«Case 5:03-cv-011 7-RT-SGL Document 24

I. INTRODUCTION

On September 05, 2003, Plaintiff U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission ("EEOC" or "Commission") filed a federal lawsuit against Rivera Vineyards, et al., ("Defendants"), entitled EEOC v. Rivera Vineyards, Inc. d/b/a Blas Rivera Vineyards; Linda Vineyards, Inc.; BR Company; and Oasis Distributing; and Does 1-10 Inclusively, Case Number EDCV 03-01117 RT (SGL), to correct unlawful employment practices. Specifically, the EEOC alleged that Defendants subjected Virginia Mejia, Rosario Taylor, and other similarly situated women to sexual harassment. The EEOC also alleged that Defendants unlawfully subjected Ms. Mejia, Ms. Taylor, and other similar situated individuals to retaliation for engaging in a protected activity of opposing the sexual harassment by subjecting them to termination and/or for failing to recall them to work. The EEOC further alleged that the Defendant subjected women to sex discrimination by segregating and prohibiting women from working certain positions, such as pruning, girdling, irrigation, and other positions. The Defendants deny all of the accusations.

The EEOC and the Defendants hereby stipulate and agree to entry of this Consent Decree ("Decree") to resolve the Commission's Complaint under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, 42 U.S.C. Section 2000e et seq. ("Title VII"), and Title I of the Civil Rights Act of 1991, 42 U.S.C. Section 1981a on behalf of the aggrieved claimants identified above.

II. PURPOSES OF THIS DECREE

A. In the interest of resolving this matter, and as a result of having engaged in comprehensive settlement negotiations, the EEOC, Rivera Vineyards, Inc., Linda Vineyards, Inc., BR Company and Oasis Distributing, (hereinafter collectively referred to as "the Parties") have agreed that this action should be finally resolved by entry of this Decree. This Decree shall be binding on and enforceable against all the parties, including Defendants and its officers, directors, agents, successors, and assigns.

B. The Parties have entered into this Decree for the following purposes:

- 1. To provide appropriate monetary and injunctive relief;
- 2. To ensure that Defendants' employment practices comply with federal law;
- 3. To ensure a work environment free from hostility due to their sex (female);
- 4. To ensure training for Defendants' managers and employees with respect to their obligations under Title VII;
- 5. To ensure that Defendants maintain a non segregated work force to allow women the equal employment opportunities required under Title VII;
- 6. To ensure that employees are protected from retaliation for engaging in a protected activity; and
- 7. To provide an appropriate and effective mechanism for handling harassment, discrimination, and retaliation complaints in the workplace.

III. JURISDICTION

The Court has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this lawsuit, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. Sections 451, 1331, 1337, 1343, 1367 and 42 U.S.C. 2000e-5. The Court shall retain jurisdiction of this action during the duration of this Decree for the purposes of entering all orders, judgments and decrees that may be necessary to implement the terms and conditions specified herein.

The Plaintiff in this action is the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission.

The Defendants who are bound to the jurisdiction of this Court and to the terms and obligations of this Decree are as follows: Rivera Vineyards (a sole proprietorship); Oasis Distributing (a sole proprietorship); BR Company (a sole proprietorship); Indian Wells Vineyards, Inc.; Rivera Vineyard Inc., Linda Vineyards Inc.; BR Inc.; Mr. Blas Rivera as an individual and in his capacity as Trustee of the Rivera Family Trust; its predecessors, successors, officers, directors, agents, and assigns.

IV. FINDINGS

Having examined the terms and provisions of this Decree and based on the pleadings, record and stipulation of the Parties, the Court finds the following:

- A. The Court has jurisdiction over the Parties and the subject matter of this action. The Complaint asserts claims that, if proven, would authorize the Court to grant the relief set forth in this Decree.
- B. The terms and provisions of this Decree are adequate, fair, reasonable, equitable and just. The rights of the Defendants, the Commission and those for whom the Commission seeks relief are protected adequately by this Decree.
- C. This Decree conforms with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and Title VII and is not in derogation of the rights and privileges of any person. The entry of this Decree will further the objectives of Title VII and will be in the best interest of the Parties.

V. RESOLUTION OF CLAIMS

A. The Parties agree that this Decree resolves all claims and causes of action arising out of EEOC Charge Nos. 340-2002-00015 and 340-2002-00019, the complaint filed on September 5, 2003, and the First Amended Complaint filed on or about February 25, 2004 in the United States District Court, Central District of California entitled EEOC v. Rivera Vineyards, Inc. d/b/a Blas Rivera Vineyards; Linda Vineyards, Inc.; BR Company; and Oasis Distributing; and Does 1-10 Inclusively, with Case Number EDCV 03-01117 RT (SGL). The Decree constitutes a complete resolution of all claims under Title VII that were made or could have been made by the EEOC in this action and by those for whom the Commission sought relief.

- B. Nothing in this Decree shall be construed to preclude the EEOC or Defendants from enforcing this Decree pursuant to its terms in the event any party has failed to perform the promises and representations contained herein.
- C. Nothing in this Decree shall be construed to limit or to reduce Defendants' obligation to comply fully with Title VII or any other federal employment statute.
- D. This Decree in no way affects the EEOC's right to bring, process, investigate, or litigate other charges that may be in existence or may later arise against Defendants in accordance with standard EEOC procedures provided that the facts upon which any such action would be based occurred on or after March 24, 2005.

VI. DURATION AND EFFECTIVE DATE OF DECREE

- A. The provisions and agreements contained herein are effective immediately upon the date which this Decree is entered by the Court ("Effective Date").
- B. This Decree shall remain in effect until the Defendants fully pay the monies owed under this Decree or three (3) years from the Effective Date, whichever is later. The term of the Decree shall be no less than three (3) years from the Effective Date.

VII. MONETARY RELIEF

A. Terms

In settlement of this lawsuit, Defendants shall pay a total of one million fifty-thousand dollars ($1,050,000.00) ("Monetary Obligation") to resolve this action. Defendants shall be jointly and severally liable for the full amount of all such payments. The Defendants shall make payments according to the following schedule: (1) $100,000.00 due 60 days after the Effective Date; (2) $75,000.00 due six (6) months after the Effective Date; (3) $75,000.00 due twelve (12) months after the /// Effective Date. Thereafter, Defendants shall pay $100,000.00 annually on the second through ninth anniversary (annually) of the Effective Date, without interest.

- 1. Defendants shall accelerate payment of the remaining balance, at any point during the duration of this Decree upon Defendants' sale of any of its agricultural real property, at the rate of $750.00 per acre but in no event more than the full remaining balance of the Monetary Obligation. Upon any sale of Defendants' agricultural real property and receipt by Plaintiff of a sum equal to Seven Hundred Fifty Dollars ($750.00) for each acre sold (but in no event exceeding the remaining balance of the Monetary Obligation), Plaintiff shall provide a partial reconveyance of the deed of trust with respect to the properties sold.
- 2. In addition, upon Defendants' refinance of any existing debt against their agricultural real property, Plaintiff shall provide Defendants a subordination of the Deed of Trust provided the new, refinanced loan does not exceed the existing loan balance (as of the Effective Date), of the debt it replaces. If any new loan amount secured by Defendants' agricultural real property would be greater than the existing loan balance, (as of the Effective Date) of the debt it replaces ("New Loan"), then, except as provided below, upon recordation of the New Loan, the EEOC shall be paid the net differential up to but not exceeding the remaining balance of the Monetary Obligation. Upon receipt by Plaintiff of any loan proceeds from a New Loan, as described above, Plaintiff shall provide Defendants a partial reconveyance of the Deed of Trust with respect to all of the property which is the subject of the refinance. If the proceeds of a New Loan are used exclusively for crop production purposes ("Crop Loan"), then in that event, if necessary, the EEOC shall subordinate the lien of the Deed of Trust to said Crop Loan provided that the Crop Loan is secured by a crop mortgage, personally guaranteed by Blas Rivera; and that the Crop Loan does not exceed Three Million Dollars ($3,000,000.00) and that Plaintiff receives twenty-five percent (25%) of the Crop Loan, net of loan costs (but not exceeding the remaining balance of the Monetary Obligation) as a condition of the subordination.

- 3. Further, upon the full payment by Defendants to Plaintiff of the Monetary Obligation Plaintiff shall provide Defendants an unconditional request for full reconveyance and deed of full reconveyance of the Deed of Trust and the release of the personal guarantee of Blas Rivera, all forms and content for any of the matters described in Section VII.A.1, 2 and 3 shall be provided by Defendants to Plaintiff.
- Personal Liability of Blas Rivera В.

Blas Rivera shall be personally liable for monies owed under this Decree in the amount of $1,050,000.00. Mr. Blas Rivera shall also be liable as a Trustee of the Rivera Family Trust. Accordingly Mr. Rivera as an individual and as a Trustee of Rivera Family Trust agrees to be bound by the terms and obligations of this Decree as set forth herein and the jurisdiction of this Court (known hereafter as being subsumed herein along with the other "Defendants").

Collateral

As security for Defendants' obligations under this Decree, Defendants shall record a memorandum of this Decree in the County of Riverside and Imperial County in the State of California within ten (10) days of the Effective Date creating a lien against all real and personal property owned by the Defendants, including Blas Rivera. A copy of the recorded Memorandum shall be sent to Anna Park, Regional Attorney, United States Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, 255 East Temple Street, 4th Floor, Los Angeles, CA 90012 within five (5) days of recording.

As further security for Defendants' obligations under this Decree, Defendants shall execute a deed of within ten (10) days of the Effective Date, creating a lien against all agricultural real and personal property owned by the Defendants as of the Effective Date. A copy of the recorded deed of trust shall be sent to Anna Park, Regional Attorney for the United States Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, 255 East Temple Street, 4th Floor, Los Angels, CA 90012 within five (5) days of recording.

The collateral shall also include all inventories, goods, equipment, trade fixtures, contract rights, accounts, chattel paper, instruments, good will, general intangibles and right to payment of every kind now owned or hereafter acquired by the Defendants and/or any other company and/or partnership in which Blas Rivera or Defendants hold any and all interest either individually or jointly. Defendants shall be jointly and severally liable for the Monetary Obligation.

Should Defendants fail to record the Memorandum of this Decree and the Deed of Trust within forty-five (45) days of entry of this Decree, they will be deemed in default and the total amount of $1,050,000 shall be owed and due immediately, including interest at the rate of 10% per annum from and after the date of default.

VIII. CLASS FUND

- A. Defendants shall deposit all sums which become due hereunder in a Class Fund. Within thirty (30) days after a payment, Defendants shall provide the EEOC written verification of the first payment described above and of each and every subsequent payment. Defendants shall have the sole responsibility for all costs and fees connected with establishing and maintaining the class fund. The Class Fund will administer and effect distribution of sums specified herein to eligible claimants, all as set forth in this Decree, in accordance with the written specifications of the EEOC.
- B. The EEOC shall have the sole discretion to identify eligible claimants and the sole discretion to allocate the monetary amounts for each eligible claimant that may be covered by this Decree. Claimants shall execute a general release by and between the Defendants. EEOC shall not be a party to the separate release. The EEOC retains the sole discretion to issue a Right-to-Sue notice in this case. For all

- eligible claimants, EEOC agrees that a Right-to-Sue Notice will not be issued in this case under Title VII.
- The EEOC shall determine and submit a written list of eligible claimants to the Defendants along with the last known address of the claimant. Within ten (10) days of receiving the list of eligible claimants, Defendants shall make payments, to the extent of monies in the Class Fund, to each eligible claimant identified by the EEOC by check transmitted via certified mail, return receipt requested. All amounts distributed from the Class Fund shall be evidenced by IRS Form 1099 to each recipient.
- Within ten (10) business days of the issuance of each check, Defendants shall submit a copy of each check and related correspondence to Anna, Park, Regional Attorney, United States Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, 255 East Temple Street, 4th Floor, Los Angeles, CA 90012.
- Defendants shall prepare and distribute 1099 tax reporting forms to each of E. the eligible claimants pursuant to IRS rules and regulations. Defendants shall be solely responsible for any costs associated with the issuance and distribution of the 1099 tax reporting forms to each of claimants.
- In the event that a payment is returned, because the address is not current, F. the Defendants shall conduct data base research for the claimant's current address and/or attempt to find the claimant's current address at Defendants' own cost. Defendants shall immediately notify the EEOC if a payment is returned and its subsequent efforts to find a current address. Any subsequent correspondence shall be sent to the Regional Attorney as outlined above in VIII (D) above. Once Defendants notify EEOC of a returned payment, upon payment of said unclaimed funds as described herein below, Defendants shall be released from any and all further liability for the same under this Decree and the sum(s) in question shall be credited to Defendants monetary obligations hereunder.

G. Surplus in Class Fund

In the event that any portion of the Class Fund has not been distributed at the expiration of this Decree, the surplus shall be paid to CRLA for providing services to farm workers, specifically farm worker women about sexual harassment. The EEOC shall provide the Defendants the address for CRLA the event of a Surplus in the Class Fund.

IX. REINSTATEMENT

- A. Defendants agree to rehire the claimants who were offered reinstatement on or about April of 2001 in the event defendants resume farming operations.

 Resuming farming in operation is defined as employing 300 employees for 30 (thirty) consecutive calendar days. Defendants shall notify the EEOC within five (5) days of: (1) the resumption of farming operations as defined above; (2) when the claimants are rehired; and (3) who among the claimants was rehired. The use of sub-contractors or contractors shall not exempt the Defendants' obligations under this provision (IX) of the Decree. In the event a claimant is not rehired even though he or she was offered reinstatement on or about April of 2001, the Defendants shall notify the EEOC in writing of the reasons for not hiring the claimant.
- B. Additionally, claimants who participate herein but were not offered reinstatement on or about April of 2001 shall not be precluded from being considered for future employment.

- 10. A statement that Defendants' sex harassment, sex discrimination and retaliation policies apply to all persons, including but not limited to the Defendants' owners, shareholders, directors, officers, other management officials, supervisors, vendors, suppliers, third parties, and customers.

EEOC shall comment on the policies and procedures within thirty (30) days of receipt. The parties shall meet and confer about the proposed changes. If the parties are not able to resolve their differences, the parties shall follow Section XIII set forth below, Should the policy not require any revision no later than ten (10) business days after the forty-five (45) day period, the policy shall be distributed to all employees in either English or Spanish, depending on the language preference of each employee. The policies and procedures shall also be disseminated to all management/supervisory staff and shall also be included in any relevant policy or employee manuals distributed to employees by Defendants. Defendants shall maintain acknowledgments from each employee who receives the revised policy, in either English or Spanish depending on the language preference of each employee. Throughout the term of this Decree, Defendants shall also post the revised policy, in English and Spanish, in a place that is clearly visible to all employees at each of its facilities covered by this Decree in 15 point font. All new or rehired employees shall receive a copy of the policies and procedures within ten (10) days of being hired or rehired.

All employees and employees of subcontractors or contractors, who do business with Defendants, shall be given a copy of Defendants' policies and procedures and will be required under the terms of the agreement with Defendants to comply with those internal policies and procedures in furtherance of Title VII.

D. Complaint Procedure

Within forty-five (45) days of the Effective Date, Defendants shall ensure that it has publicized an internal complaint procedure to provide for the filing, investigation and, if appropriate, remedying of complaints of harassment, discrimination, and retaliation. Defendants shall establish a toll-free number that shall be disseminated to all Defendants employees and employees hired through a contractor or subcontractor informing them that a complaint can be logged at any time. The (800) number shall be processed and monitored by the Consultant. All calls shall be tracked by the Consultant during the term of the Decree. Defendants shall also publicize the EEOC complaint line number of (800) 669-4000 or (213) 894-1983.

Defendants and the Consultant shall:

- 1. Publicize the complaint procedure;
- 2. Track and collect all complaints filed thereunder;
- 3. Investigate and resolve such complaints in a timely and effective manner; and
 - 4. Retain records regarding resolution of all such complaints.

The Consultant shall track all complaints filed thereunder and retain records regarding resolution of all such complaints. The Consultant will review the allegations of harassment, discrimination, and/or retaliation made during the term of the Decree and conduct an investigation accordingly. The Consultant shall provide written findings at the conclusion of its investigation. The EEOC Consultant may recommend discipline, including but not limited to termination of employees who have engaged in harassment, discrimination, or retaliation. If Defendants reject the Consultant's recommended course of action, Defendants must present written justification to the EEOC for failing to adopt the Consultant's termination recommendation within twenty (20) days of the Consultant's findings.

The internal complaint procedure shall incorporate the following elements:

Training E.

Within one hundred fifty (150) days after the Effective Date, all of Defendants' managerial/supervisory and human resources employees shall be required to attend a comprehensive training program on harassment, discrimination, and retaliation. The training shall be mandatory and occur once a year for the first three years of the term of this Decree. The training shall be conducted in the Spanish and, if necessary, in English. Each employee, supervisor, manager, and human resources person shall be required to attend training each year, in a language that each employee best understands. Any manager, supervisor, or employee who failed to attend scheduled training shall be trained within thirty (30) days of the live training set forth above. The training shall also include persons supervising employees working for contractors that work for Defendants.

All employees' training shall include coverage of the subjects of equal 1. employment opportunity rights and responsibilities, discrimination, harassment, retaliation, and Defendants' revised policies and procedures for reporting and handling complaints of discrimination, harassment and retaliation.

- 2. A separate training of managerial and supervisory employees shall additionally include training on how to properly handle and investigate complaints of discrimination and/or harassment in a neutral manner, how to take preventive and corrective measures against discrimination and/or retaliation, and how to recognize and prevent discrimination and/or retaliation. Managers and supervisors shall also be trained on proper hiring, recruitment, promotion, screening, transfer, and/or retention procedures that ensure that female applicants and/or employees are provided with equal employment opportunities which do not deny them employment in any positions as required under Title VII. The training shall also encompass a comprehensive overview of the Defendants' policies and procedures. Managers and supervisors shall also be trained on monitoring, avoiding, and preventing retaliation in the workplace.
- 3. Human Resources training shall be specific to their obligations, including the handling and investigating of complaints of discrimination and retaliation. This training shall be above and beyond the supervisor/manager training as set forth above. Specifically, human resources individuals shall be trained in monitoring work areas to ensure compliance with Defendants' policies and procedures against harassment, discrimination, and retaliation.
- 4. For the remainder of the term of this Decree, all new employees and all employees recently promoted from a staff/hourly to a managerial position shall receive the managerial or staff/hourly employee training, as appropriate, within thirty (30) days of hire or promotion.
- 5. After the initial training as specified above, all employees shall receive the training at least annually thereafter for the remainder of the term of this Decree.

- Within forty-five (45) days after the Effective Date or fifteen (15) 7. days after hiring the Consultant, whichever is later, Defendants shall submit to the EEOC a description of the training to be provided and an outline of the curriculum developed for the trainees.
- 8. Defendants shall give the EEOC a minimum of fifteen (15) business days advance written notice of the date, time and location of each training program provided pursuant to this Decree. An EEOC representative may attend any such training program.
- Designation of Job Related Training Areas F.

Defendants and the Consultant shall ensure that female employees are not isolated and subjected to harassment. As such, any job related training shall be conducted in designated areas and/or in the presence of a female supervisor. To the extent possible, job related instructions or training shall be done during designated times and locations. Defendants shall ensure that all supervisors and managers are informed that it is their obligation and duty to report incidents of harassment, discrimination, or retaliation, particularly those perpetrated by other supervisors and managers. Failing to do so may result in discipline.

Hiring, Recruitment, and Retention G.

Defendants shall hire women into all positions, including but not limited to, pruning, vine tying, girdling, irrigation, swamping and other positions that were found to be segregated based upon sex (female) by the EEOC. If Defendants resume farming operations, as defined herein, during the term of this Decree, they shall engage in recruitment activities targeted at hiring more women into the positions where they have been excluded or limited. For each year during the term of this Consent Decree, Defendants (shall endeavor) to obtain a hiring rate of at least fifty (50) percent women in pruning, vine tying, and irrigation, and at least ten (10) percent women in girdling, and swamping.

In pursuing this endeavor, at any time that Defendants resume farming operations as defined herein, Defendants shall engage in the following activities:

- 1. Advertise and actively recruit in the radio and print media with a likely audience of persons who would be interested in working for Defendants, including but not limited to Spanish language radio and La Prensa;
- 2. Distribute job notices to employees and create at least two visible postings centers at Defendants' facilities where employees can see job vacancy postings;
- 3. Advertise and actively recruit applicants in advocacy organizations such as Lideres Campesinas, the California Rural Legal Assistance, and Desert Community Alliance;
- 4. Implement a hiring procedure that does not rely solely on word-of-mouth for publicizing openings and that includes a systematic, predetermined hiring procedure that is disclosed to all applicants to ensure that applicants are evaluated based on their qualifications and interest in the open positions; Provide written notice of all job openings with each employee's pay-check for the relevant job and time period; and
 - 5. Any other procedures recommended by the EEO Consultant.

If Defendants fail to meet the annual hiring endeavor, the EEOC shall, in good faith, reasonably review Defendants' good faith compliance with their obligations under the Decree in order to determine whether Defendants violated the Decree. If Defendants have acted in good faith in their hiring practices, but, in spite of their good faith efforts, have not attained the hiring endeavor for that year, Defendants will be excused from such non-compliance and shall not be deemed in violation of this section of the Decree.

- overall compliance or non-compliance with the terms of the Decree 13. set forth herein.

Upon full payment of all sums, this Decree shall be of no further force or effect, and EEOC shall for itself and those for whom it acts (i.e., all past and present employees of Defendants) forever and fully discharge Defendants from any and all further claims and causes of action.

XII. REMEDIES IN EVENT OF A DEFAULT OR VIOLATION OF THIS DECREE

Acceleration of Balance Owed

In the event of a default or violation of this Decree, the EEOC shall be entitled, after written notice and a reasonable opportunity to cure, to accelerate the remaining unpaid balance owed under this Decree and declare all remaining amounts due and payable from the date of default until the amount is paid. Interest shall also be due at a rate of 10% per annum.

Defendants shall be in default under this provision when Defendants fail to make a timely payment, fail to fulfill payments to the claimants, or fail to meet the terms of This Decree. In the event of a default due to non payment or untimely payment, after notice and reasonable opportunity to cure, the EEOC may, without further notice, accelerate the entire unpaid balance due under this Decree. The meet and confer requirements under Section XIII shall not apply with respect to a failure to make payments. Defendants shall be notified in writing by the EEOC of the acceleration. Reasonable opportunity to cure is defined herein as 30 days. Otherwise, the entire balance will be due within twenty (20) days after the reasonable opportunity to cure period expires.

With respect to a default or violation of this Decree relating to injunctive relief remedies or any other provisions herein, the parties shall follow the meet and confer and enforcement mechanism set forth below in Section XIII.

B. Waiver of Right to Bankruptcy Protections

Defendants agree that their obligations and liabilities under this Decree shall not be dischargeable under the Bankruptcy Code, Title 11 of the U.S. Code enacted by the Bankruptcy Reform Act of 1978, P.L. 95-598. For Bankruptcy Code purposes only, and without this being an admission by Defendants, it is agreed that this debt is considered to have arisen from the "willful and malicious" injury by the Defendants to the class members pursuant to 11 U.S.C. '523(a)(6).

This Consent Decree shall constitute an enforceable judgment for purposes of post-judgment collection, in accordance with Rule 69 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the Federal Debt Collection Procedures Act, 28 U.S.C. §§ 3001, et seq. and any other applicable authority. The United States Equal Employment Opportunity Commission shall be deemed a judgment creditor for purposes of payment of any unpaid amounts of the civil penalties, stipulated penalties, interest and/or settlement payments owed under this Consent Decree and/or Title VII.

XIII. DECREE ENFORCEMENT

The parties expressly agree that if the Commission has reason to believe that Defendants have failed to comply with any provision of this Consent Decree, the Commission may bring an action before this Court to enforce the Decree. Prior to initiating such action, the Commission will notify Defendants and its legal counsel of record, in writing, of the nature of the dispute. This notice shall specify the particular provision(s) that the Commission believes Defendants has breached. Absent a showing that the delay will cause irreparable harm, Defendants shall have thirty (30) days to attempt to resolve or cure the breach.

Filed 06/14/2005

The parties agree to cooperate with each other and use their best efforts to resolve any dispute referenced in the EEOC notice.

After thirty (30) days have passed with no resolution or agreement to extend the time further, the Commission may petition this Court for compliance with this Decree at any time during which this Court maintains jurisdiction over this action and the Defendants will have an opportunity to respond. Should the Court determine that the Defendants have not complied with this Decree, in whole or in part, it may impose appropriate relief, including but not limited to the imposition of attorneys' fees and costs on the Defendants and extension of the duration of this Decree for such a period as may be necessary to remedy the Defendants' non-compliance. This provision shall not apply if the breach involves a failure to pay money under this Decree. The parties shall comply with the Court's briefing schedule pursuant to the Federal Rules.

XIV. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

A. Successors In Interest

During the term of this Consent Decree, Defendants shall provide any potential successor-in-interest with a copy of this Consent Decree within a reasonable time of not less than thirty (30) days prior to the execution of any agreement for acquisition or assumption of control of any or all of Defendants' facilities, or any other material change in corporate structure, and shall simultaneously inform the EEOC of same. However, this shall not apply to any situation involving a land sale or a restructure of business if same owners involved.

During the term of this Consent Decree, Defendants and its successors shall assure that each of its officers, managers and supervisors is aware of any term(s) of this Decree which may be related to his/her job duties.

Unless otherwise stated, all notices, reports and correspondence required under this Decree shall be delivered to the attention of the Regional Attorney, Anna Y. Park, U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, Los Angeles District Office, 255 E. Temple St., 4th Fl., Los Angeles, CA. 90012.

C. Cost and Attorneys Fees

Each party shall bear its own costs of suit and attorneys' fees. Defendants shall bear all costs associated with its administration and implementation of its obligations under this Consent Decree, including the costs of the EEO Consultant. All costs associated with executing the Decree and the distribution of the settlement funds to Charging Parties and similarly situated persons shall be paid by Defendants, including without limitation, all costs related to the issuance and mailing of checks.

D. Modification and Severability

This Decree constitutes the complete understanding of the parties with respect to the matters contained herein. No waiver, modification or amendment of any provision of this Decree will be effective unless made in writing and signed by an authorized representative of each of the parties.

If one or more provisions of the Decree are rendered unlawful or unenforceable, the parties shall make good faith efforts to agree upon appropriate amendments to this Decree in order to effectuate the purposes of the Decree. In any event, the remaining provisions will remain in full force and effect unless the purposes of the Decree cannot, despite the parties' best efforts, be achieved.

By mutual agreement of the parties, this Decree may be amended or modified in writing.
