01/14/2019	58	PAPERLESS ORDER MEMORIALIZING today's hearing as follows: The parties will submit simultaneous briefs of 15 pages or less by Tuesday, February 22, 2019 to address the questions asked in Court today. Defendants will include in their submission the support for the facts they raised in their argument regarding changes in Census preparation that moot portions of Plaintiffs' allegations and that are appropriate for the Court to consider under Rule 12(b)(1) or 12(b)(6). Defendants also will include cases decided in their favor on motions to dismiss and will address the notion of the still uncertain funding for the Bureau beyond February 2019. Plaintiffs will identify cases in which the injury that was the subject of relief did not involve representation in the House but rather monetary consequences and reference any case they rely on that was a successful pre-census challenge to the procedures the Secretary planned to conduct the census. Plaintiffs also will address whether Maryland has lost any representation in the prior three censuses as a result of the undercounts they pleaded. Signed by Judge Paul W. Grimm on 1/14/19. (Imys, Chambers) (Entered: 01/14/2019)

05/02/2019	99	PAPERLESS ORDER: In their letter 97 , Plaintiffs raise concerns about whether Defendants will meet their obligation to respond timely (by May 6, 2019) to some of Plaintiffs' document production requests, as well as concerns that the parties have not agreed to a schedule for rolling production after May 6. Given that May 6 has not passed, Defendants' production is not untimely. Defendants are reminded that the Discovery Order 84 requires more than just compliance with Court deadlines and substantive discovery obligations; it also requires effective communication and cooperation between the parties. Plaintiffs understandably are seeking some information about what they may expect to receive by May 6 and what Defendants expect to provide at a later date. I can think of no reason why it would be disadvantageous for Defendants to give Plaintiffs an indication of what to expect as of May 6. Indeed, doing so would be the hallmark of cooperation.
