CIVIL ACTION NO 06-6053

COMPLAINT

JURY TRIAL DEMAND

NATURE OF THE ACTION

This is an action under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended ("Title VII"), and Title I of the Civil Rights Act of 1991 to correct unlawful employment practices and to provide appropriate relief to Tammie Rodriguez and a class of female employees who have been adversely affected by such practices. Tammie Rodriguez and other female employees were discriminated against by Defendant by being subjected to sexual discrimination and sexual harassment. Ms. Rodriguez was discharged in retaliation for complaining about sexual harassment. Other female employees were forced to resign due to ongoing sexual harassment.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. Jurisdiction of this Court is invoked pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§451, 1331, 1337, 1343, and 1345. This is an action authorized and instituted pursuant to §706(f)(1) and (3) and §706 and §707 of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, 42 U.S.C. §2000e, et seq. ("Title VII").

2. The employment practices alleged to be unlawful were and are now being committed within the jurisdiction of the United States District Court for the Western District of Arkansas, Hot Springs Division.

PARTIES

3. Plaintiff, Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (the "Commission"), is an agency of the United States of America charged with the administration, interpretation, and enforcement of Title VII and is expressly authorized to bring this action by §706(f)(1) and (3) and §707 of Title VII, 42 U.S.C. §2000-5(f)(1) and (3), and 42 U.S.C. §2000-6.

4. At all relevant times, Defendant, Issa Enterprises, Inc. d/b/a Colorado Grill ("Defendant Employer"), was a corporation doing business in the State of Arkansas and the City of Hot Springs and has continuously had at least fifteen (15) employees. Defendant Employer operates a restaurant in Hot Springs, Arkansas.

5. At all relevant times, Defendant Employer has continuously been and is now an employer engaged in an industry affecting commerce within the meaning of §701(b), (g), and (h) of Title VII, 42 U.S.C. §2000e(b), (g), and (h).

STATEMENT OF CLAIMS

6. More than thirty (30) days prior to the institution of this lawsuit, Tammie Rodriguez filed a charge of discrimination with the Commission alleging violations of Title VII by Defendant. During the course of the investigation, allegations of sexual harassment directed towards other female employees were discovered. All conditions precedent to the institution of this lawsuit have been fulfilled.

7. From on or around August 1, 2003, and continuing, Defendant Employer has engaged in unlawful employment practices at its facility in Hot Springs, Arkansas, in violation of §703(a) of Title VII, as amended, 42 U.S.C. §2000e-2(a). The unlawful practices include, but are not limited to, discrimination against Tammie Rodriguez and other female employees on the basis of their sex in the form of subjecting Tammie Rodriguez and other female employees to sexual harassment. Defendant failed to take prompt remedial action to protect Tammie Rodriguez and other female employees from the sexual harassment in the workplace.

8. The sexual harassment in the workplace included, but was not limited to, graphic sexual comments, sexual overtures, physical touching of a sexual nature, and other sexual behavior directed towards Tammie Rodriguez and other female employees by male employees. The conduct was offensive, unwelcome, and pervasive in nature.

9. Tammie Rodriguez and other female employees complained to Defendant's management about sexual harassment in the workplace. Defendant failed to take appropriate action in response to these complaints to protect its female employees from being subjected to a sexually hostile work environment.

10. Tammie Rodriguez was discharged in retaliation for complaining about sexual harassment in the workplace.

11. Other female employees were forced to resign due to the ongoing sexual harassment in the workplace and Defendant's refusal to take corrective action.

12. The effect of the practices complained of above has been to deprive Tammie Rodriguez and other female employees of equal employment opportunities and otherwise adversely affect their status as employees.

13. The unlawful employment practices complained of above were and are intentional.

14. Defendant Employer at all relevant times acted with malice or reckless indifference to the federally protected rights of Tammie Rodriguez and other female employees.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, the Commission respectfully prays that this Court:

A. Grant a permanent injunction enjoining the Defendant Employer, its officers, successors, assigns and all persons in active concert or participation with it, from engaging in any employment practice which discriminates on the basis of sex or retaliation for engaging in protected activity under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended.

B. Order Defendant Employer to institute and carry out policies, practices, and programs which provide equal employment opportunities which eradicate the effects of its past and present unlawful employment patterns and practices.

C. Order Defendant Employer to make whole Tammie Rodriguez and other female employees who were subjected to Defendant's practices of sexual harassment and retaliation by providing backpay with prejudgment interest, in amounts to be determined at trial, and provide all other affirmative relief necessary to eradicate the effects of its unlawful employment practices.

D. Order Defendant Employer to make whole Tammie Rodriguez and other female employees who were subjected to Defendant's alleged sexual harassment and retaliation by providing compensation for past and future pecuniary losses resulting from the unlawful employment practices described above, including medical expenses, in amounts to be determined at trial.

E. Order Defendant Employer to make whole Tammie Rodriguez and other female employees who were subjected to Defendant's alleged sexual harassment and retaliation by providing compensation for past and future non pecuniary losses resulting from the unlawful practices complained of above, including emotional pain, suffering, embarrassment, inconvenience, loss of enjoyment of life, and humiliation, in amounts to be determined at trial.

F. Order Defendant Employer to pay Tammie Rodriguez and other female employees who were subjected to Defendant's practices of alleged sexual harassment and retaliation punitive damages for its malicious and/or reckless conduct, in an amount to be determined at trial.

G. Grant such further relief as the Court deems necessary and proper.

H. Award the Commission its costs in this action.

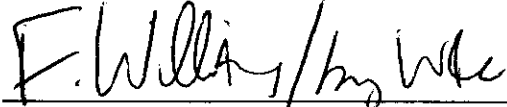

JURY TRIAL DEMAND

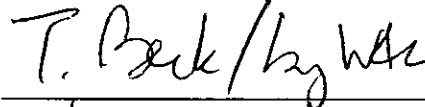

The Commission requests a jury trial on all questions of fact raised by its Complaint.
