08/07/2019	340	Judge Mark L. Wolf: ORDER entered. re 301 Parties' Joint Statement, It is hereby ORDERED that: 1. Within the first seven days of each month, respondents shall provide to class counsel a spreadsheet of class members checking in with the Boston office of U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement ("ICE-Boston") during the prior month. That spreadsheet shall include the following information: (a) name; (b) alien number; (c) date of check-in; (d) whether any Form I-130, I- 212, or I-601A filed by or on behalf of the class member is approved, denied, or pending with U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services ("USCIS"), not including any filing, approval, or denial date; (e) a yes or no column indicating whether the class member has criminal history; (f) the date of the next scheduled check in; (g) additional instructions given to the class member at his or her check-in if applicable; {h} attorney of record name and contact information if the attorney has filed a Form G-28 with ICE or the Immigration Court, and (i) status of any application for any filed I-246, Application for a Stay of Deportation or Removal.

2. Within the first seven days of each month, Respondents shall provide a spreadsheet to class counsel of class members detained by ICE-Boston during the prior month, including individuals who became class members after they were detained (the "monthly detention report"). That spreadsheet shall include the following information: (a) name; (b) alien number; (c) date detained; (d) whether any Form I-130, I-212, or I-601A filed by or on behalf of the class member is approved, denied, or pending with users, not including any filing, approval, or denial date; (e) date of the final order of removal as determined by ICE Boston; (f) status of any filed Form I-246, Application for a Stay of Deportation or Removal; (g) a yes or no column indicating whether the class member has criminal history; (h) attorney of record name and contact information if a Form G-28 has been filed with ICE or the Immigration Court; (i) country of origin; (j) Order of Supervision Revocation date, if applicable; (k) date of last Post Order Custody Review Notice and any Decision, if applicable; (l) whether the class members' potential eligibility to apply for a Form I-601A was considered by ICE Boston; and (m) the title of the individual who made the final decision to effectuate the removal of the class member.

3. Contemporaneous with the monthly detention report, respondents shall also provide to class counsel, a copy of any Notice of Revocation of Release, Notice to Alien of File Custody Review, and Post Order Custody Review Decision for each class member ICE-Boston detains, if applicable.

4. Within five business days of the detention of a class member, respondents shall notify class counsel that a class member has been detained. If an individual becomes a class member after he or she is detained, respondents shall notify class counsel within five business days of identifying the individual as a class member. Such notice must only include the detained alien's name, alien number, country of origin, and a statement that the person is being considered for removal and has been given the Class Notice attached as Exhibit A hereto.

5. Respondents shall provide petitioners' counsel with notice of any decision to effectuate a class member's removal, as previously ordered on June 28, 2019. See Docket No. 295 at paragraph 4. Such notice shall include the information described sections (a)-(m) of the monthly detention report, and a brief narrative description of what factors and information were considered in making the decision to remove the class member. This narrative description shall be comparable to the narrative description provided in the spreadsheet contained in Docket Number 291-1.

6. ICE-Boston shall distribute the Class Notice attached as Exhibit A to (a) class members checking in with ICE-Boston when the alien appears at an ICE office for their next in-person check in; (b) class members currently detained by ICE-Boston; (c) class members who are subsequently arrested or detained by ICE after the issuance of this order; and (d) class members whose application for a stay of removal (Form I-246) has been adjudicated, if the official adjudicating the request knows that the individual is a class member based on the information submitted in the application.

7. Petitioners shall provide respondents with translations of the Class Notice in at least Spanish and Portuguese, and may provide respondents with translations in other languages as well. Respondents shall provide the Class Notice to class members in English and in any other language for which petitioners have provided a translation that the class member speaks or reads.
