05/11/2017	147	ORDER granting 146 Joint MOTION to Amend/Correct/Modify 142 Order on Motion to Amend/Correct/Modify, 124 Scheduling Order to Extend Discovery Deadlines. The Court advises the parties, however, that on this schedule, it is unlikely that they will receive a ruling on any dispositive motion filed on November 20, 2017. The briefing, which would span the holidays, would be completed at or shortly before the time of trial. At most, and even that is unlikely, the Court would gavel grant or deny. So, the Court suggests that the parties save themselves the time or effort involved in what would likely be a futile effort. By Judge R. Brooke Jackson on 5/11/17. Text Only Entry (rbjsec.) 04/10/2018	210	ORDER denying 201 MOTION for Leave to File Supplemental Complaint. Denied without prejudice. Despite plaintiff's contention that the Proposed Supplemental Complaint only updates the complaint to take into account his recent transfer, the Court interprets it as raising new issues dating back to 2015 that were not previously pled. This is a very old case, and after the Court's ruling on defendant's motion to dismiss the issues remaining focused on the BOP's alleged (1) failure to provide medications at certain times during Sunnah fasts; (2) lack of access to a Halal diet with Halal meat; and (3) a lack of meaningful access to an imam on a weekly basis. See ECF No 111 at 5, 7-9. It is not clear to the Court how the transfer of the plaintiff to a different BOP facility has changed the thrust of those three claims. If he is not being provided the those things in the new facility, then it would seem that the complaint is not moot. If ADX's revised pill line procedures that caused plaintiff's complaint about administration of medications during Ramadan to be moot, see id., no longer apply in the new facility, then that claim is no longer moot. If he is being provided all those things at the new facility, then his claims are moot. Thus, I agree that the defendant cannot automatically moot the complaint by transferring the plaintiff to a different facility and arguing that the claims focused solely on the ADX. Of course they did, because that's where he was, but this Court's focus in on the substance of what he claims to have been denied and whether the denial violated his constitutional rights. I do not understand how the transfer affects this Court's jurisdiction in any way. It appears that neither party is fully aware, as yet, whether and to what degree those claims apply to his situation in the new facility. It might be appropriate to supplement or amend the complaint to adjust to the new facility so long as the focus remains specifically on the three items that survived the motion to dismiss (or four if the Ramadan issue is no longer moot). But the Proposed Supplemental Complaint asserts new facts and issues dating back to 2015, particularly concerning the legitimacy of transfers of the plaintiff inside and outside the ADX facility. If the plaintiff wishes to challenge his transfers within or without the ADX facility(despite his apparent request for a transfer), or raise other issues concerning his constitutional rights, then he will need to pursue those new claims in a different lawsuit. 08/20/2018	267	ORDER denying 261 Emergency MOTION to Continue Trial and Request for Telephonic Hearing. The Court ordinarily grants requests for a continuance based upon illness of counsel. This is an exception. First, continuing the trial to accommodate the defendant would also have the effect of denying the plaintiff the opportunity to have his lead counsel try the case. Second, defendant has other experienced counsel on its trial team. Third, to the extent that an additional trial lawyer is needed on the defense side, the Court believes that there are many other lawyers in the U.S. Attorney's Office who would be interested in "dropping everything" and getting trial experience. Fourth, the remaining issues in the case are not complex. Fifth, for a variety of reasons, this case is more than three years old, and both sides need closure on it. By Judge R. Brooke Jackson on 8/20/18. Text Only Entry (rbjsec.) (Entered: 08/20/2018)
