Within thirty (30) calendar days of JOBEC’s receipt of fully executed Releases, in the form of Exhibit C, from all claimants, JOBEC shall pay the settlement amount according to the following terms and as indicated in Paragraph 8 of this Decree. Charging Party Tiawna Jacobson shall receive a check in the amount of $152,000.00 payable to Tiawna Jacobson for compensatory damages. For all payments to the Charging Parties and class members representing compensatory damages for personal injuries, JOBEC shall issue each payee a form 1099 in the amount of such payment. The Commission retains the sole discretion to apportion the compensatory damage amounts between the eligible class claimants identified in Exhibit A. Also, any claimant paid in accordance with Exhibit A of this Decree will execute only a Release in the form of Exhibit C. Defendants will not condition the receipt of individual relief on the charging parties' or class members' agreement (a) maintain as confidential the terms of this decree, (b) waive their statutory right to file a charge with any federal or state anti-discrimination agency, or (c) waive their right to apply for a position at any JOBEC facility.

9. The checks provided for in Paragraph 8 and pursuant to Exhibit A of this Decree shall be made payable to each of the individuals listed in Exhibit A in the amounts designated by the Commission. 12. JOBEC shall not take any action against Tiawna Jacobson, Brandi Michal, any class member, any witness in this proceeding or any other individual in retaliation for filing a charge of employment discrimination or for participating, assisting or testifying in this action.

13. JOBEC shall provide Tiawna Jacobson, Brandi Michal, and each class member with a letter of apology signed by the owner of JOBEC. The letters of apology shall be issued in the form of Exhibit D to this Decree.

DEFENDANT'S CORRECTIVE POLICIES AND PRACTICES

14. JOBEC shall institute and carry out policies and practices that will provide a work environment free from sex discrimination and retaliation, including policies, procedures and practices to prevent sexual harassment of their employees and other individuals, and that allow employees and other individuals to raise concerns or complaints about matters made unlawful by Title VII, whether alleged, perceived or actual without retaliation. To assist JOBEC in its efforts to provide a work environment free of sex discrimination, sexual harassment and retaliation, JOBEC shall take the actions provided for in Paragraphs 15 through 17 and 19.

15. Within sixty (60) days of the entry of this decree, JOBEC shall review any existing policies on sex discrimination, including sexual harassment and retaliation, and make any changes necessary so that their policies and procedures comply with Title VII. JOBEC shall ensure their written policy includes a statement that employees have a right to complain directly to EEOC or any state equal opportunity agency. JOBEC shall ensure that its policies and procedures relating to sexual harassment provide for and identify at least one person at each

JOBEC restaurant or facility who will have information about JOBEC's complaint process, who may be designated to receive complaints, and who is responsible for reporting such complaints in a timely manner to the owners of JOBEC. After reviewing and making any necessary revisions to its policies, JOBEC shall distribute the revised sexual harassment and non-retaliation policies and complaint procedures annually to each of its current full and part-time employees, and to each new employee hired for the duration of this decree. The policy and procedure statements that are provided to JOBEC employees should be designed to present easily understood, convenient, consistent, confidential and reliable procedures for reporting incidents of sexual harassment and retaliation occurring at JOBEC restaurants or facilities in Colorado and New Mexico. These procedures, at a minimum, shall include provisions incorporating the following:

- A. Within thirty (30) days of entry of this decree and for the duration of this decree, JOBEC shall designate at least one employee in a supervisory or managerial position to serve as an investigative officer for employees having questions, concerns or complaints about sexual harassment or retaliation. This investigative officer shall be responsible for communicating with employees about JOBEC's complaint and investigation process, answering employee preliminary inquiries, and investigating complaints of sexual harassment.
- B. Within thirty (30) days of entry of this decree and for the duration of this decree, the name(s), responsibilities, work location, and telephone number of the investigative officer(s) will routinely and continuously be posted and provided to all employees so that an employee seeking such name can enjoy anonymity and remain inconspicuous to other employees.

- C. For the duration of this decree, complaints of sexual harassment or retaliation will be accepted in writing, orally, or anonymously and all complaints will be taken seriously and investigated appropriately.
- D. Only those who have an immediate need to know, including the investigative official(s), owner(s), the alleged target of harassment or retaliation, the alleged harasser(s) or retaliator(s) and any witnesses, may find out the identity of the complainant.
- E. During an investigation of a sexual harassment complaint of an employee or other individual, investigative officers will have the responsibility for expeditiously and appropriately investigating all complaints.
- F. The investigative officers shall endeavor to immediately interview in person all affected individuals and potential witnesses to the alleged harassment without the presence of unnecessary management officials and officials who are specifically implicated by the allegations of harassment.
- G. All parties contacted in the course of an investigation will be advised that any retaliation or reprisal against an individual who is an alleged target of harassment or retaliation, who has made a complaint, or who has provided evidence in connection with a complaint will not be tolerated and could result in disciplinary action.
- H. Each investigative officer will receive thorough and appropriate training about sexual harassment and sexual harassment investigations. This training shall consist of at least two hours in addition to that provided under paragraph 17 of this decree.

- I. The investigative officer will recommend remedial measures, if appropriate, based upon the results of the investigation, and JOBEC will promptly consider and act upon such recommendation.
- J. The investigative officer will maintain a file on the original complaint(s) and any follow-up investigation.
- K. JOBEC owners, managers, officials, agents or employees who engage in sexual harassment or retaliation; who fail to cooperate with company-sponsored investigations of sexual harassment or retaliation; or who refuse to implement remedial measures will be advised that they may be sanctioned severely by loss of income, suspension or dismissal.

16. JOBEC shall post within thirty (30) days of the entry of this consent decree, and continuously for the duration of this decree, in prominent places frequented by employees of their Colorado and New Mexico restaurants and facilities, the Notice attached to this decree as Exhibit B. This Notice shall be the same type, style and size as in Exhibit B.

17. JOBEC shall provide training on sex discrimination, sexual harassment, and retaliation according to the following terms:

- A. JOBEC shall provide at least three training sessions during the term of this decree. All owners, managers, supervisors and employees at restaurants or facilities owned or operated by JOBEC in Colorado and New Mexico shall attend the training. Duplicative sessions may be held to accommodate staffing needs. JOBEC shall be responsible for all costs associated with this training.

- B. During the first year of the decree, the training shall be conducted within ninety (90) days of the entry of this decree. Additional training shall be conducted for all JOBEC employees in Colorado and New Mexico subject to this Decree at least once each remaining year of this Decree.
- C. For the duration of this decree, at or around the time of hire, employees hired after the annual training is presented, shall view a video tape of the training and/or a professional training tape which covers the topics set forth in paragraph 17F and shall be given any written material disseminated at the training.
- D. JOBEC shall select a qualified trainer or facilitator and shall submit the trainer's or facilitator's name, resume, training agenda and the date(s) of the proposed training to the Regional Attorney of the Albuquerque Area Office of the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission within thirty (30) days of the entry of this decree. For training sessions during the second and third years of the decree, the above information shall be submitted to the Regional Attorney at least sixty (60) days prior to the seminar-training session. The Commission shall have thirty days from the date of receipt of the information described above to accept or reject the proposed trainer or facilitator and/or the contents of the seminar. In the event the Commission does not approve defendants' designated trainer, JOBEC will be required to submit the name, resume, training agenda and date(s) of proposed training for an alternate trainer(s) or facilitator(s) until the Commission approves a designated trainer or facilitator.
- E. The training shall include a minimum of three hours of instruction. All personnel, designated in Paragraph A shall both register and attend the training.

The registry of attendance shall be retained by defendants at least for the duration of the decree.

- F. The training, at a minimum shall include the subjects of: what constitutes sex discrimination, including sexual harassment and retaliation; that sex discrimination in the hiring, firing, compensation, assignment or other terms, conditions or privileges of employment and retaliation violates Title VII; how to prevent sex discrimination and retaliation; how to provide a work environment free from sex discrimination, sexual harassment, and retaliation; and to whom and by what means employees may complain if they feel they have been subjected to sex discrimination, sexual harassment or retaliation in the workplace.
- G. Immediately following the training sessions, the highest ranking JOBEC managerial official in the facility shall speak to the employees about: (1) potential discipline that can be taken against supervisors, managers and employees who commit acts of sex discrimination or retaliation or who allow sex discrimination or retaliation to occur in the workplace; (2) the importance of maintaining an environment free of sex discrimination and retaliation; and (3) the employer's policies regarding sex discrimination, sexual harassment, and retaliation. This time shall not be counted toward the three-hour minimum training required in paragraph 17E.

18. The Commission, at its discretion, may designate Commission representatives to attend and participate in any of the training sessions described above.

REPORTING BY DEFENDANT AND ACCESS BY EEOC

19. JOBEC shall separately report in writing and in affidavit form to the Regional Attorney of the Commission's Albuquerque Area Office at 505 Marquette NW, Suite 900, Albuquerque, New Mexico 87102-2189, beginning six months from the date of the Entry of this Decree, and thereafter every six months for the duration of the decree the following information:

- B. The name, address, position, and telephone number of any employee who during the six months preceding the report has brought allegations of sex discrimination, sex harassment, or retaliation arising from activities in JOBEC's Colorado or New Mexico restaurants or facilities against defendants or its personnel, including but not limited to owners, management officials, vendors, agents, or employees. The nature of the complaint, investigatory efforts made by JOBEC and the corrective action taken, if any, shall be specified.
- C. The registries of persons attending each of the seminar-training sessions required in paragraphs 15 and 17 of this decree and a list of current employees on the day of the seminar-training session.
- D. An affidavit by JOBEC's owner(s): (1) the Notice required in paragraph 16 of this decree was posted and the locations where it was posted, and (2) it has complied with paragraphs 15-17 and 19 of this decree.
- E. Copies of any video presentations JOBEC utilizes to comply with the requirements of this decree.

20. The Commission upon reasonable notice shall have the right to enter and inspect the premises of JOBEC's restaurants and facilities in Colorado and New Mexico to insure compliance with this decree and federal anti-discrimination laws.

COSTS AND DURATION

21. Each party shall bear its costs and attorney's fees incurred as a result of this action through the entry of this decree.

22. The duration of this decree shall be three (3) years from its entry. This Court shall retain jurisdiction of this action for the duration of the decree, during which the Commission may petition this Court for compliance with this decree. Should the Court determine that JOBEC has not complied with this decree, appropriate relief, including extension of this decree for such period as may be necessary to remedy its non-compliance, may be ordered.

RE: Colorado Hamburger Company, Inc., Farmington Hamburger
Company, Inc. and JOBEC, Inc., d/b/a McDonald's

Dear :

On behalf of JOBEC, I wish to express my sincere regret that you found your experience, while employed at the Durango McDonald's restaurant in 2004, to be objectionable. It is unfortunate that the former managers of the restaurant did not respond appropriately and promptly to your concerns in accord with our policies. The managers have admitted they knew it was their responsibility to protect employees from inappropriate conduct, but they did not. We are sorry for any perception you may have had that the managers blamed you for what happened to you at the restaurant.

Thank you for the contributions you made while employed at McDonald's and we wish you success in your future endeavors.

Sincerely,

John Bronson
