JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

UNOPPOSED FIRST AMENDED COMPLAINT

This is an action under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, and Title I of the Civil Rights Act of 1991 to correct unlawful employment practices on the basis of sex (including but not limited to sexual harassment), and to provide appropriate relief to the Charging Parties, Michelle Arnett, Regina Cash, Christy Hamlin and Cynthia White (hereinafter "Charging Parties"), who were adversely affected by such practices. The Commission alleges that Charging Parties were sexually harassed by a manager of the Defendants. As a result of the sexual harassment, the conditions of their employment were made so intolerable that they were forced to resign their positions.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. Jurisdiction of this Court is invoked pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 451, 1331, 1337, 1343 and 1345. This action is authorized and instituted pursuant to Section 706(f)(1) and (3) of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, 42 U.S.C. § 2000e-5(f)(1) and (3) (Title VII), and Section 102 of the Civil Rights Act of 1991, 42 U.S.C. § 1981a.

2. The employment practices alleged to be unlawful were committed within the jurisdiction of the United States District Court for the Middle District of Georgia, Macon Division.

PARTIES

3. Plaintiff, the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (the “Commission”), is the agency of the United States of America charged with the administration, interpretation and enforcement of Title VII and is expressly authorized to bring this action by Section 706(f)(1) and (3) of Title VII, 28 U.S.C. § 2000e-5(f)(1) and (3).

4. At all relevant times, Defendants Cable Communications & Engineering, Inc. and Cable Communications, Inc. (the “Defendants”) have continuously been corporations doing business in the State of Georgia and the city of Macon, Georgia, and have continuously had at least 15 employees, respectively.

5. At all relevant times, Defendants have continuously been employers engaged in an industry affecting commerce under Section 701(b), (g) and (h) of Title VII, 42 U.S.C. § 2000e(b), (g) and (h).

STATEMENT OF CLAIMS

6. More than 30 days prior to the institution of this lawsuit, Charging Parties filed their charges with the Commission alleging a violation of Title VII by Defendants. All conditions precedent to the institution of this lawsuit have been fulfilled.

7. Since at least October 20, 2000, Defendants engaged in unlawful employment practices at their Macon, Georgia facilities, in violation of Section 703(a) of Title VII, 42 U.S.C. § 2000e-2(a), by subjecting Charging Parties to

- (a) sexual harassment; and
- (b) constructive discharge.

8. The effects of the practices complained of in paragraph 7 above have been to deprive Charging Parties of equal employment opportunities and otherwise adversely affect their status as employees because of their sex.

9. The unlawful employment practices complained of in paragraph 7 above were intentional and were carried out with malice and/or reckless indifference to the federally protected rights of Charging Parties.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

Wherefore, the Commission respectfully requests that this Court:

A. Grant a permanent injunction enjoining Defendants, its officers, successors, assigns and all persons in active concert or participation with them, from engaging in sexual harassment against women, creating intolerable working conditions the effect of which forces women to resign their employment, and engaging in any other employment practice which discriminates on the basis of sex.

B. Order Defendants to institute and carry out policies, practices, and programs which provide equal employment opportunities for women and which eradicate the effects of their past and present unlawful employment practices.

C. Order Defendants to make whole Charging Parties, who were adversely affected by Defendants' discriminatory conduct, by providing appropriate back pay with prejudgment interest, in amounts to be determined at trial, and other affirmative relief necessary to eradicate the effects of their unlawful employment practices, including but not limited to front pay and/or rightful-place reinstatement of Charging Parties.

D. Order Defendants to make whole Charging Parties by providing compensation for past and future pecuniary losses resulting from the unlawful employment practices described above, including job search expenses, in amounts to be determined at trial.

E. Order Defendants to make whole Charging Parties by providing compensation for non-pecuniary losses resulting from the unlawful employment practices described above, including emotional pain and suffering, anxiety, stress, depression, and humiliation, in amounts to be determined at trial.

F. Order Defendants to pay to Charging Parties punitive damages for Defendants' malicious and reckless conduct described above, in amounts to be determined at trial.

G. Grant such further relief as the Court deems necessary and proper.

H. Award the Commission its costs in this action.
