinary course of enforcement. These discretionary decisions take on different forms and include stays of deportation or removal. Such decisions are made on a case-by-case basis, after considering the totality of the circumstances, both positive and negative, and must conform with ICE's enforcement priorities, namely national security, public safety, and border security.

I have carefully reviewed your file, as well as the factors addressed in the Application for a Stay of Deportation or Removal, and I have determined that the granting of such discretionary relief is not sufficiently warranted. The Application for a Stay of Deportation or Removal is hereby denied. There is no appeal from this decision.

Sincerely,

Re: Application for a Stay of Deportation or Removal
Eddy Panjaitan, A [REDACTED]

Dear Mr. Panjaitan:

This letter is in response to the filing of Form I-246, Application for a Stay of Deportation or Removal, with U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) on February 03, 2017.

Prosecutorial discretion is the authority of an agency charged with enforcing a law to decide to what degree to enforce the law against a particular individual. ICE, like any other law enforcement agency, has prosecutorial discretion and may exercise it in the ordinary course of enforcement. These discretionary decisions take on different forms and include stays of deportation or removal. Such decisions are made on a case-by-case basis, after considering the totality of the circumstances, both positive and negative, and must conform with ICE's enforcement priorities, namely national security, public safety, and border security.

I have carefully reviewed your file, as well as the factors addressed in the Application for a Stay of Deportation or Removal, and I have determined that the granting of such discretionary relief is not sufficiently warranted. The Application for a Stay of Deportation or Removal is hereby denied. There is no appeal from this decision.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Panjaitan:

This letter is in response to the filing of Form I-246, Application for a Stay of Deportation or Removal, with U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) on February 16, 2016.

Prosecutorial discretion is the authority of an agency charged with enforcing a law to decide to what degree to enforce the law against a particular individual. ICE, like any other law enforcement agency, has prosecutorial discretion and may exercise it in the ordinary course of enforcement. These discretionary decisions take on different forms and include stays of deportation or removal. Such decisions are made on a case-by-case basis, after considering the totality of the circumstances, both positive and negative, and must conform with ICE's enforcement priorities, namely national security, public safety, and border security.

After careful consideration of all the factors addressed in your Application for a Stay of Deportation or Removal, it has been determined that the granting of such discretionary relief is warranted in this case. Therefore, your Application for a Stay of Deportation or Removal is hereby approved for a period of one year, until March 17, 2017. At the end of that period, the status of your case will be reviewed for a determination of whether the removal order will be executed at that time.

Re: Application for Stay of Deportation or Removal
Eddy PANJAITAN, A9 [REDACTED]

Dear Mr. Panjaitan:

This is in response to your I-246, Application for Stay of Deportation or Removal, which was filed with U.S. Immigration & Customs Enforcement (ICE) on November 12, 2013.

Prosecutorial discretion is the authority of an agency charged with enforcing a law to decide to what degree to enforce the law against a particular individual. ICE, like any other law enforcement agency, has prosecutorial discretion and may exercise it in the ordinary course of enforcement. These discretionary decisions take on different forms and include stays of deportation or removal. Such decisions are made on a case-by-case basis, after considering the totality of the circumstances, both positive and negative, and must conform with ICE's enforcement priorities, namely national security, public safety, and border security.

In your Application for a Stay of Deportation or Removal, you address a number of factors in support of this application, mainly you have cited that you have two children born in the United States and the hardship deportation would cause to your children.

After careful consideration of all the factors addressed in your request for a Stay of Deportation or Removal, it has been determined that the granting of such discretionary relief is warranted in this case. Therefore, your stay is hereby approved for one year, until February 6, 2015. At the end of that period, the status of your case will be reviewed for a determination of whether the removal order will be executed at that time.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. PENTURY,

This is in response to the Application for Stay of Deportation or Removal filed by you dated November 3, 2010.

You are a native and citizen of INDONESIA who entered the United States on April 26, 1997 as a non-immigrant. In 2003, you were issued a Notice to Appear charging you with being removable from the United States pursuant to Section 237 (a)(1)(B) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (ACT). On March 30, 2004 the Immigration Judge (IJ) in Boston, MA granted you Voluntary Departure, a decision which you appealed to the Board of Immigration Appeals (BIA). On August 22, 2005, the BIA dismissed your appeal and affirmed the IJ's order. As a result, your voluntary departure period was extended for 60 days until October 22, 2005, however, you have failed to leave the U.S. as ordered.

You are now requesting ICE to exercise favorable discretionary relief from removal to allow new counsel to adequately assess your case and pursue an appropriate form of relief from removal. However, in weighing the factors in your case, I have concluded that the favorable exercise of discretion is not merited. Currently, there is no administrative relief available to you and this office will not consider any claimed eligibility for future relief from removal that must be addressed by the EOIR/BIA. In addition, your application fails to present any new facts or substantial equities that have not already been considered in your case that would warrant the granting of your application. Lastly, I am satisfied that you have been accorded due process of law and afforded every opportunity to apply for relief from removal throughout your immigration proceeding. Therefore, after careful consideration, your request for a stay of deportation or removal is hereby denied as a matter of discretion. Due to your voluntary participation with Operation Indonesian Surrender, ICE will grant you a period of 90 days from the date of this order in which to settle your affairs and complete your departure from the United States.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Pentury,

This is in response to the Application for Stay of Deportation or Removal filed by you on September 27, 2012.

You are a native and citizen of Indonesia who entered the United States in October of 1997 as a non-immigrant visitor. A review of your agency case file shows that you have been ordered to depart the United States (U.S.) by an Immigration Judge, the Board of Immigration Appeals, and the 1st Circuit Court of Appeals. To afford you an opportunity to address the medical care of your father, Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) granted a temporary stay of removal to you on February 7, 2012 that was set to expire in November of 2012. Most recently, you filed a new I-246 application on September 27, 2012 requesting additional time to remain in the U.S. to continue caring for your father as referenced in your previous I-246 applications filed in 2010 and 2012.

Following a thorough review of all the evidence regarding your case, I have concluded that a continued stay of removal in your case is not merited. I am satisfied that you have been accorded due process of law and afforded every opportunity to apply for relief from removal throughout your immigration proceeding. Therefore, after careful consideration, your latest request for a stay of deportation or removal is hereby denied as a matter of discretion. Due to your voluntary participation with Operation Indonesian Surrender, you are granted 30 days from the date of this letter to provide this agency with tickets and an itinerary showing your intended departure from the U.S. on or before April 1, 2013.

Re: Application for a Stay of Deportation or Removal
Hesti Rimper, A [REDACTED]

Dear Ms. Rimper:

This letter is in response to the filing of Form I-246, Application for a Stay of Deportation or Removal, with U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) on April 22, 2016.

Prosecutorial discretion is the authority of an agency charged with enforcing a law to decide to what degree to enforce the law against a particular individual. ICE, like any other law enforcement agency, has prosecutorial discretion and may exercise it in the ordinary course of enforcement. These discretionary decisions take on different forms and include stays of deportation or removal. Such decisions are made on a case-by-case basis, after considering the totality of the circumstances, both positive and negative, and must conform with ICE's enforcement priorities, namely national security, public safety, and border security.

After careful consideration of all the factors addressed in your Application for a Stay of Deportation or Removal, it has been determined that the granting of such discretionary relief is warranted in this case. Therefore, your Application for a Stay of Deportation or Removal is hereby approved for a period of one year, until May 1, 2017. At the end of that period, the status of your case will be reviewed for a determination of whether the removal order will be executed at that time.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Rombot,

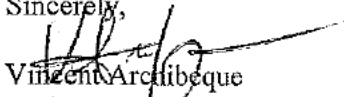

This is in response to the Application for Stay of Deportation or Removal filed by you dated November 9, 2010.

You are a native and citizen of INDONESIA who entered the United States on February 20, 2001. In 2003, you were issued a Notice to Appear charging you with being removable from the United States pursuant to Section 237 (a)(1)(B) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (ACT). On October 23, 2006 the Immigration Judge (IJ) in Boston, MA granted you Voluntary Departure (VD), a decision which you appealed to the Board of Immigration Appeals (BIA). On April 29, 2008, the BIA dismissed your appeal and affirmed the IJ's order of removal extending your VD departure date for an additional 60 days

You are now requesting ICE to exercise favorable discretionary relief from removal based on participation in Operation Indonesian Surrender; a joint effort between the Boston Field Office of ICE-ERO, community leaders within the Indonesian community, Strafford County Sheriffs Office and ICE Headquarters.

In weighing the factors in your case, I have concluded that the favorable exercise of discretion is not merited. Currently, there is no administrative relief available to you and this office will not consider any claimed eligibility for future relief from removal that must be addressed by the EOIR/BIA. In addition, your application fails to present any new facts or substantial equities that have not already been considered in your case that would warrant the granting of your application. Lastly, I am satisfied that you have been accorded due process of law and afforded every opportunity to apply for relief from removal throughout the proceeding. Therefore, after careful consideration, your request for a stay of deportation or removal is hereby denied as a matter of discretion. Due to your voluntary participation with Operation Indonesian Surrender, ICE will grant you a period of 90 days from the date of this order in which to settle your affairs and complete your departure from the United States.

Sincerely,

Vincent Archibeque

Dear Mr. Rombot,

This letter is in response to your Application for a Stay of Deportation or Removal, which was filed with U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) on May 08, 2015.

Prosecutorial discretion is the authority of an agency charged with enforcing a law to decide to what degree to enforce the law against a particular individual. ICE, like any other law enforcement agency, has prosecutorial discretion and may exercise it in the ordinary course of enforcement. Linaria SINAGA, AS [REDACTED]

Dear Ms. Sinaga:

This is in response to your I-246, Application for Stay of Deportation or Removal, which was filed with U.S. Immigration & Customs Enforcement (ICE) on November 12, 2013.

Prosecutorial discretion is the authority of an agency charged with enforcing a law to decide to what degree to enforce the law against a particular individual. ICE, like any other law enforcement agency, has prosecutorial discretion and may exercise it in the ordinary course of enforcement. These discretionary decisions take on different forms and include stays of deportation or removal. Such decisions are made on a case-by-case basis, after considering the totality of the circumstances, both positive and negative, and must conform with ICE's enforcement priorities, namely national security, public safety, and border security.

In your Application for a Stay of Deportation or Removal, you address a number of factors in support of this application, mainly you have cited that you have two children born in the United States and the hardship deportation would cause to your children.

After careful consideration of all the factors addressed in your request for a Stay of Deportation or Removal, it has been determined that the granting of such discretionary relief is warranted in this case. Therefore, your stay is hereby approved for one year, until February 6, 2015. At the end of that period, the status of your case will be reviewed for a determination of whether the removal order will be executed at that time.

Sincerely,

Re: Application for a Stay of Deportation or Removal

A [REDACTED]

Dear Mr. Sombah:

This letter is in response to the filing of Form I-246, Application for a Stay of Deportation or Removal, with U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE), on January 26, 2015.

Prosecutorial discretion is the authority of an agency charged with enforcing a law to decide to what degree to enforce the law against a particular individual. ICE, like any other law enforcement agency, has prosecutorial discretion and may exercise it in the ordinary course of enforcement. These discretionary decisions take on different forms and include stays of deportation or removal. Such decisions are made on a case-by-case basis, after considering the totality of the circumstances, both positive and negative, and must conform with ICE's enforcement priorities, namely national security, public safety, and border security.

After careful consideration of all the factors addressed in your request for a Stay of Deportation or Removal, it has been determined that the granting of such discretionary relief is warranted in this case. Therefore, your Application for a Stay of Deportation or Removal is hereby approved for a period of one year, until February 22, 2016. At the end of that period, the status of your case will be reviewed for a determination of whether the removal order will be executed at that time.
