Case No. CIV-03-1374-F

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

FILED
OCT 21 2003
ROBERT D. DENNIS
U.S. DIST. COURT - WESTERN DIST. OF OKLA.
BY [Signature] DEPUTY

PLAINTIFF INTERVENOR COMPLAINT

1. This is an action under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, Title I of the Civil Rights Act of 1991, and Oklahoma law, to correct unlawful employment practices on the basis of sex, religion, retaliation, and to remedy intentional tortious conduct and negligent conduct, and to provide appropriate relief to Bridgett Greene.

PARTIES, JURISDICTION AND VENUE

2. Jurisdiction of this Court is invoked pursuant to 28 U.S.C. Section 451, 1331, 1337 and 1343, and 1345. This action is authorized and instituted pursuant to Section 706 of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended ("Title VII"), 42 U.S.C. § 2000e-5, and Section 102 of the Civil Rights Act of 1991, 42 U.S.C. § 1981A.

3. The employment practices alleged to be unlawful, as well as the alleged acts of tortious and negligent conduct, were and are now being committed within the jurisdiction of the United States District Court for the Western District of Oklahoma.

4. Plaintiff, Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (the "Commission"), filed a complaint against Defendant in the United States District Court for the Western District of Oklahoma on September 24, 2003.

5. As Plaintiff Intervenor, Bridgett Greene, falls within the category of "other similarly stated individuals" as alleged in the Original Complaint filed by the Equal Opportunity Employment Commission. Bridgett Greene has an unconditional right to intervene in the case filed by the Commission pursuant to Section 706(f) of Title VII, 42 U.S.C. § 2000e-5(f).

6. In the event that the Court finds Bridgett Greene does not have right of intervention pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 24(b), Bridget Greene's Intervenor Complaint and the Complaint filed in the above-styled litigation have questions of law and fact in common. Therefore, pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 24(b) intervention is permissive under the circumstances.

7. At all relevant times, Defendant has continuously been and is now doing business in the State of Oklahoma and city of Oklahoma City, and has had at least fifteen employees.

8. At all relevant times, Defendant has continuously been an employer engaged in an industry affecting commerce within the meaning of Section 701 (b), (g) and (h) of Title VII, 42 U.S.C. § 2000e(b), (g) and (h).

9. All conditions precedent to the institution of this action have been met in that Bridgett Greene falls within the class of persons defined as "other similarly situated individuals" as alleged in the Original Complaint filed by the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission herein.
